Jerry R. Brosnan

Baker City
September 26, 1970-February 5, 2016

Jerry R. Brosnan, 45, of Baker City passed away at his residence on February 5, 2016. A public graveside service is scheduled for Thursday, February 11, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery in Heppner, Ore. Arrangements are being made through Gray's West & Co.

Jerry was born on September 26, 1970, to Edward and Lorraine (Hamden) Brosnan in Pendleton, Ore. He attended high school in Heppner. He was a member of 4-H throughout grade school and Jerry played football and ran track in high school. Jerry was also a member of the Catholic Church.

From 1995-2000, Jerry worked in the timber industry as a logger for McCarty Logging, and from 2000-2005 he worked for the Walmart Distribution Center as a forklift operator. After suffering a traumatic head injury, Jerry spent a year at Elks Rehabilitation learning to walk and talk again. In a year's time, he had improved enough to live independently and was able to go back to work as a logger, which he dearly loved. Learning to live again was his greatest accomplishment and one he did very successfully until his death.

Brosnan

Fishing, hunting, trips to the ocean, cattle drives, night herding cattle, and traveling were among his favorite things. Jerry was also a very talented gardener and you could always count on him to send you home with a bag of tomatoes! He was also very generous and loved to share with family and friends.

Jerry is survived by his mother, Lorraine F. Brosnan of Baker City, sister Dyann L. Brosnan and Greg McCarty of Baker City, and brothers Michael (Mike) E. and Dawn Brosnan of Heppner, James D. (Jim) and Carolyn Brosnan of Barboursville, Virginia, and Mark A. and Sally Brosnan of Lexington. He is also survived by his nephews Clay McCarty, Ben McCarty, Brent Brosnan and Zachary Brosnan, and his nieces Jolee McCarty and Kaitly Brosnan.

He is preceded in death by his father, Edward M. Brosnan.

Memorial contributions may be made in honor of Jerry to the Heppner Catholic Church and/or the Elks Rehabilitation center through Gray's West & Co., 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.

Margaret Lewis Troedson

Pendleton
August 20, 1915-February 3, 2016

Margaret was born at Wards Butte, Linn County, Oregon, on August 20, 1915. She took great joy in her life membership in Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers. Her great-great-grandfather, Capt. James Blakely, led a wagon train along the Oregon Trail arriving in Oregon in 1846. Her family settled in the area now known as Brownsville, Ore. Many of her relatives are buried in that area.

As a young child she traveled with her family to Central Oregon and settled in Lower Bridge.

Her parents farmed and her father Raymond Brewster was active in soil conservation. Margaret graduated from Redmond High School and continued her education at Kinsman Business School in Spokane, Wash.

Margaret married Verner E. Troedson on March 24, 1948, in Portland, Ore. They returned to lone, Ore., and continued operation of their wheat ranch. They both loved their lives on the ranch and enjoyed many friends in Morrow County.

In 1972 they retired from ranching and moved to Pendleton, Ore. They participated in community activities and enjoyed new friends. She became an active member of the Church of the Redeemer Church and Altar Guild and eventually accepted the directorship. She also participated in the United Way and Mary Alice Ridgeway trained her to be a fund collector. She served on the Umatilla County Planning Commission and eventually became chairperson. Margaret and Verner enjoyed the Wheat League and their membership at the Pendleton

Country Club.

Margaret was a member of P.E.O. Chapter BJ for 42 years. In recent years she was honored by membership in the Pendleton High School FFA and given her own jacket.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond and Georgia Brewster; her brother William Henry Brewster while serving in WWII; her husband Verner June 18, 1997; and many dear friends in their "Birthday Club."

Margaret is survived by her daughter Shirree McGreer of Pendleton, Chapter BJ P.E.O. sisters and many dear friends.

In accordance with Margaret's wishes, a celebration of her life will be held in the spring at Wards Butte, Linn County, Ore., her birth place. With the loving support of her wonderful caregivers and Home Health and Hospice, St. Anthony Hospital, Margaret was able to be at home to greet friends, sit in the sunshine and enjoy Pendleton sunsets from her west windows.

We have entrusted Pendleton Pioneer Chapel Folsom-Bishop of Pendleton, Ore., with arrangements. Please share your thoughts and memories of Margaret in her online memorial at www.pioneerchapel.com.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made through Pendleton Pioneer Chapel to the Church of the Redeemer, Home Health and Hospice, St. Anthony Hospital, P.E.O. Chapter BJ Pendleton, or a charity of your choice.

So while we rejoice that one we love has entered into the nearer presence of our Lord, we sorrow in sympathy with those who mourn.

McAllister, Montana
December 19, 1942-February 2, 2016

David passed away at his home in McAllister, Montana, with his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris and David, grandson Gabe and his beloved sister LeeAnn at his side. He was born in Klamath Falls, Ore., to Peggy Lee Reavis and Walter Eschebeck. David was raised on a cattle ranch in Stanfield, Ore., and attended Hermiston High School where he was a star basketball player and made the OSAA All State Basketball Team in 1960, the first in the history of Hermiston High School.

David attended Colorado State University on a basketball scholarship and pursued his lifelong desire to become a veterinarian. He later received his master's degree in public health from the University of Michigan. David married Sherrill Hess after college and joined the Air Force. He was stationed in Tokyo, Tacoma, Wash., Ann Arbor, Mich., San Antonio, Texas, and Honolulu, Hawaii. While in Tokyo, he supervised and cared for the sentry dogs and traveled extensively to Vietnam to oversee their care. During those years, David and Sherrill had three children, Chris, Jill and David.

David retired from the Air Force in 1979 and established a successful veterinary practice in McMinnville, Ore. There he married his second wife, Elisabeth Hermsen. In 1996, David sold his practice and moved to his ranch outside of McAllister, Montana, where he lived out his life doing what he loved: hunting, fishing, traveling, visiting his children and grandchildren and farming. David was blessed with good looks and a personality to match. He made friends wherever in the world he went and was much loved by them and his family.

David and Elisabeth were very involved with the Child's Passport to Health, a foundation that sponsors children from third world countries who have medical deficiencies and need to be housed and cared for in the United States while undergoing treatment. During the course of their participation in the foundation, they provided a home and care for eight children at varying times.

David is predeceased by his mother, Peggy Lee Mann, father Walter Eschebeck, stepfather Irvin Mann, his first wife Sherrill and his only daughter, Jill Thornton. He is survived by his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris (Tracey) and David (Kari), brother Linc (Pat), sisters LeeAnn (Don), Julie (Mark) and Debbie (Jamie), and seven grandchildren.
