

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

- A male at about 1:20 a.m. got out of a small black car in front of a house on South Main Street, Pendleton, urinated and got back in the car. A witness called police and said the people in the car could be using drugs. Police did not find the car or the public urinator.
- A Pendleton resident at 8:04 a.m. reported someone left a flat screen TV covered with a blanket in his driveway on Northwest Despain Avenue.
- A man at 8:32 a.m. asked law enforcement to check on his brother who lives outside Pendleton. The caller said his brother may have stopped taking his medication and could be depressed.
- The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to a 9:44 a.m. report of an older white Ford Crown Victoria parked outside a Heppner residence because a caller said the driver threatened her before and she was concerned for her safety.
- A Umatilla resident on Pomono Drive told police at 10:10 a.m. her ex-boyfriend may have snuck around her home during the night and threw something at her parents' car.
- A caller at 1:32 p.m. asked law enforcement to check on a female who said she was walking barefoot and without a coat from Umatilla to Irrigon while hiding from a male. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office was not able to find her.
- A woman at 6:29 p.m. reported two dogs almost bit her and her fiancée as they walked on South Board Street, Weston. A Umatilla County sheriff's deputy responded and warned the dogs' owner.
- A caller at 8:15 p.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office a male sent death threats via text and phone calls.
- A father at 8:47 p.m. told Pendleton police his son is behind on his car payments and the tow truck is there to get the vehicle, but the mother and the boy were trying to prevent the tow driver from doing his job. The father said he was afraid it would escalate to a fight.
- At that same time, Pendleton police received a report of a male dressed in a tuxedo running onto the road at Southeast Court Place and 10th Street while carrying something in his hand. Police did not find the well-dressed runner.

OBITUARIES

Della Marie (Garrett) Swanson

Pendleton
June 4, 1936-December 28, 2015

Della Marie Swanson, 79, of Pendleton died December 28, 2015, at a care facility in Union, Ore.

She was born June 4, 1936, in La Grande, Ore., to Ivan and Lillian Garrett. She was raised in Promise, Union and on a ranch up Catherine Creek on what was known as The Park, five miles from Medical Springs. She served on the court of the Eastern Oregon Livestock Show in Union in 1954, the same year she graduated from Union High School.

Della married Hubert Swanson on November 23, 1957, in Reno, Nev., at the First Christian Church. The couple celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary in 2015.

She worked for the telephone company and retired after 32 years from the engineering department.

Della loved to bowl, and was on the all-star team for many years. She also loved golf, and was a member of the Pendleton Country Club for 50 years. She also was a member of the Pendleton Elks.

Della is survived by the love of her life, husband Hubert Swanson of Pendleton, and sisters Zeenith George of Union, Ore., Berneva Needham of Island City, Ore., and Glenda Hendon of Dunlap, Tenn.

A celebration of life gathering is planned for Wednesday, Jan. 6, 2016, from 2-4 p.m. at Prodigal Son Brewery & Pub, 230 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton.
