Cineplex teams up with food bank

MISSION — Wildhorse Resort & Casino is hosting a canned food drive during the "Hunger Games: Mockingjay - Part 2" movie premier.

The popular series will debut its latest edition Wednesday, Nov. 18 at the Wildhorse Cineplex, located off Highway 331, Mission. Guests are encouraged to bring canned food in exchange for popcorn and a soft drink.

Those donating two cans of food will receive a free small popcorn and small soft drink, while movie-goers that bring four cans of food will receive a medium-sized popcorn and soft drink. Guests must pay admission for the movie.

The food, which will be collected Nov. 18-20 from 3:30-7:30 p.m. in the Cineplex lobby, will be donated to St. Mary's Outreach.

The holiday season is always a busy time for area food banks, said Marge Normington-Jones of St. Mary's Outreach. She said the food bank is thrilled with the food drive effort by Wildhorse. There is especially a need for canned fruit, peanut butter and canned meals such as chili and SpaghettiOs, Normington-Jones said.

For more information, contact DeGroff at 541-966-1628 or tdh@wildhorseresort.com. For movie times and admission prices, visit www.wildhorseresort.com/cineplex/cineplex.

Dickey's owner a brand champion

PENDLETON — Shawn Pace, owner of Dickey's Barbecue Pit in Pendleton, was recently featured as a company "Brand Champion."

Each week, Dickey's recognizes an owner/operator from a nationwide pool of franchise owners in its company blog. Those selected go above and beyond to further the Dickey's brand.

The Texas-style barbecue restaurant operated by Pace is a perfect fit in the rodeo town of Pendleton, said Michelle George, public relations specialist for Dickey's.

Pace began his career in barbecue when he had the opportunity to use a family-owned rental space. After searching for the perfect restaurant franchise, he chose Dickey's because it was growing at a rapid rate and provided great support for its owner/operators. The best part about being in the barbecue business, Pace said, is all of the happy customers.

Dickey's is located at 715 Southgate, Pendleton. It's open daily from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

For more information, call 541-276-6162 or visit www.facebook.com/dickeysbarbecuepitpendleton.

Walla Walla eatery celebrates first year

WALLA WALLA — In recognition of its first year, Wingman Birdz + Brewz will celebrate with live music, door prizes and the unveiling of two new sauces.

The event also includes a ribbon-cutting ceremony, complimentary food and beverage samples and announcement of the winners of a coloring contest. The public is invited Thursday at 5 p.m. at 230 E. Main St., Walla Walla.

The anniversary celebration continues through the weekend with live music featuring Quinell (Thursday), Dillon Stiffler (Friday) and Shop Singers Two (Saturday).

The establishment, which specializes in chicken wings, also features craft beers with 22 rotating taps, four 55-inch TVs and patio seating, weather permitting. Wingman Birdz + Brewz is open Sunday through Thursdays from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday and Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. For more information, call 509-529-2199 or visit www.wingmanbirdz.com.

Klamath County sheriff accused of sexual harassment

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — A report shows that two female prosecutors have accused Klamath County Sheriff Frank Skrah of making sexually explicit remarks since taking office.

In a report made public by a records request by The Herald and News, Jill Goldsmith of Workplace Solutions NW of Portland writes that Skrah made inappropriate comments to members of the District Attorney's Office on at least two occasions while discussing grand jury proceedings, the newspaper reports.

Goldsmith wrote that some of the comments may have been misconstrued banter, but others, such as repeatedly calling prosecutors "babe" or commenting on their appearance, were inappropriate.

On May 2, 2013, Skrah was speaking to a deputy district attorney about a missing police report. During the exchange, the woman said she would "beat" Skrah if he did not find the report.

According to the deputy district attorney, Skrah then replied "it's OK if you beat me if you bring ropes and two cans of whipped cream."

In another exchange detailed in Goldsmith's report, Skrah is said to have told a different deputy district attorney that she "owed him" and that "payment would come in the dark without recorders or cameras on," according to the woman.

Goldsmith reported she believed Skrah may have made these comments in an attempt at humor.

In the report, there are also accounts of women reporting Skrah swatting them on the buttocks with a file or notebook and repeatedly calling her by pet names and commenting on her appearance.

Later, Goldsmith investigated statements from Skrah that sexual harassment claims were unfounded.

"Sheriff Skrah appears to believe that his denial of having made inappropriate statements means that the investigation found he did not make inappropriate statements," said Goldsmith.

Skrah did not return requests for comment regarding details of Goldsmith's findings.

Pilot Rock man pleads guilty in child porn case

PILOT ROCK — A Pilot Rock-area man is serving 10 days in jail after taking a plea deal Thursday in a child pornography case.

Richard Lee Rowe, 51, pleaded guilty in Morrow County Circuit Court to one count of second-degree encouraging child sexual abuse. Judge Lynn Hampton sentenced Rowe to 10 days in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

The Morrow County District Attorney's Office in exchange for the deal dropped charges of using a child in a display of sexually explicit conduct and attempted rape.

Court records show Rowe committed the crime against a girl in December 2014. Rowe's sentence also includes two years probation and he must register as a sex offender.

Psychologist sentenced in fraud case

PORTLAND (AP) — An Oregon psychologist who charged a religious organization for work never performed will not serve prison time.

U.S. District Court Judge Michael Mosman on Friday sentenced Carol Landesman of Gresham to three years of probation that includes six months of home detention. The 73-year-old also agreed to pay back $113,770 and enter a mental health treatment program.

The case began in 2004, when the Diocese of Paterson, New Jersey, settled a lawsuit with a man who had been sexually abused as a child. As part of the agreement, the diocese agreed to pay for the victim and his wife to undergo counseling with Landesman.

Landesman only provided psychotherapy to the husband, but billed for both.

Landesman pleaded guilty in July to mail fraud. She did not make a statement Friday.
