

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

7:14 a.m. - A Pendleton woman reported someone smashed her windshield in during the night at Security Apartments, 130 S.W. Court Ave., and she found a broken chair in the lobby that may have been the tool that destroyed the windshield.

8:52 a.m. - A theft victim reported he found out who took his $1,000 generator two years ago and where the suspect lives and possibly works. He asked for a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to call him.

9:46 a.m. - Umatilla police received a report that a dog was tethered in a back yard on Blur Bird Drive "all the time." Police are investigating.

11:06 a.m. - More dogs were out in the cold, according to a report to the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office. The caller said someone is leaving two dogs chained outside for the past month at a home on Diagonal Road, Hermiston. The caller said it was too cold for that and asked the sheriff's office to check on them, but deputies did not find the dogs.

1:12 p.m. - A woman told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office someone stole her totes some time ago and she just found one of them at Fiesta Foods, 1875 N. First St., Hermiston. She asked for a deputy to respond.

3 p.m. - A couple drew some attention in the parking lot of the Pendleton Safeway, 201 S.W. 20th St. A male in a van approached an elderly woman in the lot, then ran back to the van yelling, a caller reported. Then a female got out of the van, and the couple acted like they were pushing it. The male also "kept putting his hands up to his head in a shooting motion," according to the report, and the caller said she was concerned for elderly people going in and out of the store.

8:22 p.m. - A Umatilla man on Pleasant View Road told law enforcement another man harassed him with two phone calls and accused him in a text message of making threats.

Then Wednesday at 4:21 a.m., a man from the same location reported his house alarm went off and when he went outside saw a vehicle with at least two people inside in his driveway. While on the phone with dispatch, he fired a gun and said he would shoot anyone who is trespassing.

The caller did not give much a description of the vehicle and said it left.

10:13 p.m. - A man in Meacham reported his girlfriend punched him.

OBITUARIES

James A. 'Jim' Baltzor

Athena

June 18, 1934-January 3, 2016

James A. "Jim" "Popi" Baltzor of Athena, Oregon, was born June 18, 1934, in Wilder, Idaho, to Frank and Mary Carter Baltzor. He passed away January 3, 2016, at his home, surrounded by his family, at the age of 81. A recitation of the rosary will be held at St. Bernard's Catholic Church, Jordan Valley, Oregon, on Friday, January 8 at 7:00 p.m. A funeral service will be held the following day at St. Bernard's at 11:00 a.m. The family will hold a Celebration of Life in Athena at a later date.

Baltzor

He and younger brother Allen were raised on Thomas Creek and Cow Creek, near Jordan Valley. He rode his horse every day to the one-room Cow Creek Elementary School and graduated high school in Jordan Valley, 1952.

In 1953 he joined and served in the U.S. Army, being stationed at Fort Ord, Calif. Near the end of the Korean War, he was awarded the National Defense Service Medal and the Good Conduct Medal. He served two years and was honorably discharged in 1955 as a corporal.

Jim returned to Jordan Valley and married the love of his life, Arlene B. Eiguren, on December 11, 1955. Jim and Arlene raised their three children on the family ranch at Cow Creek. Jim was a cattle brand inspector, a member of the Jordan Valley Rodeo Committee, school board member, an Elk's member and a charter member of the Lion's Club.

He attended a rancher vet school and then was able to provide veterinary care. He took great pride in being able to perform procedures on livestock for fellow ranchers in the area, including many caesarean sections and enucleations.

He started a lot of colts and made a lot of nice bridle horses during his time at the ranch.

After 22 years of ranching, Jim was hired as a Malheur County sheriff's deputy. In 1980, Jim and Arlene left Jordan Valley and moved near Pendleton, Ore., on Cabbage Hill. He then worked for the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office for one year.

Following his law enforcement career, Jim attended Miller's Bit and Spur School in Idaho, and began his new career as a rawhide braider and silversmith. He created countless treasures over the years, specializing in reatas, reins, bridles, spurs, buckles and jewelry.

Jim and Arlene officially retired, sold their home and traveled the country, making friends everywhere they went. In 2007 they bought a new home in Athena and have lived there since. Jim never knew a stranger and could tell stories for hours that would keep everyone entertained. He was a kind soul who would help out anyone in need and was known as a man that could be depended on in any situation. Jim loved spending time with his family, especially while hunting with his sons, son-in-law, grandchildren and friends.

Jim is survived by his wife of 60 years, Arlene; sisters-in-law Virginia Baltzor, Francis Harvey and Kay (Glenn) Grenke; step-sister Sharon Davis; children Jaime (Con) Shea, Keith (Katie) Baltzor and Rick (Chelle) Baltzor; grandchildren Melissa (Shane) Weston, Keri (Jordan) Standley, Kristin Shea, Sarah, Clint (Heather), Zane and Travis Baltzor; nine great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins, and many friends that he considered family.

He was preceded in death by his parents Frank and Mary, stepmother Naida, sister Mary Kathleen and brother Allen, and brother-in-law John Harvey.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Jim's memory at St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Jordan Valley, Ore., Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Athena, Ore., or any charity of your choice.

Lester Ellison Loftis

Pendleton

July 28, 1940-January 3, 2016

Lester Ellison Loftis, a resident of Pendleton, passed away Sunday morning, January 3, 2016, at his home. He was 75 years old.

