Main Street Pendleton in 1941 included the Rivoli Theater, which is on Restore Oregon's list of the state's most endangered places.

Rivoli listed as endangered place

Restoration effort will cost estimated $4.4 million

“It really validates our mission,” he said.

The coalition recently announced that it raised more than half the money needed to pay for the $133,888 first phase of the project — architectural designs for the building. The coalition estimates the entire restoration effort will cost $4.4 million.

The coalition has received donations from the Pendleton Foundation Trust, the Wildhorse Foundation and the Pacific Power Foundation, and Kindle said the coalition has applied for another grant from the Ford Family Foundation.

The coalition has already spent $200,000 to clear the property of asbestos, old equipment and debris since obtaining it in 2010.

The coalition plans to reopen the Rivoli as a multipurpose performing arts center in 2020.

Stanfield council to consider streetscape plan

STANFIELD — The Stanfield City Council will consider adoption of a streetscape plan that includes a festival street and traffic slow-down measures during its Tuesday meeting.

The plan was created by the Stanfield Downtown Revitalization Committee as part of a larger effort to clean up Stanfield's image and draw more economic development to the community.

The committee envisions a decorative festival street on Coe Avenue that could be cordoned off for public events.

On Main Street, where traffic passes through town on Highway 395 between Interstate 84 and Hermiston, plans include more lighting and decorative elements like stamped concrete crosswalks and metal benches.

The plan also calls for “bulb-outs” on Main Street that would extend the sidewalk toward the center of the street at each intersection, making the road feel more narrow and calming traffic.

The city plans to apply for grant funds through various entities, including the Oregon Department of Transportation, Umatilla County Economic Development, the Oregon Arts Commission and Greater Eastern Oregon Development Corporation.

Tuesday's city council meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the city council chambers, 150 W. Coe Ave. The plan and a full agenda for the meeting can be found at www.cityofstanfield.com.

Good Shepherd recognized for good outcomes

HERMISTON — Good Shepherd Health Care System has received national recognition for excellence in patient outcomes and financial strength.

The recognition comes from iVantage Health Analytics and the National Organization of State Office of Rural Health after an analysis of 4,000 acute care hospitals nationwide using 66 different metrics.

The award for patient outcomes refers to low numbers for mortality rates, readmission within 30 days, infections and other adverse outcomes related to hospital stays. The data is collected by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and made public in an effort to increase transparency, empower patients and give hospitals constructive feedback.

Good Shepherd president and CEO Dennis Burke called the award “truly an honor, and a team effort.”

“We have a strong bond with our community,” he said in a news release. “Many of the people we treat are our neighbors, friends, and, in some cases, family. Our staff feels a strong sense of duty and accomplishment in striving to provide the best quality services in each of our departments.”

Michael Topchik, senior vice president of iVantage Health Analytics, said in a statement that hospitals in the top 25 percent nationwide should take pride in their status.

“On this occasion of National Rural Health Day, taking place nationally on November 19, it's an honor to celebrate their achievement as they continue to serve their communities despite the many market, regulatory and financial pressures they face,” he said.

Parks and Rec collects canned food

HERMISTON — The Hermiston Parks and Recreation department is collecting canned food for needy residents.

Donations can be dropped off at the Parks and Recreation offices at city hall, 180 N.E. Second St., Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Nov. 21.

Additionally, canned food will be collected with admission to the “Little Town of Christmas” performance by Parks and Recreation drama students. The play runs Dec. 10-11 at 6:30 p.m. at Armand Larive Middle School. Tickets are $2 in advance, $3 at the door or $1 with a donation of canned food.

If You Bought a TV, Monitor, or Notebook Computer That Contained an LCD Flat Panel Screen, During the Years 2002 to 2006, You May Be Entitled to Benefits from a Settlement.

Please read this notice carefully as your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act.

PARA UNA NOTIFICACION EN ESPANOL, LLAMAR O VISITAR NUESTRO WEBSITE.

The Oregon Attorney General filed a lawsuit against certain manufacturers of liquid crystal display (“LCD”) flat panels. The lawsuit alleges that LCD manufacturers illegally agreed upon the pricing of LCD flat panels. The Attorney General filed this action in her law enforcement capacity and on behalf of the State of Oregon, Oregon natural persons, and all political subdivisions in Oregon and sought equitable relief, restitution, civil penalties and injunctive relief.

Oregon has settled with all defendants for a total of $21,505,000 (“Settlement Fund”). The State of Oregon, political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons may be entitled to a portion of the Settlement Fund. “Political subdivisions” includes all Oregon counties, cities, municipalities, public universities, school districts, special districts, and all other local government entities. “Oregon natural persons” means a human, not a business.

Who Is Included?
The State of Oregon and all Oregon political subdivisions or natural persons who indirectly purchased at any time during the years 2002 to 2006, for their own use and not for resale, LCD panels incorporated in flat panel TVs, monitors or notebook computers. An indirect purchaser is someone that purchased products containing LCD flat panels from someone other than the company that manufactured the flat panel component, such as from an electronics retailer or a device manufacturer other than one of the Defendants.

What Are My Rights and Options?
Exclude yourself: Oregon political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons have the right to exclude themselves from this action. The State of Oregon cannot be excluded. If you opt out, you will not get any money or other benefits from this settlement. You will retain any rights you currently have, if any. Please note that under Oregon law, authority to bring antitrust actions for indirect purchaser claims, like this action, was limited to actions by the Attorney General until January 1, 2010.

To opt-out, complete the opt-out registration online at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com or send a written letter stating that you want to be excluded from the case: State of Oregon, ex rel Ellen F. Rosenblum v. AU Optronics Corp. et al., case no. CV 10-933 MO. The letter must include the case name, your name, address, telephone number, and signature. A letter on behalf of a political subdivision must include the entity's name, and the name, title, and signature of the person authorized to sign on behalf of the entity. The letter must be postmarked on or before January 15, 2016, and mailed to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O. Box 10240, Dublin, Ohio 43017-5740.

File a claim: Only Oregon natural persons need to file a claim to obtain benefits in this settlement. Claims can be completed online or by mailing the claim form, available for download at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, to the Settlement Administrator. A deadline for filing claims has not yet been established. The State of Oregon and political subdivisions that are owed money under the distribution plan will be contacted and sent payment without any further action on their part.

Do nothing: If you or the political subdivision you represent do nothing, you will continue to be represented by the Oregon Attorney General. You will be bound by the terms of this settlement, and will release Defendants and related entities from any claims you may have relating to the allegations in this lawsuit. Oregon natural persons that do not file a claim will not be entitled to any benefits in this matter and will be bound by the terms of the settlement.

Who Represents Me?
The Attorney General of Oregon represents the State, Oregon political subdivisions, and Oregon natural persons. You do not have to pay the Attorney General. The Attorney General will request the Court approve attorney fees in an amount not to exceed 20% of the total Settlement Fund, plus costs and expenses. Additional costs to administer the Settlements will also come out of the Settlement Fund. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, and have that lawyer appear in Court for you, you must exclude yourself and hire an attorney at your own expense.

How Do I Get More Information?
This Notice summarizes the lawsuits and the Settlements. You can get more information about the lawsuits and Settlements, the claims process or obtain a claim form at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, by calling 1-877-940-7791, or writing to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O. Box 10240, Dublin, Ohio 43017-5740.
