

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

2:17 a.m. - Boardman police received a tip that a man could be planning to break-in and steal from a place on Sky View Drive.

9:12 a.m. - The former owner of a bank-owned house on West Lincoln Street, Athena, reported someone ripped off the lock box and left the back door open. The caller asked to talk to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy before going in and removing more of her property.

11:07 a.m. - Bad meat may be to blame for a sick dog in Athena on North Fifth Street. The dog's owner told law enforcement she did not think too much about her pooch getting ill on Tuesday but then noticed a fresh piece of raw meat in her yard and questioned if someone put it there and if that's what made the dog sick. She asked to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy 12:07 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a complaint about the Facebook page Public Lands Hunt Club, which states the following (unedited for grammar): "Since the Bundy Militia has secured public lands for the good of the people all Federal restrictions are null and void. Cattle season is open!" Page administrators are anonymous and posted the number "29" late Tuesday, possibly to total the number of cattle followers have killed on public lands. The page has 299 "likes" and several comments critical of the page and what it stands for.

1:06 p.m. - The owner of a 26-foot travel trailer at an Irrigon storage business reported someone broke in and stole multiple items, including a desktop computer and fishing gear.

2:28 p.m. - A resident on Hoeft Road, Pendleton, reported someone this past week flew several times at elevations of 50 feet or lower over his residence and he felt this was dangerous.

2:35 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report that a husband assaulted his wife.

3:49 p.m. - A sex offender told Umatilla police he would not be in for sex offender registration because the government deported him to Mexico.

4:01 p.m. - A Pendleton caller reported a man for littering after throwing his mail onto Southwest Ninth Street

5:38 p.m. - A father told Pendleton police a 17-year-old girl threatened his 12-year-old daughter.

6:59 p.m. - A driver reported she was near High Desert Marine, 30618 Bensel Road, Hermiston, when a metal barrel fell from the bed of a work-style pickup lacking a tailgate and she crashed into it. She said she was at Auto Zone, 1795 N. First St., Hermiston, and was afraid to drive.

OBITUARIES

Delmer R. Buschke

Heppner
Dec. 30, 1928-Feb. 2, 2016

Delmer R. Buschke, 87, of Heppner died Tuesday, Feb. 2, 2016, at his home. A memorial service with military honors will be held Tuesday, Feb. 9, 2016, at 11 a.m. at the Heppner Elks Lodge.

He was born Dec. 30, 1928, at Heppner, Oregon the son of Max and Grace Miller Buschke. He attended grade school in Hardman and graduated from Heppner High School in 1946. He served in the United States Army from October 1950 until honorably discharged in June of 1952. Most of the time in the service was spent in Germany and he traveled to many other countries while there.

When he returned to Heppner, he went to work for the Heppner Lumber Company where he had worked summers prior to entering the Army. He continued to work at the Heppner Mill through the many changes in ownership and retired from Kinzua Corporation in 1990 after 43 years.

On Oct. 27, 1956, he married the love of his life, Judy Wright, at the Methodist Church in Heppner. Just before they were married, he bought a lot and promised to build a home for his new wife. He fulfilled his promise and he and Judy lived in that house on Fairview Way and raised three sons. At the time of his death, they had been married for 59 years and lived in the same house for 58 of those years.

Delmer loved to hunt and fish and spent any spare time he had doing just that. He saved his money and bought a boat and traveled to Canada many times to go fishing. He also had many wonderful years traveling with his camp trailer and later a fifth wheel to his much loved mountains, the coast, and many trips to the Columbia River. He had many good years and good friends for which he was thankful.

Delmer loved his family. His boys and his grandkids were his pride and joy and he loved spending time with them. He was a great example for

Elma Mae Campbell Straughan

Pendleton
Dec. 5, 1927-Jan. 31, 2016

Elma Mae Campbell Straughan, a longtime resident of Pendleton, died with her family at her side on the morning of Jan. 31, 2016. She was 88 years old. Graveside services will be held at Olney Cemetery on Friday, Feb. 5 at 1 p.m. Following the service, all are welcome to a gathering at St. Mary's Church.

Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is handling arrangements.

Straughan

Elma was born Dec. 5, 1927, to Russell and Alvina Reiber Campbell in Huntington, Oregon. Later the family moved to Pendleton. She graduated from Pendleton High School and Saint Anthony's School of Nursing.

Elma married John E. Straughan on Feb. 9, 1948, and together they began a life together on their family farm. Along with helping on the farm and raising four children, she was involved with multiple clubs and organizations. She volunteered for many years at Red Cross blood drives, St. Anthony's gift shop, events at St. Andrew's Mission and Roundup Republican Women.

She was also involved with the St. Anthony School of Nursing Alumni, St. Anthony Auxiliary, Catholic Daughters, Umatilla County Historical Society, Oregon Nurses Association and American Nurses Association.

John and Elma enjoyed making annual trips to the Oregon coast. They also made a trip to Scotland to research John's ancestry. Additionally, Elma made trips to Egypt, Middle East, Rome and Australia.

Elma is survived by her husband, John E. Straughan; sisters, Alvina Vaughan of Renton, Washington and Daphna Beldon of Colorado; sons, John R. Straughan (Joey), and Patrick C. Straughan (Kim); daughters, Christine Straughan of Pendleton; and Rosemary Eye (Bill) of Rancho Cordova, California; along with five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Elma was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Ella Campbell of St. Louis, Missouri.

In lieu of flowers, the family wishes that contribution be made to the Umatilla County Historical Society.
