DEAR ABBY

Obsessive mom can't bear her toddler sleeping out of sight

JEANNE PHILLIPS Advice

Dear Abby: When my husband and I bought our house, having children wasn't yet on our minds...

who would certainly alert you should anyone attempt to enter your home after you and your husband are asleep.

Dear Abby: I have a daughter who is now 40 years old. Until she was 17, I didn't know she existed.

Abby, I have been diagnosed with cancer and may not have much time left. I'm only 56. I was 16 when I was involved with her mother...

Two years into our marriage we got a surprise blessing — a baby girl. She's now 3 and still sleeping in our room in her own toddler bed.

I am the problem. I can't bear to have her at the other end of the house. All I can think about are horror stories of babies and small children being snatched from their beds...

is, although I have wracked my brain over the years I cannot remember actually having sex with her mother.

Nevertheless, I love this person very much and it would break my heart (and hers) if she wasn't mine.

Paranoid Mommy In South Carolina

Dear Mommy: Baby monitors (and cameras) were invented to allay the fears of parents who sleep apart from their little ones.

Dear Urgent: I'm so sorry to hear your prognosis. A gentle way to discuss this would be to explain that you have been diagnosed with cancer...
