

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

- The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 7:45 a.m. received an emergency report that a man was angry because his divorce was finalized, and he threatened to burn down his parents' house on Southwest 11th Street, Hermiston, because they helped pack up the ex's belongings.
- An Irigon resident at 8:05 a.m. reported he was in his house on Southeast Utah Avenue and a male was smoking methamphetamine in a white Honda four-door car in front of the residence. Law enforcement was not able to find the suspect.
- Workers repairing fences at about 8:40 a.m. on property off McCommach Road, Pendleton, started feeling threatened when a male with a pistol started arguing with them. One man asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to send a deputy.
- A caller at 11:02 a.m. asked for a Umatilla police officer to respond to Walla Walla Street for a woman there who was "mad at the world" and "patrolling the neighborhood with the dog."
- A man at 11:11 a.m. reported a burglary at a residence on Tum A Lum Road, Milton-Freewater. He said a red and white Ford Bronco with a trailer pulled up to the house and loaded items into the trailer.
- A hunter at 12:12 p.m. reported the theft of a Buschnel range finder, three hunting knives, two boxes of handgun ammunition and a roll of parachute cord from a site in the Mill Creek Watershed.
- A Hermiston-area caller at 1:37 p.m. reported a resident on Daytona Lane has allowed three recreational vehicles with people living in them to set up for a total of six weeks. The people are noisy, the caller said, and there was a lot of traffic in and out of there.
- Pendleton police checked on weeds obstructing the view of oncoming traffic at Northwest Carden Avenue and Westgate Drive.
- An angler at 2:31 p.m. told law enforcement he was fishing near the bridge on Old River Road, Umatilla, when he came upon four males, one with a glass pipe, who told him he needed to leave because they were camping there.
- A Pendleton caller at 6:56 p.m. told police a group of five to six teens were "up to no good" at Northwest Bailey Avenue and Seventh Street because one of them has smashed a pumpkin. The caller also said there was possible illegal drug activity in the area.
- A German shepherd at about 5 p.m. jumped into a backyard on Naches Avenue, Umatilla, and bit two other dogs. The owner of those dogs called police and said the neighbor that owns the shepherd does not seem to be doing much to keep the dog from running at large.
- Drivers going too fast for slick conditions crashed in separate incidents on Interstate 84 east of Pendleton.
- Oregon State Police reported a 34-year-old woman from Oak Harbor, Washington, crashed a Jeep Cherokee at about 5:45 p.m. near milepost 228 on the eastbound side of the freeway. The vehicle slid off the road and rolled before coming to rest on the driver side.
- The woman reported head pain, and an ambulance took her to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton.
- The second crash was at 6:48 p.m. near milepost 234, also on the eastbound lanes. A 29-year-old woman from Woodland, Washington, lost control of a Chrysler Town and Country on the icy surface, left the road and rolled, also landing on the driver side.
- The driver and passenger suffered non-life threatening injuries, and ambulances also took them to the Pendleton hospital.
- A female at 8:32 p.m. told Pendleton police her girlfriend grabbed her hair and threw her down by her jacket.

OBITUARIES

Richard Burke 'Dick' Green

Millsap, Texas
 December 20, 1942-November 1, 2015

Richard Burke "Dick" Green, 72, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend, passed away Sunday, Nov. 1, 2015.

Funeral Service: 1 p.m. Friday at the Brazos Trails Cowboy Church, 300 Sharla Smelley Road, Weatherford, Texas.

Interment: Fairview Cemetery, Millsap, Texas.

Visitation: 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at White's Funeral Home, 130 Houston Ave., Weatherford, Texas (817-596-4811).

Memorial Service: at a later date in Hermiston, Oregon.

Dick was born in Enterprise, Oregon on December 20, 1942, third son to Frank and Jesse Wagner Green. The family moved to the Hermiston, Oregon, area in 1949, where his father owned a dairy farm. Dick was active in showing dairy cattle in 4-H. He was an accomplished athlete in high school, competing in basketball, baseball, and was quarterback of the football team, graduating from Umatilla High School in Oregon in 1961. He then quarterbacked for Eastern Oregon State College, the most notable game being against the Walla Walla Prison team. He graduated with a teaching degree in 1966, and then taught 4th, 5th and 6th grade at Hermiston for 11 years.

Dick married Linda Hams in 1965, a union to which two girls Wendy and Kim were born, the lights of his life. They later divorced, and Dick married Peggy Lee in 1984, adopting daughter Jody.

He was an active Jaycee, team bowler, softball player, referee and Jr. Olympics coordinator. After teaching, he started NW Motorhome Center with friend Rick Rebman in 1976. Sales was his calling and he enjoyed growing the business very much.

Dick was an officer and active member of the Oregon Trail Appaloosa Club. He raised and showed many champion halter and performance horses. When he and Peggy found a new love, cutting horses, they moved to Oklahoma in 1996, then Millsap in 2009. In retirement, Dick started Longhorn Trailers, buying and selling horse trailers. He really enjoyed fixing them up to sell, attending to every little detail. People would say, "Wow, has there ever been a horse in here?" looking at a ten-year-old trailer! An excellent rider, Dick won a trophy at his first AQHA cutting and several buckles the first year.

Most of all, Dick was a dedicated family man and rock for his wife and three girls. Such a great husband, father, grandfather and friend. He was instantly liked by people he met, and trusted by those who knew him. If he gave you his word, you could count on it, gaining him the respect of customers, neighbors and friends alike.

He spent many hours watching sports and talking with Peggy's dad after he moved in with them in 2013, and taking him for ice cream, very much enriching Glenn's last year of life.

Dick also helped Peggy raise a granddaughter for eight years. He loved to travel, attend Rangers games and Nascar races, bull riding, rodeo and football.

He was predeceased by his father, mother, and brother David.

Survivors: wife of 31 years, Peggy Green of Millsap; daughters Wendy Erlandsen and husband Ryan of Vancouver, Wash., Jody Bass and partner David Rowe of Weatherford, Texas, and Kim Fee and husband Chris of Burien, Wash.; grandchildren Adrianna Arroyo, Sarah Erlandsen, Joshua Erlandsen, William Bass and Cannon Fee; brothers Dan Green and wife Sally of Tacoma, Wash., and Del Green and wife Barbara of Umatilla, Ore.; sister Gloria Beasley and husband Art of Hermiston, Ore.; and many other special family members and long-time customers and friends.

Services are in care of White's Funeral Home, Weatherford, Texas.
