OBITUARIES

Kenneth Alvin Hansell

Walla Walla

August 1, 1928-December 9, 2015

“Gone Fishing”

Kenneth Alvin Hansell was born August 1, 1928, in The Dalles, Oregon. He was the third son born to Ray and Flossie Hansell. Kenny spent most of his life living on the Mountain Ranch on Weston Mountain and in Athena, Oregon. He has spent the last five years residing at The Washington Odd Fellows Home in Walla Walla, Washington, where he peacefully passed away December 9, 2015.

In 1957 he met Kathryn Kay Moore at PGG in Athena. They were married February 22, 1958. Daughters Kelly, Shannon and Patty soon followed.

Kenny started working for Hansell Farms when he was in high school. He “retired” in 1991 having worked for only one employer. He had a strong work ethic, which has been passed down to his children and grandchildren.

While his work ethic was strong, he always found time to hunt and fish. He taught his fishing knowledge to his daughters and grandchildren. Many memories have been made hunting and fishing with him. Another passion of Kenny’s was playing cards with family and friends. He was an amazing pinochle player, loved playing Pitch with his friends and family and he’d play card games with the grandchildren. He had a great appreciation for flowers and spent many hours cleaning out flower beds, pruning roses and enjoying the beauty of his well-kept yard.

Kenny took good care of his friends and widows in the community by giving them fresh fish and bags of walnuts, trimming their trees, and was basically “on call” and eager to help when needed.

Kenny is preceded in death by his father and mother, Ray and Flossie Hansell, and his twin brothers Roderick and Rodney Hansell. He is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Kathryn Hansell of Walla Walla, Washington, and daughters Kelly Maynard of Puyallup, Washington, Shannon Hansell of Echo, Oregon, and Patricia Abel of Salem, Oregon. He has 10 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Kenny loved God, his wife, his daughters, his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He loved to play cards, eat good food, read, listen to music, nap, tell or hear a good joke, time on the tractor and time on the river.

He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

His funeral service will be held Saturday, December 19, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at the Athena Christian Church, Athena, Oregon.

Our family would like to thank Dr. Wilcox, the staff at Washington Odd Fellows and Walla Walla Community Hospice for their loving, compassionate care. Remembrances may be made to the Athena Christian Church building fund, Washington Odd Fellows or Walla Walla Community Hospice.

Anna Katherine Berger Gisinger

Pendleton

April 17, 1918-December 10, 2015

Anna Katherine Berger Gisinger was called home on December 10, 2015, at the age of 97, at St. Anthony Hospital surrounded by family members.

Anna was the eleventh of twelve children born to George D. Berger and Magdalena Dilger Berger on April 17, 1918, on a farm near Fallon, North Dakota. In 1936 she moved with her parents and younger brother to Mandan, North Dakota. She was employed at a sewing room in Mandan for 3 years.

In 1939 she married the love of her life, John Gisinger Jr., at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Mandan. She and John made their home in Bismarck, North Dakota, following their wedding. In 1941 they moved to Hermiston, Ore., where John worked at the Umatilla Army Depot. During the Korean War Anna also worked at the Depot for 3 years.

Following John's sudden death on May 29, 1960, Anna worked at the local 25 flavor ice cream store for 4 years. In 1966 during the Vietnam War she returned to work at the Army Depot for 4 years.

Anna's hobbies included sewing, crocheting and doing crafts. She also enjoyed playing pinochle. Her family and friends were blessed with many beautiful crocheted and sewn items, which were made with much love. Over the years she traveled the world seeing things many people can only imagine.

Anna was a devout Catholic and is a member of the Catholic Daughters of America in Hermiston. She was also a member of the Eagles Lodge in Hermiston.

Anna's greatest accomplishment in life was her family which includes daughters Deloris Gisinger and Shirley Hall along with her son-in-law Edward Hall. Also surviving Anna are her four grandchildren, MelvaLee Carter, John Hall, Lisa Blagg and Kevin Hall, eight great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren, and her brother Dominik Berger.

Preceding her in death were her parents, husband John, six brothers and four sisters.

Mom, granny, great-granny and great-great-granny will be missed terribly by all who knew her. She was a loving woman who taught us all to love unconditionally.
