

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

12:42 a.m. - The owner of Wallace Drilling, Hermiston, told law enforcement he was out of the area, called his shop and a female answered, but no one should have been there. He asked her what she was doing there, he said, and she told him, "I can get in here anytime I want." The owner said he would pursue charges for anyone police found in the business.

4:01 a.m. - A 20- or maybe 30-something white male at South Main Street and Southeast Emigrant Avenue, Pendleton, acted strange, according to a caller, reached for "things in the air" when nothing was there and stumbled around.

12:10 p.m. - An employee of JCPenney Co., 124 S. Main St., Pendleton, reported someone broke the locks on the store's back door.

12:47 p.m. - A 9-1-1 caller reported a male was hitting a female with a walking stick at the Crossroads Truck Stop, 2020 Highway 730, Umatilla. The female wore a shawl, the assailant was in a hooded sweatshirt, and the caller also left the scene.

2:46 p.m. - A man reported he brought a flatbed dump truck to a mechanic on Couze Creek Road, Milton-Freewater, but the mechanic did not want it on his property and threatened to shoot him if he came back.

2:49 p.m. - City of Weston staff asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to send a deputy because of some "tweakers" at South Water and East High streets.

3:54 p.m. - Two teens wearing shorts and backpacks knocked on doors on Southeast Fifth Street, Pilot Rock, and asked for someone's grandparents, but when no one answered they acted suspiciously. Police did not find them.

4:02 p.m. - A Umatilla man reported the theft of a black 14-foot-long Premium single axle utility trailer with three mounted royal blue portable toilets and two hand washing stations.

4:03 p.m. - A FedEx driver asked Umatilla police to check on a home on Naches Court after he tried since last Friday to deliver a package there, and someone takes the notices he leaves but no one seems home.

4:43 p.m. - A Pendleton woman told police her next door neighbor on Tutuilla Road pulled into her driveway, hit her car, left and then pulled into her house, causing a little damage. She said she tried to talk with the man, but he bolted into his house.

4:44 p.m. - A debate coach from Idaho State University was at a Pendleton hotel and asked for an officer to talk to one of the students about some strange activity he was doing. Police had no luck finding who to talk to.

OBITUARIES

Jerry Lee Lambert Sr.

Athena
 Aug. 8, 1951-Feb. 27, 2016

Jerry Lee Lambert Sr., a resident of Athena, died Saturday February 27, 2016, at his home as the result of a house fire. He was 64 years old.

A celebration of Jerry's life will be held at a later date. Contributions in memory of Jerry Lambert Sr. may be made to Alcoholics Anonymous. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton handled arrangements.

Lambert

Jerry was born August 8, 1951, in Preston, Idaho, to Daniel E. H. and Betty Jean (Henderson) Lambert. He was raised in Eagle, Idaho, and Meridian, Idaho, where he graduated high school with the class of 1969.

Jerry enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1971. He worked in data processing and was stationed aboard the USS Nimitz. He was a golden gloves boxer at that time. He traveled the world visiting many countries during his 20-yearlong career with the U.S. Navy and retired from service in 1991. Following his retirement from the Navy, Jerry held many different jobs at various businesses in the area. He had a very strong work ethic and even enjoyed hard work.

His hobbies included camping, wood working, supporting family activities, traveling, listening to audio books and watching movies. He enjoyed working with technology and was very computer savvy. Jerry was a hard worker and a very caring person to all. He was very involved in attending sports events of all kinds.

He loved to take family trips camping, sledding, picnicking, and to corn mazes or haunted houses; anything to be involved. He had several health issues, which made it difficult for him to be involved in the last few years. He will be missed by many. He maintained a lasting relationship with his ex-wife, Janet Lambert, they depended on each other for much friendship and love.

Jerry is survived by his son, Jerry Lee Lambert Jr. & wife Nicole of Bend, OR; his sisters, Mary Peterson of Idaho; Jean Reed & husband Floyd of Alaska; Penny Whitehall of Pilot Rock, OR; Rocky Stout of Pilot Rock; and Kathy Lambert & husband Allen Orr of Pendleton, OR; and a brother, John Lambert & wife Billy of Pilot Rock; as well as 31 nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his sister, Carolyn Sue Helms, and brothers-in-law Saul Helms, Mike Stout, Jim Whitehall and Galyn Peterson.

BRIEFLY

Me and My Prince Ball seeks support

HERMISTON — Organizers are busy planning the 12th annual Me and My Prince Ball, which is Saturday, May 21 at the Hermiston Conference Center.

The formal/semi-formal event is coordinated by Girl Scouts of Oregon and Southwest Washington Service Unit 22. It provides an opportunity to build special memories for fathers and daughters. The price of admission remains at $15 per person, the same as it was the very first year.

Monetary donations will be used to cover such expenses as site rental, refreshments, photography and decorations. Each couple receives a corsage, boutonniere and portrait. Admission also includes refreshments and the use of a photo booth to create additional photo mementos.

Businesses and individuals who donate $50 or more by March 14 will be mentioned in all promotional materials. Contributions of less than $50 are also welcome, with donors included on the sponsor board at the event. Four levels of sponsorship are available with some that include complementary admission to the dance.

In-kind donations are also being accepted. Guests will have the opportunity to win door prizes a few times throughout the evening. In addition, each girl will receive a goody bag.

All donations are tax-deductible. Checks should be made out "Girl Scouts" and mailed to: Michelle Kane, Me and My Prince Ball, 520 W. Hemlock Ave., Hermiston OR 97838.

For more information, call Kane at 541-564-5985.

Wrestling foundation sets fundraiser

PENDLETON — A dinner of barbecued pork and veggies, an auction and a time to renew friendships are featured during the

A couple of girls share a dance together during a past Me and My Prince Ball. In its 12th year, organizers are seeking donations for the dance, which is May 21 at the Hermiston Conference Center.

Rollin Schimmel Memorial Wrestling Foundation Fundraiser.

The 21-and-older event is Friday from 6-11 p.m. at the Hodgen Distributing banquet facility, 4235 Westgate, Pendleton. Although there's no charge for the event, money is raised from the silent auction and tax-deductible donations. Among the auction items are a Howa 1500 rifle, a Yeti Cooler and a Treager grill.

Money raised will go toward scholarships to support qualified graduating seniors from the Pendleton High School wrestling program. In addition, organizers assist younger wrestlers in participating in wrestling camps.
