

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY

10:55 a.m. - A Pendleton man reported an attorney withheld his mail from him for six months, and when he received it, it had all been opened. Pendleton police determined it was a civil dispute.

2:14 p.m. - Pendleton police cited a driver that lost the vehicle he was towing near Safeway, 203 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, creating a traffic hazard.

2:44 p.m. - A man driving over the Umatilla River Road/ Interstate 82 overpass in Umatilla spotted a group of men near a homeless camp jumping out into the road and acting strangely. The caller said one man appeared to be bleeding, but he did not believe they needed medical attention. A Umatilla County sheriff's deputy was unable to locate the men.

2:46 p.m. - A resident of Kiwi Court, Umatilla, reported to the Umatilla police that one of his vehicles had the license plate stolen and a plate to an unknown vehicle was in his yard.

4:31 p.m. - A woman with a bloody nose was reported throwing rocks through a window and yelling into a residence on Lorraine Avenue, Hermiston.

5:11 p.m. - The rear passenger side window of a pickup truck was reported broken out while parked at Ross and Old Oregon Trail roads near Meacham, the truck's owner reported.

10:52 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of a man "rolling around in the median" near Highway 30 and Mission Road, Pendleton.

11:50 p.m. - An employee of First Stop Mart, Highway 11, Milton-Freewater, requested a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy respond to the store to roust a man who was sleeping outside in his vehicle because they wanted to close the store.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Jonathan Prescott Williams, 37, address not provided, was arrested by Milton-Freewater police for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

•An Oregon State Police deputy was dispatched to a suspicious vehicle on State Route 244, milepost 23, at 9:50 p.m. The deputy found the vehicle an hour and 20 minutes later at milepost 12, and the driver "was giving incoherent and conflicting stories about why he had traveled so little a distance" during that time. Johnathan Christian Hattaway, 38, address not provided, admitted smoking marijuana and taking Adderall and was arrested for driving under the influence of controlled substances after failing sobriety tests.

Christine Elizabeth Sorenson

Irrigon
December 30, 1943-January 18, 2016

Christine Elizabeth Sorenson, eldest daughter of U.S. Marine Corps Lt. Colonel Robert H. Venn and Eula C. Case, passed away January 18, 2016, after a valiant struggle with her health. Her unending devotion to her community and family leaves her sorely missed by the many who loved her well.

As a child Christine faced physical limitations that would have overshadowed many lives but she became the definition of perseverance. She began undergraduate work at the University of Idaho and paused her studies to marry her first husband, Norman Westlake, and raise her two sons, Robert and Christopher. She returned to college at the Western Connecticut State University. Juggling family and full-time studies, she graduated magna cum laude in education and served on a college presidential search committee. She moved to St. Margaret's McNernan School in Waterbury, Conn., where she taught middle school math and science. Her classroom was filled with rocks and crystals she had collected herself in caves throughout New England to benefit her students.

Christine later called Boise, Idaho, home and there met the love of her life, Andrew Sorenson. Christine and Andrew married in 1990 and eventually settled in Irrigon, Oregon, where they built up a life together close to fishing and the outdoors, and shared a love for expert cooking. She owned Christine's Storage in town and built a loyal following of customers. Christine also became a pillar of the community with service of uncommon depth and breadth including the Lion's Club, the Moose Lodge, treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, and membership on the City Council.

Her family cherishes the many gifts she passed on: a strong sense of duty, honor, pursuit of dreams, and insistence that all strive to do the right thing. Conversations with Christine were a mental exercise of wit and if outdone she rewarded one with a boisterous laugh that made everyone smile.

We love you with all our hearts, Christine, and will always cherish the huge impact you had on our lives.

Christine is preceded in death by her parents, youngest brother Andy, first husband Norman Westlake, and beloved cat "Little Man" Buster. She is survived by her steadfast husband Andrew, sons Robert (Susan) and Christopher (Linda) Westlake, grandchildren Lindsay and Cooper, sister-in-law Carol Venn and nieces Emilee, Melissa, Monica, Hannah and Sadie. She also leaves behind her cherished dogs Sioux and Chloe.

A service will be held at Burns Mortuary in Hermiston Saturday at 10 a.m. and followed by a celebration of her life at 12 p.m. at Stokes Landing Senior Center in Irrigon.

The family respectfully requests that we honor Christine's giving spirit with donations to Wounded Warriors, the Lions Club, or Vange John Memorial Hospice in lieu of flowers.

Please send condolences at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.
