BABIES: Received gift basket from hospital

“She lets me sleep seven hours at nighttime, which is more than I expected, which is awesome,” Hiltz said.

She said she isn’t ready to leave Eden any time soon, so for now she plans to be a stay-at-home mom. She said she dreamed of being a mother for a long time, especially through her pregnancy, but being face-to-face with her daughter is even better than she expected.

Having the first baby of 2016 came with perks from the hospital, including a basket full of diapers and other gifts, which Hiltz said rounded out a great experience with the staff at St. Anthony.

Hermiston’s first baby of 2016 was Edgar Orozco II, born on January 3 at 2:51 a.m. to Jaqueline Maya and Edgar Orozco at Good Shepherd Health Care System’s Family Birthing Center.

He weighed five pounds, 10 ounces and was 19 inches long. He is the couple’s first child.

For their first baby of 2016, Good Shepherd staff put together a special gift basket for the family that included toys, wipes and other useful baby items, plus mementos that included a free professional photo shoot.

Eden and Edgar didn’t make the list of top baby names in Umatilla County for 2015, although they could prove to be trend setters for the new year.

The list of baby names generated by the 443 new parents who signed a media release at St. Anthony Hospital or Good Shepherd Medical Center in 2015 showed a wide range of unique names and creative spellings. According to the list, five girls were named Brooklyn and four boys were named Henry, making those the top two baby names of Umatilla County in 2015.

Contact Jade McDowell at jmcdowell@eastoregonian.com or 541-564-4536.

Edgar Orozco II, was welcomed by his parents, Jaqueline Maya and Edgar Orozco on January 3 at 2:51 a.m. as Hermiston’s first baby of the new year.
