Boucher, Cook lead Ducks past Tigers

Associated Press

EUGENE — Chris Boucher scored 17 points, Elgin Cook had 12 points and eight rebounds, and No. 25 Oregon beat Savannah State 75-59 on Friday night.

Dillon Brooks added 11 points for the Ducks (3-0), who led by as many as 22 after the pesky Tigers pulled within 10 midway through the second half.

Troyce Manassa led Savannah State (3-1) with 15 points, and Chris Martin and Lenjo Kilo each had 11.

Boucher, who transferred to Oregon after being named junior college player of the year last season, was a force. The 6-foot-10 senior was 7 for 10 from the field and also blocked two shots and grabbed seven rebounds.

Cook helped Oregon to a 37-31 rebounding edge, but the Ducks went 11 for 24 from the free-throw line, keeping them from a larger margin of victory.

Oregon stretched an early nine-point lead to 36-17 during an eight-minute span in the first half during which it hit 8 of 9 shots from the floor, including two 3-pointers by Dwayne Benjamin.

When Tyler Dorsey's jumper beat the buzzer, Oregon had a 42-24 halftime lead and all nine Ducks who had played had scored, led by Dillon Brooks with nine points. TIP-INS Oregon: The Ducks will face their second Drew brother in three games when they host Valparaiso and coach Bryce Drew on Sunday. Oregon defeated Baylor, coached by Scott Drew, last Monday. ... The Ducks started the same lineup for the third straight game. ... Oregon is halfway through a six-game homestand to begin the season.

WASHINGTON STATE 85, IDAHO STATE 67—At Pullman, Valentine Izundu struggled to find playing time with the Houston Cougars, but he may find himself working overtime with the Washington State Cougars.

Izundu, a junior transfer from Houston, energized teammates and fans alike with a career-high six blocked shots Friday night in WSU's 85-67 triumph over Idaho State.

Izundu, playing 23 minutes off the bench, also had career highs of 10 points — mostly on thunderous dunks — and seven rebounds. Ike Iroebu led the Cougars (2-0) with a career-high 21 points, and Josh Hawkinson recorded 19 points and 14 rebounds at Beasley Coliseum.

"I think Valentine's a player that, the more he plays, the more confident he'll get, the more you'll see in his game," Washington State coach Ernie Kent said. "He's a tremendous athlete and shot blocker."

"I just knew I was going to play good," Izundu said.

Oregon's Tyler Dorsey, left, tips the ball away from Savannah State's Khalen Pinkett during the first half of an NCAA college basketball game Friday in Eugene.
