

OBITUARIES

Flora (Craiger) Davis

Pendleton

February 18, 1920-November 4, 2015

In Loving Memory
Flora leaves behind family and friends that were very dear to her. First and foremost is her husband of 50 years, Ivan Davis. They lived in Pendleton, Oregon, for most of those 50 years. Many other family and friends loved her and will miss her including Gail (Smead), Garrick and Claire Zakovics (granddaughter and family), David and Luann Soderstrom, Bill and Carolyn Woodall, Marian and Kent Franklin, Dutch and Mary Craiger (brother), and Garth Davis (grandson). She was preceded in death by her other four siblings, Katie (Craiger) Pearson, Lee Craiger, Curt Craiger and Leslie Craiger.

Davis

Flora and Ivan ran the Pillars Motel in Pendleton, Oregon, for many years. After the sale of the motel Flora spent her time as a homemaker and raising her granddaughter. She also worked during tax season and elections for Umatilla County. She loved traveling to Jackpot and Winnemucca to play slots. She also enjoyed the Oregon Coast watching the ocean and looking for whales. Reading and knitting were two of her favorite hobbies. Your life was a blessing Your memory a treasure You are loved beyond words Missed beyond measure We will miss you Grandma.
