OBITUARIES

Helen Ruth Gabriel

Monitor, Ore.

May 22, 1934-November 20, 2015

Helen Ruth Gabriel, 81, of Monitor died Friday, November 20, 2015, at her home in Monitor. A Celebration of Life service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, December 9, 2015, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 303 Church St., Silverton, Ore.

Mrs. Gabriel was born May 22, 1934, in Seattle, Washington, to William George and Florence Miriam (Stewart) Hedgecock. She was raised in San Francisco, where her father owned a frame shop. She attended Willamette University in Salem, Ore. On February 11, 1956, she married Morrow Kendal Gabriel in San Mateo, Calif. The Gabriels left California for his home state of Oregon in 1968, and settled in Monitor in 1970. They were married 26 years when Ken died on July 19, 1982.

Mrs. Gabriel studied home economics at Willamette University. She retired from her secretarial/librarian career at Monitor Grade School in 1999. At her retirement the school library was officially named The Helen Gabriel Library to honor all that she did to promote literacy.

She has been an active member of the Monitor Bible Church since 1970, doing the bookkeeping, preparing communion, the Sunday bulletin, and her favorite, Vacation Bible School. Helen dedicated many hours at the Oregon Gardens in Silverton at its inception, thus being named the first year as Volunteer of the Year. She also was the bookkeeper/secretary for the Monitor Rural Fire District from 1994 to the present.

Helen loved to bake most anything, and for many years baking and decorating wedding cakes, birthday cakes, graduation cakes and any other special occasion. As if that weren't enough, she loved to quilt, and did so prolifically! All of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren have one of her quilts, as well as many babies in the neonatal unit at OHSU. Another of her loves was adventure! She made numerous trips to Alaska where son Bud has a cabin on the Kenai River.

She was always ready for taking off on the river or the sea to catch salmon or halibut, then enjoying the fruits of their labors for dinner. She and best friend Shirley made seven trips to Alaska doing what they loved to do — seeing what's around the next bend in the road! The duo also traversed every back road in Oregon, and spent many summer days in Sisters at a family cabin there.

Surviving family include children Kim (Dennis) Simmons, Stanfield, Ore., Brent (Kathy) Gabriel, Canby, Ore., Bob (Jill) Gabriel, Silverton, Ore., Karen (Rob) Fennimore, Silverton, Ore., Bruce (Leona) Gabriel, Monitor, Ore., and David (Heather) Gabriel, Helix, Ore.; grandchildren Nate Simmons, Sasha Childs, Carly Kinney, Caitlin Gentle, Luke Gabriel, Adriana Perry, Isabella Gabriel, Helina Gabriel, Erik Fennimore, Nick Fennimore, Logan Fennimore, Stacy Kofron, Josh Templeton, Kendall Gabriel, Chelsea Andrew, Alex Duda, Blythe Gabriel, Paige Gabriel and Morrow Gabriel; and great-grandchildren Solomon Childs, Cameron Kinney, Robbie Gentle, Kendra Gentle, McKenna Gabriel, Ace Perry, Isla Kofron and baby Kofron due in March. She is also survived by her best friend and partner in crime Shirley Croghan, Mt. Angel, Ore.

She is preceded in death by husband Morrow Kendal Gabriel; parents William and Florence Hedgecock; and grandson Brent Jacob Gabriel.

Arrangements are by Unger Funeral Chapel.

Charles Lou James

Pendleton

April 30, 1943-November 15, 2015

Charles Lou James, 72, of Pendleton, Oregon, passed away at Jamie's Place adult family home surrounded by family and loving caregivers on November 15, 2015, in Winthrop, Washington, after a long battle with Lewy Body disease. Graveside service was held November 21, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. in Del Norte, Colorado. A community celebration of his life is planned in Winthrop, Washington, at 3 Bears Café on November 28, 2015, from 1-3 p.m. with refreshments provided.

