

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY

•A Hermiston woman on West Gettman Road at 10:42 a.m. reported someone stole her mail, which could include an $18,000 check from her husband. A Hermiston officer called and told her someone found a purse that was not hers but had some of her mail inside and she needed to make a report on that.

•A caller at 3:43 p.m. reported an employee of Amanda’s Bar & Grill, Umatilla, may have stolen more than $7,000 from the business.

•A woman at 4:37 p.m. reported a neighbor drove over mail boxes at the end of Rudder Lane where it crosses Minnehaha Road, Hermiston.

•A man on Cactus Drive, Hermiston, told law enforcement at 7:11 p.m. a man he knows put an axe through the door at his residence and broke a couple lamps, but he did not see this happen and the witness is not on the scene. He asked for an officer to take photos.

•An Athena woman at 9:30 p.m. reported the thief that stole her car now is harassing her by phone and text.

•A man at 11:19 p.m. told law enforcement a male and female broke into the house on Lamarr Gulch Road, Athena, and took various items, and he has video of the crime.

FRIDAY

•A man at 2:01 a.m. reported his fiancée and their young daughter missing after they were not on the flight that landed at the Eastern Oregon Regional Airport, Pendleton.

•Pendleton police at about 9 a.m. investigated a suicide.

•A son at 2:43 p.m. told the Morrow County Sheriff’s Office his mother was in jail so he was going to her residence in Irrigon to pick up and care for her dog.

•A Umatilla resident at 4:04 p.m. told police neighbors set off homemade fireworks the previous night at El Monte Street and Casa Court.

•An Athena resident at 5:23 p.m. reported people in a white station wagon just looked in her mail box on West Main Street.

•A woman at 7:09 p.m. reported she drove into a Christmas tree that was on the middle of the road at Northeast Otis Lane and Diagonal Boulevard, Hermiston. She said her 2005 Ford Fusion sustained damage but she would drive it home and wait to hear from an officer.

•An Irrigon caller on Northeast Oregon Avenue at 5:51 p.m. reported hearing gun shots or maybe an explosion.

•A man at 7:57 p.m. told Boardman police someone put sugar in the gas tank of his vehicle on Marshall Loop.

•A woman at 11:03 p.m. told Umatilla police someone entered her vehicle and stole her stereo at Tri-Harbor Apartments, 210 Klickitat St.

SATURDAY

•A Stanfield man at 10:01 a.m. reported someone Saturday night slashed on his silver Dodge Dakota on South Edwards Road.

•A Heppner woman at 10:30 a.m. reported her dog was in the yard and baked at a female walking by, and the female threatened to break her neck and the neck of her dog.

•A man at 10:54 a.m. asked the Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office to help him get his dog back from a Milton-Freewater woman who took it in April. She is now in jail, he said, and the dog is in a residence with drug users.

•Pendleton police at 11:39 a.m. received a report of a 20-year-old black man chasing a female toward Interstate 84.

•An Irrigon resident on Washington Lane at 11:45 a.m. reported she found opened mail that was not hers in her mailbox.

•A Pendleton woman at 4:09 p.m. at Security Apartments, 130 S.W. Court Ave., reported her neighbor came to her door and yelled at her. She said he may be high.

•A resident of Tri-Harbor Apartments, 210 Klickitat St., Umatilla, told police at 4:38 p.m. two males were putting paint stripper through his door and making it hard to breathe.

SUNDAY

•Two women at about 2:30 a.m. fought outside Crabby’s Underground Saloon, 220 S.W. First St., Pendleton.

•A caller at 4:16 a.m. at the Sub Zero Motel, Irrigon, reported hearing a child crying and “what sounds like someone slamming the child around.” The caller said she yelled through the wall but the sounds continued. Boardman police and Morrow County sheriff’s members responded and took a report.

•Pendleton police at 11:48 a.m. took a request to have an officer speak to a resident of Southwest Goodwin Place about the dog defecate in another person’s yard.

•A Pendleton woman at 3:12 p.m. told police two 14-year-old boys about 20 minutes ago threw rocks at her house on Northwest Despain Avenue.

•An 18-year-old patient with a stab wound arrived at about 9:30 p.m. to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton. Hospital staff called police and reported a 17-year-old male caused the wound during “some horseplay.” Police investigated and found the incident to be noncriminal in nature.

Larry G. Martin

Milton-Freewater
March 15, 1931-November 17, 2015

Larry G. Martin, Ore., passed away November 17, 2015, at Park Rehabilitation Center in Walla Walla, Wash., at the age of 84 years. A Celebration of Life will be Saturday, January 2, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at the M-F Elks Lodge in Milton-Freewater.

The day God called you home, he put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. He whispered, “Peace be Thine my son.”

Martin

Larry was born March 15, 1931, to Fred and Pearl Martin in Hornbrook, California. He and brother Lovell were raised for many years by their grandparents, Albert and Clara (Martin) Adams in Eastern Oregon. They settled in Elgin, Oregon, where he competed his schooling. He joined the U.S. Navy in January 1951. Larry served on the aircraft carrier U.S. Essex during the Korean War; he was boiler man. He was honorably discharged on November 10, 1954. He married Edith Breshears in December 1955. They had a daughter, Mary Ann Martin, September 10, 1957. They moved to Milton-Freewater in 1961.

