Area libraries provide job search assistance

Umatilla County residents looking for job search assistance can find useful resources through local libraries.

Library patrons can use LearningExpress Library to search the Job & Career Accelerator Center through all 12 Umatilla County public libraries. The new feature allows access to more than 5 million job postings from leading job boards, government and corporate sites, online classifieds, recruitment sites and more.

In addition to job postings, the center can help users with updating or creating resumes and cover letters, tips for filling out job application forms and preparing for job interviews.

Staff at any of the public libraries in the county can assist users in getting started with using any of the features in LearningExpress Library.

For more information, call or stop by your local library or contact Dan Feil, library district administrative assistant, at 541-276-6449 or dan@ucslid.org.

Hermiston Kiwanis seek scholarship applicants

HERMISTON — The Hermiston Noon Kiwanis Club is accepting applications for its Perry Johnson and Russell Dorran post-secondary education scholarships.

The scholarship awards are for seniors from Hermiston High School or graduates of Hermiston who are attending college in academic programs.

Applications are available at the HHS counseling office or the Hermiston Chamber of Commerce, 415 S. Highway 395. Important factors in the evaluation of applicants includes academic record, community service, leadership and financial need. The applications must be submitted by Thursday, March 31. Interviews with potential scholarship winners will be scheduled.

For more information, contact George Clough at 541-567-6024 or Hermiston Noon Kiwanis Club, P.O. Box 375, Hermiston, OR 97838.

Submit information to: community@eastoregonian.com or drop off to the attention of Tammy Malgesini at 333 E. Main St., Hermiston or Renee Struthers at 211 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton. Call 541-564-4539 or 541-966-0818 with questions.
