

WAR ON 84: Smith gets hot for Bucks in fourth

but Pendleton never panicked. “Grindy, nasty wins. That’s kinda what we’ve been about,” Pendleton junior Caden Smith said. “We’ve really tried to work on our defense, because that’s really what wins games.”

Hermiston’s offense wavered a bit after the first quarter, but not much. After scoring those 10 points, Flores was relatively quiet the rest of the game. Hermiston senior point guard Austin Naillon said they got away from Flores perhaps too much.

“We were trying to get everyone involved, but I think an important part of our team is knowing your role,” Naillon said. “Chance is definitely our scorer, so I think getting him the ball is very important.”

Behind Smith, who scored a game-high 33 points, the Bucks began to whittle away at the Bulldog lead. It expanded to seven points on an Andrew James 3-pointer, but Pendleton didn’t go away. Daniel Adams scored five points on back-to-back possessions at the 1:52 mark to take a 36-35 lead, the Bucks’ first of the game.

Pendleton would go into halftime up a point at 42-41, setting the tone for a high-scoring affair. “We didn’t play as well defensively as we would’ve liked to have,” Hermiston coach Dave Ego said.

Neither bench could take control in the third quarter, though things started to unravel a bit. Tedder was nearly whistled for a technical foul while asking for a timeout, but was given the timeout and not the technical. Emotions began to run high on the court, and the volume in the building never wavered.

“I thought our composure what outstanding,” Tedder said.

“I think (that’s) the bottom line of what the difference in the game was: Who composed themselves down the stretch? And I think that was us.”

If the first three quarters were balanced scoring-wise for Pendleton, the fourth belonged to Smith. He scored the Bucks’ first 12 points of the final period, capped by a steal-dunk sequence that forced Ego to take a timeout. It capped a 14-5 run that put Pendleton up eight with 4:28 to go in the period. Two Wyatt Morris free throws put Pendleton up 10, the biggest lead for either team. Smith battered the Bulldogs that period with turnaround jump shots and 3-pointers, most of which were contested and still went in.

“We had a hand up on him almost every shot he took,” Naillon said. “That’s a good shooter.”

But Hermiston came right back with a 7-0 run to cut the deficit to three at 76-73, but couldn’t get any closer than that. Smith left the door open by missing the front end of a one-and-one twice, but a James Brandt layup off a Hermiston turnover with 22 seconds left sealed it.

“It could’ve been over a little sooner, but they like to get my blood boiling a little bit,” Tedder said. “But I’m just proud of them. We got the best player in the league taking over ... But like I told the team, he couldn’t do what he does without them.”

Hermiston hosts Rex Putnam next week in the play-in round of the 5A playoffs. Pendleton’s opponents is to be determined.

through every quarter on their way to the win, racing out to a 23-18 advantage at halftime, and increasing the lead to eight points at 33-25 at the end of the third quarter that would stand for the remainder of the game.

Ione’s (15-10) senior duo of Rachel Holland and Jessie Flynn led the Cardinals in scoring as Holland put up 13 points and Flynn 11 points. Helix advances into the second round of the state tournament as a No. 15 seed and will next travel to Medford on Friday to take on the No. 2 seed Rogue Valley Adventist Academy (22-3). Flerchinger said that the teams’ preparation won’t be much different than normal.

“We basically just have to keep doing what we’ve been doing to prepare ourselves,” he said. “We don’t know much on the opponent other than what is on the internet, so we just have to continue to make sure we are prepared for the game.”