Larry had worked in the lumber industry, drove truck, combines during pea harvest, Alt Irrigation and the Walla Walla Valley Railroad as a lineman. He replaced many ties and track from Walla Walla to Milton-Freewater. He started working for the Walla Walla V.A. Hospital around 1967 as a nurse’s aid, housekeeping, laundry and finally as head groundskeeper.

Larry met Katharina Keller at the VA. The couple married March 16, 1975, in Lake Tahoe, Nev. They took many trips to Germany, Spain, Paris and Wyoming and also to visit his brother Lovell in Nevada, Arizona, Mexico and Crooked River Ranch in Oregon. He retired from the VA on April 1, 1996. The couple cleaned Saager Shoe Shop for 20 years.

Larry is survived by his wife Kay at their home in Milton-Freewater; daughters Mary Martin (Richie) of Milton-Freewater, Ore., Audrie Chandler of Elgin, Ore., and Brigitte Turner and Linda Britton, both of Walla Walla, Wash.; sons Butch (Sheila) Keller of Puyallup, Wash., and Terry (Debbie) Keller of Walla Walla, Wash.; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Albert and Clara Adams; parents Fred and Pearl Martin; sons James Breshears and John Breshears (and wife Karen); sister Ruth VanWinkle; brother Lovell Martin (and wife Betty); and son-in-law Derrill Chandler.

OBITUARIES

Glenn Elvin Shroyer

Pendleton
December 29, 1923-December 21, 2015

Glenn Shroyer, longtime resident of Helix and recently of Pendleton, passed away Dec 21 at Kadlec Hospital in Richland due to pneumonia. A celebration of life service with military honors will be held Saturday, January 2nd at 2:00 p.m. at the Helix Church.

Glenn Elvin Shroyer was born December 29, 1923, in Grafton, Nebraska, to William and Grace Shroyer. He graduated from Lushton High School and Adcox Diesel Trade School, then served in the Army in the Philippines and in Japan. After discharge, while visiting an Army friend in Pendleton, he found he liked the warmer winters and drier summers, and met his wife, Carol (Campbell) at a Helix dance. They were married July 29, 1951. Their son, Gene, died in 2003. Their daughter, Susie, is an RN in Phoenix.

Glenn was employed initially as a farm worker by Ruff Raymond, Merton Winn, and “Doc” Campbell Farms in the Helix area, then took over custom farming for his in-laws, Henry and Cassie Campbell, in 1971 and bought neighboring lands adding to the homestead near Myrick.

He volunteered for many years with the Round-Up fence crew, cooked eggs for VFW cowboy breakfasts, was on the Helix school board, was a BPOE Elks trustee, and attended Helix Church and Coffee Club. Glenn enjoyed traveling with the Pendleton Travel Club, working with stained glass and wood, and collected and refurbished John Deere tractors.

Glenn is survived by his wife, Carol; daughter Sue Metzger (Tim); granddaughters Gretchen Taylor of Meridian, Idaho, and Kelly Waldo (Michael) of Glendale, Ariz.; grandson Todd Shroyer of Redmond; great-grandsons Gage, Austin and Ian Taylor and Landyn Hancock; great-granddaughter Grace Waldo; and great-great-granddaughter Serenity Taylor.

In lieu of flowers please consider donating to the Helix Booster Club or the Helix Church, or a charity of your choice.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com

Agnes Mabel Riley Davis

Portland
March 15, 1925-December 19, 2015

Agnes was born in Bend, Oregon on March 15, 1925 to James “Frank” Riley and Hazel (Lutz) Riley. She attended her first nine years of school in Umatilla, Oregon, and graduated at Stanfield High School as the class valedictorian in 1943. After high school she went to work in Pendleton, Oregon, where she met Corporal William F. Davis, who was in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II. They married in Riverside, California, on May 2, 1944, just before he shipped out for Okinawa.

Agnes was a homemaker and housewife during and following the war. Franklin Riley Davis, her first born son, was born at Ordinance, Ore., in October 1944, where there was a military hospital situated near the Umatilla Army Depot, west of Hermiston. William Fairchild Davis Jr. arrived June of 1947 with Joseph Glenn Davis following in July of 1948. The family moved to Massillon, Ohio, for a period before coming back to the Echo Meadows in 1958.

Marcus Anthony Davis

came into the world in May of 1962, in The Dalles, Oregon, where he and his mother stayed through Tony’s graduation of high school.

Agnes loved animals! She had goats, cats, dogs and birds, just to name a few. She loved her sons and later their families.

Agnes passed away on December 19, 2015. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother at birth in 1945, sister Minnie “Frankie” Umbarger (1982), sister Penelope (Nellie) Welch (2014), and son Joseph (2000).

She is survived by a sister, Anna Louise Burchett of Stanfield, Oregon; her sons Frank and his wife Marilou of Riddle, Oregon, Bill and his wife Marlene of Springfield, Illinois, and Tony and his wife Terri of Gresham, Oregon; 14 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren.

Placement will be in early spring at the Hermiston Cemetery, the week of March 14th.

Arrangements by Gateway Little Chapel of the Chimes, Portland, Oregon.