James

Charles was born in Del Norte, Colorado, on April 30, 1943, to Harold and Dorothy Kreps James. Charles spent his childhood amongst his seven brothers and sisters in the family home in Center, Colorado. He graduated from Center High School, then moved his bride, Linda Brooks, to Denver and started his family while working as a milkman. The family relocated to Bend, Oregon, where he learned the art of upholstery, which he then took to Pendleton, Oregon, and started Chuck's Upholstery, which he operated for 30 years.

Charles was a dedicated father, spending time camping, riding motorcycles, and working together as a family. Charles had a lifelong love for the sport of wrestling, coin collecting, water fights, and laughter. Charles was kind, generous and loving to others. His big smile and bright eyes will be greatly missed.

Charles is survived by his children: Charles James (Keno, Ore.), Sheila (Darold) Brandenburg (Wash.), and Steven James (Pendleton, Ore.); brothers Clarence and Meril; sisters Rayetta, Beverly and Karen; nieces and nephews; grandchildren Nicholas (Haley) Brandenburg and Mallory Brandenburg, Natasha (Kyle) Meier, and Autumn James; and great-grandchildren Hudson, Jacob, Jayce and Leighton.

Preceded in death by his parents; brothers Leonard, Ronald and Marvin; brother-in-law Ed; nephew Kevan James; and grandsons Jordan and Chase Brandenburg.

Precht-Harrison-Nearents Chapel of Twisp/Okanogan is caring for the arrangements.

Rosemary Ruth (Hudemann) Schuening

Pendleton

April 20, 1924-November 21, 2015

Rosemary Ruth (Hudemann) Schuening passed away peacefully at her home the morning of November 21, 2015. She was 91.

Rosemary was born in Pendleton on April 20, 1924, the third child of Henry and Minnie Hudemann. She attended grade school at Myrick and graduated from Helix High School in 1941. Rosemary was valedictorian of her graduating class at Helix High School. She was a member of the 1941 basketball team that won the district tournament in Long Creek.

She attended North Western Business School in Boise, Idaho. Upon her return to Eastern Oregon she married her high school sweetheart Roy (Bob) Schuening in 1941. They had six children; Rosanne Goade, Linda Gustin, Robert Schuening, Marla Duffield, Judy Schuening and Ron Schuening. At the time of her death Rosemary's family included six kids, 12 grandkids, 27 great-grandkids and 10 great-great-grandkids.

She worked beside her husband Roy in their farming business for many years as a truck driver during harvest. In 1956 she became the Peace Lutheran Church organist and retired from playing in 2012. During that time she played for numerous weddings and memorial services, and helped with many community activities with her playing. Rosemary's musical abilities started in the sixth grade when she started taking lessons; prior to that she would play the piano at her home where she learned to play by ear. In 1959 she was asked to become the church's secretary and she held that position until her retirement in 1987.

Rosemary was an avid supporter of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren's athletic activities, traveling to many out-of-the-area games. She kept stats during the games, saying it kept her much calmer. She and her brother Ferdie could always

Rosemary was involved with the P.T.A., 4-H activities, Delphian Club, V.F.W and Community Bargain Counter, and volunteered at the Pendleton Hall of Fame and Umatilla County Election Board. Her most treasured involvement was as a member of the T.A.T. Club (Tuesday at Two), which started during WWII providing rolled bandages for the troops and other items. She was an active member until her passing.

Rosemary was baptised and confirmed in the Peace Lutheran Church. Her grandfather, Julius Hudemann, was one of the founding fathers and her parents instilled in her a deep and abiding faith that sustained her for her entire lifetime.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her sister Margaret Thorne, her brother Ferdie Hudemann and her great-granddaughter Jessica Smith.

Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop in Pendleton is handling arrangements and the viewing will be Friday, November 27th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A celebration of her life will be held on Saturday, November 28th, 2015, at 1 p.m. at Peace Lutheran Church.

Donations in her memory may be made to the Peace Lutheran Church or a charity of your choice.
