Cleve Elza Hinton

Ukiah
July 8, 1929 – October 23, 2015

Hinton

Born in Pendleton, Or. on July 8, 1929, Cleve passed in Cove, Or. on October 23, 2015. He was 86. Born to parents George and Fern Hinton, he and his brother Bill grew up on the family ranch out of Dale, Or. He rode his horse about 3 miles to a one room schoolhouse at Range, and for a time he lived with his grandparents on their dairy out of Ukiah, milking cows before riding on in to school and repeating the milking in the evening. He quit school at a young age opting for the school of hard knocks in the timber industry. Without letting them know his age, he got hired on with the Pilot Rock Lumber Co. and became one of their top notch equipment operators. People still make comments of his abilities. In 1948, he met and married his soul mate and best friend, Dolores Lyon. They spent their first 10 years at the Pilot Rock Lumber camp on the N Fork John Day River before moving to Ukiah. In 1965 they moved to Boardman, Or. where Cleve worked on heavy equipment in the construction of the John Day Dam, relocation of the towns of Boardman and Arlington, and building a new freeway. He then worked throughout the northwest and Alaska with the construction of the pipeline in the '70s. Upon returning from Alaska, the couple settled at the Hinton homestead. Cleve went into the horse logging business for a time, reviving his passion for horses/mules and teams. He helped haul local students baggage during their outdoor ed campouts, wedding processions, Westward Ho Parade, and for over 25 years he was an icon on the Round-Up Wagon Train. After retiring from construction, Cleve rode for a local Cattleman's Association for many years. He was one to keep busy. He was truly a great husband, father, grandfather, teacher, and friend. He taught the value of living simple, working hard and playing just as hard. He had no harsh words for others and when he spoke everyone wanted to hear what he had to say. He had a marvelous way of telling of his many adventures. His life revolved around hunting, fishing, and the great outdoors with his family and many friends. If anyone ever got turned around in the woods, he could bring them home with a whistle that everyone recognized. He loved to dance and have a good time.

Everyone who knew Cleve will miss him greatly. He is preceded in death by his wife, parents, brother and his wife Barbara. He is survived by daughters Kathy Mosteit (Dave); Judy Wilson; Georgia Burnett (Norm); grandchildren: Brian Buchanan (Kristi), Chris Wolf (Angela), Kasey Tekippe (Tim), Mathew Wilson (Melissa), Jason Buchanan (Lena), Ingrid Huang (Bryant), Chris Burnett, Jenny Massey-Dustin and Haylie Mosteit and 12 great-grandchildren. Having lost Dolores earlier this summer, we only hope their reunion is that of joy and exuberance and they are dancing in the beautiful halls of heaven.

Services will be at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel on Sat., Nov. 7th at 1:00pm followed by a celebration of life at The Eagles on Main Street.

Contributions that will benefit the Ukiah Cemetery can be made in care of the family's name and sent to Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, Or 97801.
