Charles J. Daly

RECORDS

Heppner December 9, 1929-January 16, 2016

Charles J. Daly, 86, of Heppner died Saturday, January 16, 2016, due to complications from pneumonia. Recitation of the Holy Rosary will held on Saturday, January 23, 2016, beginning at 10 a.m. at St Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner. Funeral Mass will follow at 11 a.m.

Charlie was the son of pioneer settlers; born in Heppner, Oregon, on December 9, 1929, to James and Daly Kate (McDevitt)

Daly. Jim and Kate had emigrated from Ireland to Morrow County where Jim had proved up on a homestead in Newman Canyon, a branch of Little Buttercreek.

Charlie and his sisters grew up on the family ranch, he attended the Pine City schoolhouse through seventh grade. The students were then bused to Echo where he graduated from Echo High School. Charlie was an accomplished athlete holding several school records and later enjoyed seeing longtime friends at the annual reunions.

The family, like most ranching families, were "sustainable growers," and primarily raised sheep until the late 1960s. Charlie never regretted taking down the sheep barns and transitioning to cattle ranching as, in his opinion, "cattle are a lot less labor than sheep.

Charlie met his future wife while recovering from a leg injury. She was a registered nurse at St. Anthony Hospital. On September 26, 1953, Charlie married Yvonne Jarrard at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton, Oregon. Charlie brought his new bride out to live on Little Buttercreek, where they raised their children and hosted family and friends over the next 62 years.

Charlie was active in many organizations and was honored to be named 1978 Morrow County

Charlie 1S survived by six children: Jeanne Daly, Patty Daly, David (Kathy) Daly, Tim (Maggie) Daly, Mary (Jon) Gill, and JoLynn (Galen) Anderson; 11 grandchildren; great-grandchildren; one sister, Patricia Boyd; and several beloved nieces and nephews and many "adopted" extended family.

Charlie was preceded in death by his wife, Yvonne, who passed away two months previously. Also preceding Charlie were his parents, two sisters, Mary (Daly) Doherty and Kathlene (Daly) Stuvland, and one son, Daniel.

He was blessed to live his 86 years on the family ranch, his favorite place. While he enjoyed some traveling, he preferred being on Little Buttercreek where he watched his hills turning green in the spring and bringing wildflowers for Yvonne. He wanted everyone to know he "had a good ride" and was ready to go home.
