MILTON-FREEWATER Detectives catch murder suspect

Walla Walla police indict gang member

By PHIL WRIGHT East Oregonian

Walla Walla police arrested a man for the July 2015 murder of Guadalupe Jose Diaz in Milton-Freewater.

Umatilla County District Attorney Dan Primus said that on Tuesday a grand jury indicted George Rodriguez Cantu, 23, of Walla Walla, for murder, unlawful use of a weapon and unlawful possession of a firearm. A judge then issued a warrant for Cantu's arrest.

Cantu is a gang member who goes by the name "Flaco," according to a written statement from Walla Walla police spokesman Tim Bennett.

Detectives with the Walla Walla police gang unit and the department's career criminal apprehension team waited to nab Cantu until he drove from his work Tuesday at 5:25 p.m., Bennett reported. Police stopped Cantu in his vehicle in the area of Alder and Clinton streets and took him into custody without incident. A Milton-Freewater police detective later questioned Cantu.

Milton-Freewater police Chief Doug Boedigheimer in a written statement said the arrest was "the culmination of a complex investigation" involving detectives from Umatilla/Morrow County the major crime team and Walla Walla police and the assistance of the Umatilla County District Attorney's Office.

Walla Walla police detectives Tuesday night also arrested gang member Johnny "Knuckles" Alexander Jimenez, 20, at his residence on West Maple Street, Walla Walla, on a Umatilla County warrant for felon in possession of a firearm. Then detectives went to Umatilla County to assist Milton-Freewater police with the arrest of Aurelio Rodriguez-Villalobos, no age available, on a warrant for felon in possession of a firearm.

Bennett reported all three defendants are members or affiliates of the same gang.

Diaz, of Milton-Freewater, was shot multiple times July 31, 2015 in a drive-by shooting at a residence in Milton-Freewater. He was flown to Oregon Health & Science University in Portland where he was pronounced dead the next day.

Cantu is in the Walla Walla County Jail on $1 million bond. Jimenez is there on a $20,000 bond. Police booked Rodriguez-Villalobos into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, but within an hour he posted bail on his $20,000 bond and is now out.

City raises sewer, water rates

BOARDMAN

By GEORGE PLAVEN East Oregonian

Boardman City Council voted Tuesday to raise sewer and water rates for the first time since 2008.

Base rates will increase by $1.50 for water and $2.50 for sewer on July 1. Both resolutions passed 5-1, with councilors David Jones voting no and Brenda Profitt absent.

Community Development Director Barry Beyeler said the rate hikes are meant to keep up with increasing operational and capital costs for the two systems. The city also plans to break ground on projects identified in its water master plan, which was completed late last year.

City Manager Karen Pettigrew that work will include line replacements and extensions.

"You can't not do the things that are good business," Pettigrew said.

Residential water rates will start at $16.50 a month for homes within city limits, with a base of 7,000 gallons. The city charges 44 cents for every thousand gallons over the base. The base charge for homes outside city limits is $24 with an overage fee of 63 cents per thousand gallons.

Sewer fees will also increase to $27.50 per unit within city limits, and $40 per unit outside the city.

After the meeting, Jones said he realizes the city is moving forward on a major infrastructure overhaul, but was in favor of holding off at least one more year before raising rates

"I just didn't think it was necessary, with everything we're getting from the port, to do it this year, Jones said.

In other business, the council also passed a resolution authorizing new stop signs to be put up at the westbound lane of Southwest Pheasant Court; the westbound lane of Southwest Falcon Court; the westbound lane of Southwest Sage Street; and the eastbound lane of Northeast Davaly Lane.