As per his request, no service is planned at this time. There may be a Celebration of Life at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Lester Loftis may be made to a charity of the donor's choice, and sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, PO Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801. Sign the online condolence book at www.BurnsMortuary.com Burns Mortuary of Pendleton handled arrangements.

Lester was born July 28, 1940, in Klamath Falls,

Oregon, to Earl and Donna Loftis.

He owned and operated a dump trucking business.

He is survived by his wife Elaine Loftis of Pendleton; daughters Robyn Cummings and son-in-law John, and Justin Leeper; stepchildren Dan and Haley Morris, Jeff Morris and Marcy Osborn, and Lori and Nate Hamilton; grandchildren Amanda and Dusty Lee, Drew, Morgan, Jake and Justin

Loftis

Morris, Marissa Halsey, and Johnathon Cummings; great-grandchildren Traven and Diesyl Lee; brother Eldon Loftis and wife Marla; several nieces and nephews, and many friends.

William M. 'Mac' McClannahan

Umatilla

November 2, 1922-January 2, 2016

William M. "Mac" McClannahan of Umatilla, Oregon, was born on November 2, 1922, in Tacoma, Wash., to parents William and Amanda Panter McClannahan. He died on January 2, 2016, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 93 years.

McClannahan

Mac was raised and attended school in Tacoma, Washington. He joined the United States Army and served in the South Pacific until his honorable discharge. Mac was united in marriage to Velma Jean "VJ" Bowman on June 28, 1945, in Merrill, Oregon. They moved to Burbank, Washington, in 1950 where they homesteaded and farmed in the TriCity Basin. They later moved to Umatilla, Oregon.

Mac and Ray Dunn founded Oregon Potato and used turbines to pump water from the Columbia River to the bluffs over Umatilla. That enabled them to turn dry desert land into fertile farm land for their potato crop. They sold Oregon Potato and purchased Selectric Inc. in Umatilla, Oregon, and then built and operated Dehydration Specialists Inc., an onion dehydration facility at the Port of Umatilla. Mac and VJ built Hermiston Tri Cinema, which she operated for many years.

Mac enjoyed working and occasionally playing golf. Mac was grand marshal of Landing Days and Umatilla Business Man of the Year.

He is survived by his wife of 70 years, VJ McClannahan, Umatilla, Ore.; daughter Katherine McClannahan, Boise, Idaho; son Mitchell McClannahan, Kalama, Wash.; sister Lorraine Plankers, California; and grandchildren Seth Barrett, Benjamin Barrett, Mitchell McClannahan, Kimberly McClannahan and Patrick McClannahan.

Mac was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Elwood Hopper; a sister, Phyllis Marr; and a grandson, William "Billy" McClannahan.

A celebration of life gathering with military honors will be held on Sunday, January 10, 2016, at 2:00 P.M. with sharing to continue until 4:00 P.M. at Oxford Suites, 1050 N. First St. (Hwy 395), Hermiston, OR 97838.

Those who wish may make contributions in Mac's memory to a charity of your choice.

Jeanette Louise Conroy

Pendleton

May 28, 1938-January 4, 2016

Jeanette Louise Conroy (Beggs), 77, passed away peacefully on January 4, 2016, in Pendleton, Ore. She was born on May 28, 1938, in Sacramento, Calif., to Edward and Mildred Beggs.

Jan grew up in the San Francisco Bay area. She graduated from Burlingame High School in Burlingame, Calif., in 1956. After high school she attended Willamette University in Salem, Ore., where she received a degree in journalism and social science. While in school, Jan was the president of her local chapter of the Chi Omega Sorority.

Shortly after graduation, Jan took a job with the Oregon Department of Human Services and moved to Pendleton, Ore. She worked to help families for several years, enjoying her time with the department.

Jan married John Conroy in August of 1962. They had four children: Jeff (Jeannette) of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Joe (Kristen) of Spokane, Wash., Jenni Galloway (Greg) of Pendleton, Ore., and Jayson (Leah) of Spokane Valley, Wash.

Jan worked for many years in the food service industry. Most notably, she spent 26 years running the food service at Blue Mountain Community College. She enjoyed visiting with the students and encouraging their education. She was an advocate for people and healthy lifestyles. She was instrumental in the Community Christmas Eve dinner at BMCC, including her entire family in this volunteer effort for many years.

Jan spent the last 15 years living at McKay Creek Estates. As one of the first residents of the facility, she started "The Coffee Clutch" group while there and enjoyed socializing with the residents and their families.

Jan loved to travel. Fond memories include trips to Boston, Maui, San Francisco, and others throughout the greater Northwest.

Jan is survived by her four children; grandchildren Monica Conroy of Seattle, Wash., Brienne Conroy of Valdez, Alaska, John Conroy of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, McKenzie and Tanner Conroy of Spokane, Wash., Sydney, Lauren and Allison Galloway of Pendleton, Ore., and Riley, Kaelan and Liam Conroy of Spokane Valley, Wash.; stepchildren Tim (Sandy) of Vancouver, Wash., Dewey (Ortensia) of Newberg, Ore., and Debbie Deiner of Donald, Ore.; and her sister Diane Burns (Jim) of Davis, Calif.

A celebration of life will be held at Hamley's Steakhouse on Saturday, January 9th from 6:00-8:00 p.m.
