PENDLETON Giving Tree spreads holiday cheer

East Oregonian
In its 15th year, the Giving Tree has helped make the holiday season brighter for area children in need.
The tree will be erected Friday at Hamley & Company, 30 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton. People are invited to stop by and take a tag or two and shop for the items listed. In past years, local citizens, service groups and businesses have assisted in making the program a success. For those unable to shop or who want to give more, cash donations are accepted to purchase gifts.
Names and wish list items are provided through elementary schools in the Pendleton School District, the Oregon Department of Human Services and Umatilla County Youth Services.
People are asked to select tags and then drop off the new, unwrapped items by Sunday, Dec. 13 at Hamley's. The items will be distributed to the families by the agencies involved. In appreciation for donations made, participants will receive a special Hamley discount.
For more information, call Melvalee Carter at 541-278-5447 or Penny at Hamley's at 541-278-1100.

Tags fill a past Giving Tree and spill onto the window ledge at Hamley & Co. in Pendleton. Gift trees, which provide an opportunity to share the holiday spirit with those in need, are beginning to sprout up in the area. Submit area giving tree information, including the location, date items must be returned, if gifts should be wrapped and contact information, to: community@eastoregonian.com or drop off to the attention of Tammy Malgesini at 333 E. Main St., Hermiston, or Renee Struthers at 211 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton. Call 541-564-4539 or 541-966-0818 with questions.

BRIEFLY Learn to play the Appalachian dulcimer

HERMISTON — The Appalachian dulcimer, a fun and easy-to-learn instrument, is the focus of upcoming workshops in Hermiston.
Learning to Play the Appalachian Dulcimer is Saturday at the First United Methodist Church, 191 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston. Both beginner and intermediate classes are available. Sessions run from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. or 2-3:30 p.m.
The cost is $25 for one session or $45 for both. Participants are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch. Student dulcimers are available for those who need an instrument. In addition, some will be available for sale.
The workshops are taught by Joseph residents Heidi Muller and Bob Webb. Muller's tune "Good Road" is the theme song of the weekly Inland Folk show on Northwest Public Radio.
To register, contact Muller at 304-382-9422 or heidi.muller.music@gmail.com.

For more information, visit www.heidimuller.com.
SAGE Center to show 'Inside Out' at movie night
BOARDMAN — Movie night returns to the SAGE Center.
"Inside Out" is the animated story of Riley, a happy, hockey-loving 11-year-old Midwestern girl. But her world is turned upside-down when her family moves to San Francisco.
The screenings are Friday at 7:15 p.m. and Saturday at 2:15 p.m. at 101 Olson Road, Boardman. Admission is $5 for adults or $3 for children and seniors. Movie-goers get a free bag of popcorn. Water is available for purchase.
The SAGE Center is an interactive visitor center that highlights sustainable agriculture and energy. It's open Monday through Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

If You Bought a TV, Monitor, or Notebook Computer That Contained an LCD Flat Panel Screen, During the Years 2002 to 2006, You May Be Entitled to Benefits from a Settlement.
Please read this notice carefully as your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act.
PARA UNA NOTIFICACION EN ESPANOL, LLAMAR O VISITAR NUESTRO WEBSITE.
The Oregon Attorney General filed a lawsuit against certain manufacturers of liquid crystal display ("LCD") flat panels. The lawsuit alleges that LCD manufacturers illegally agreed upon the pricing of LCD-flat panels. The Attorney General filed this action in her law enforcement capacity and on behalf of the State of Oregon, Oregon natural persons, and all political subdivisions in Oregon and sought equitable relief, restitution, civil penalties and injunctive relief.
Oregon has settled with all defendants for a total of $21,505,000 ("Settlement Fund"). The State of Oregon, political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons may be entitled to a portion of the Settlement Fund. "Political subdivisions" includes all Oregon counties, cities, municipalities, public universities, school districts, special districts, and all other local government entities. "Oregon natural persons" means a human, not a business.
Who Is Included?
The State of Oregon and all Oregon political subdivisions or natural persons who indirectly purchased at any time during the years 2002 to 2006, for their own use and not for resale, LCD panels incorporated in flat panel TVs, monitors or notebook computers. An indirect purchaser is someone that purchased products containing LCD flat panels from someone other than the company that manufactured the flat panel component, such as from an electronics retailer or a device manufacturer other than one of the Defendants.
What Are My Rights And Options?
Exclude yourself: Oregon political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons have the right to exclude themselves from this action. The State of Oregon cannot be excluded. If you opt out, you will not be legally bound by this settlement, but you will not get any money or other benefits from this settlement. You will retain any rights you currently have, if any. Please note that under Oregon law, authority to bring antitrust actions for indirect purchaser claims, like this action, was limited to actions by the Attorney General until January 1, 2010.
To opt-out, complete the opt-out registration online at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com or send a written letter stating that you want to be excluded from the case: State of Oregon, ex rel Ellen F. Rosenblum v. AU Optonics Corp. et al., case no. CV 10-933 MO. The letter must include the case name, your name, address, telephone number, and signature. A letter on behalf of a political subdivision must include the entity's name, and the name, title, and signature of the person authorized to sign on behalf of the entity. The letter must be postmarked on or before January 15, 2016, and mailed to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O. Box 10240, Dublin, Ohio 43017-5740.
File a claim: Only Oregon natural persons need to file a claim to obtain benefits in this settlement. Claims can be completed online or by mailing the claim form, available for download at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, to the Settlement Administrator. A deadline for filing claims has not yet been established. The State of Oregon and political subdivisions that are owed money under the distribution plan will be contacted and sent payment without any further action on their part.
Do nothing: If you or the political subdivision you represent do nothing, you will continue to be represented by the Oregon Attorney General. You will be bound by the terms of this settlement, and will release Defendants and related entities from any claims you may have relating to the allegations in this lawsuit. Oregon natural persons that do not file a claim will not be entitled to any benefits in this matter and will be bound by the terms of the settlement.
Who Represents Me?
The Attorney General of Oregon represents the State, Oregon political subdivisions, and Oregon natural persons. You do not have to pay the Attorney General. The Attorney General will request the Court approve attorney fees in an amount not to exceed 20% of the total Settlement Fund, plus costs and expenses. Additional costs to administer the Settlements will also come out of the Settlement Fund. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, and have that lawyer appear in Court for you, you must exclude yourself and hire an attorney at your own expense.
How Do I Get More Information?
This Notice summarizes the lawsuits and the Settlements. You can get more information about the lawsuits and Settlements, the claims process or obtain a claim form at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, by calling 1-877-940-7791, or writing to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O. Box 10240, Dublin, Ohio 43017-5740.
