

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

•A woman at 8:01 a.m. reported that at about 6:50 a.m. a male in a newer burgundy Ford F-350 four-door pickup with a broken right tail light was going about 60 mph when it ran the stop sign at East Loop and South Edwards roads, Hermiston, and almost hit her. She said the driver may work as a state corrections officer.

•A man at 8:58 a.m. reported someone entered his 1997 Nissan pickup he parked at Stanfield Meadows Road and Highway 207, Stanfield, and stole his .22-caliber rifle, the pickup's light bar and fuel.

•A black Labrador retriever and a pit bull dog at about 10:40 a.m. entered a yard on Southwest Utah Avenue, Irigon, and tried to attack the man living there. He called the Morrow County Sheriff's Office and reported the dogs took off into a recreational vehicle park. A sheriff's deputy responded and talked to the owner of the dogs.

•A caller with the Pioneer Humane Society told Pendleton police at 10:53 a.m. a male arrived to surrender a black and white border collie at the society's animal welfare shelter, but he then refused to sign a release and stated he would shoot the dog and dump it on the shelter's property.

•A female at 11:13 p.m. told Pendleton police she moved from a residence, and her former roommate is harassing her and threatened to tell her employer she uses drugs.

•A caller at 12:53 p.m. reported an elderly woman who does not know where she is was sitting in the wrong vehicle on South Main Street, Pendleton.

•A woman at 2:37 p.m. told Umatilla police about the theft of her gun.

•A man at 3:23 p.m. reported someone cut locks off two sheds on Northeast Third Street, Irigon, and stole multiple items.

•Two boys around 10-12 years old at about 3:50 p.m. "mooned" people on Northwest Furnish Avenue, Pendleton.

•A male at about 4:40 p.m. was harassing and disturbing women outside near benches on the 1200 block of Sixth Street, Umatilla.

•A Helix resident at 5:53 p.m. reported receiving scam phone calls from someone claiming the IRS would arrest her for not paying taxes.

•A Pendleton man may well be thankful there was no one on the other side when he told police at 7:33 p.m. he was handling his AR-15 assault rifle and accidentally fired the weapon without knowing that "one was in the chamber" and the bullet went through the front door.

•An Athena man at 8:17 p.m. reported a man he knows came to his residence at the Centerville RV Park, 213 W. Sherman St., Athena, yelled at him and "threw an elbow" and hit him in the chin. He said this was a dispute over a work vehicle, and the assailant left in a white work van. The caller also said he and the other man had been drinking.

•A woman at 9:03 p.m. told Pendleton police her soon-to-be-ex boyfriend was trying to disable her vehicle.

•A Umatilla couple at 10:14 p.m. told police they were the victims of harassment. The wife said someone used a blocked number to call her and her husband earlier and report damage to their vehicle's window, but there was no damage. The same person called again and said "they" were watching her husband. She asked for an officer to come to their home.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Debbie Lynn Jarrett, 31, of 74937 Estate Loop, Irigon, for frequenting a place where drugs are used, possession of methamphetamine, selling drug paraphernalia and supplying contraband. Deputies also arrested Leobardo Jacquez III, 39, no address provided, at the same residence for violating a restraining order and frequenting a place where drugs are used.
