IN UNIFORM

U.S. Army Pvt. Colten R. Murray has graduated from basic infantry training at Fort Jackson, S.C.

During the nine weeks of training, Murray studied the Army mission, history, tradition and core values, physical fitness, and received instruction and practice in basic combat skills, military weapons, chemical warfare and bayonet training, drill and ceremony, marching, rifle marksmanship, armed and unarmed combat, map reading, field tactics, military courtesy, military justice system, basic first aid, foot marches, and field training exercises.

Murray is the son of Timothy Murray of Hermiston. He is a 2015 graduate of Hermiston High School.

BRIEFLY

PSD to consider minor change to school boundaries

PENDLETON — Pendleton School District Assistant Superintendent Tricia Mooney will recommend to the Pendleton School Board that the new school boundaries undergo a minor alteration.

Mooney said the district has received definitive numbers regarding next year's first grade population and will alter the border between McKay Creek and Sherwood Heights elementary schools to ensure McKay Creek has only two classes per grade.

The district recently redrew elementary school boundaries to accommodate the closures of Lincoln Primary School and West Hills Intermediate School. Over the summer, Lincoln and West Hills will be converted to the district's central office and a career technical education center, respectively.

The board will consider Mooney's recommendation at its Monday meeting.

Desert Rose to discuss plans for homeless shelter

HERMISTON — Desert Rose Ministries is continuing plans for a homeless shelter.

A committee of area residents has been established to seek a suitable location for a shelter and there is a building that is being strongly considered for that purpose. In addition, a budget committee has been created for the endeavor.

For more information about House of Hope, there's a meeting Thursday at 6 p.m. at 512 E. Main St., Hermiston. Jason Estle, pastor at Desert Rose, encourages anyone interested to attend the monthly meetings.

As a way to reach out to the community, the church is open Monday through Saturdays from 7-11 a.m., offering coffee, tea, oatmeal and noodles, and from 3-6 p.m. with soup, bread and coffee.

For more information call 541-391-6435 or visit www.facebook.com/desertroseministries01.

OBITUARIES

Ardell Calvin Engelhart

Hermiston

July 15, 1926-December 20, 2015

Ardell Calvin Engelhart was born July 15, 1926, to Clarence and Ella Engelhart in Brainerd, Minnesota. He died on December 20, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 89 years.

Ardell attended grade school in Daggett Brook, Minn., and high school at Union College Academy. After high school Ardell came out west with his family to Milton Freewater and attended Walla Walla College for about one year. He began working for Harris Pine Mills.

In 1952 Ardell met Margaret Peterson during a church roller-skating event. They married July 25, 1954, in the old Walla Walla SDA church. Margaret and Ardell had three sons, Mark, Kevin and Andrew, and one daughter, Linda.

During the early years of raising a family, Ardell owned and operated Power City gas station in Umatilla and later began well drilling with Roy French, becoming a trained and licensed well driller for the Hermiston area for 20 years. In the early '80s the Engelharts moved to southern California where Ardell drilled for oil for a few years before retiring to Vancouver, Washington.

While living in Vancouver, they attended the Orchards SDA church. They treasured their time there. After their retirement they did quite a bit of traveling in and out of the United States.

Ardell was happiest when out visiting friends and making new ones. He knew no strangers. After retiring and before his stroke in 2009, he was always selling something and if you were in his company, he made sure you had opportunity to know all about his product. Besides being a busy salesman, Ardell enjoyed writing poetry, which he eventually would bring together into a book collection. He dearly loved all of his family especially his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Ardell spent his last five and a half years living at the Hermiston Regency Nursing Home. He was named their volunteer of the year in 2011. He enjoyed painting pictures, collecting pop cans, singing hymns and sharing his love for Jesus. He loved the staff and they loved him. He was a member of and attended the Hermiston SDA church and attended church for the last time the day preceding his death.

Ardell is preceded in death by both parents, Clarence and Ella; his four siblings Ruby Crowfoot, Alva Engelhart, Bernard Engelhart and Bernice Kirschenbauer; and his oldest son Mark Engelhart.

A memorial service for Ardell will be held Saturday, January 9, 2016, at 3:00 p.m. at the Hermiston SDA Church, 855 W. Highland Ave.

Maxine Shaw

Pendleton

February 3, 1932-January 3, 2016

Maxine Shaw, 83, died on January 3, 2016, at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton.

There will be a memorial mass for Maxine Wednesday, January 6, 2016, at 6:00 p.m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Sign the online condolence book at www.BurnsMortuary.com Contributions in memory of Maxine Shaw may be made to St. Vincent de Paul Society of Lane County, and may be sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801.

Maxine was born on February 3, 1932, in Eugene, Oregon. She was the 10th child of 10 children born to Barbara and Louis Kokkeler. She lived in Junction City, where she worked on the family farm at a young age. She attended St. Mary's Catholic School in Eugene and, upon graduating, she enrolled in a vocational school.

Maxine married the love of her life, Jack Shaw, on September 8, 1951, and they were happily married for over 60 years. While her two children attended St. Mary's Elementary School she volunteered many hours of her time. Later she did secretarial work at the Eugene ESD for many years. Over the years, Maxine enjoyed life to its fullest, keeping busy with gardening, working on rentals, knitting, cooking and baking for hours, and going on casino trips with Jack.

After Jack passed away in 2012, she moved from Eugene to Pendleton to be close to her daughter. She made her new home at Sun Ridge Retirement Community, where she made many new friends and grew to be very happy there.

Maxine is survived by her son and his partner of many years, David Shaw and Vickie Marks of Concord, Calif.; daughter Laura Heidt and husband Rex of Pendleton, Ore.; four grandchildren, Paul, Sarah, Gretchen and Brenna; and seven great-grandchildren.
