ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

*Pendleton police arrested Christine G. Richardson, 26, of Walla Walla, on a warrant and for possession of methamphetamine.
 *Umatilla Tribal Police Department arrested Jason Arthur Butler, 42, of Pendleton, for two counts each of harassment, disorderly conduct, assault, menacing and recklessly endangering another, all misdemeanors.
 *Hermiston police arrested Noe Calderon Sanchez, 22, of Hermiston, for second-degree assault and on a warrant for failure to appear.
 *Oregon State Police cited a 16-year-old Pendleton girl for possession of less than an ounce of marijuana while under the age of 21.
Saturday
 *Pendleton police arrested Richard L. Bohna, 26, of 62441 McElligot Road, Lone, for DUI.
 *Oregon State Police arrested Travis Andrew Clack, 22, of Umatilla, for DUI.
 *Oregon State Police at 7:57 p.m. received a report of a denial of a gun buy at Hodgen Handguns, 71620 Valley View Drive, Pendleton. A trooper responded and cited Drew William Tachella, 40, of Pendleton, for false swearing and unlawful purchase of a firearm.
 *An Oregon State Police trooper caught two racers for going more than 100 mph.
 Trooper Marcus Burt was observing traffic on Interstate 84 at milepost 200 a few miles east of Pendleton when two vehicles at 8:24 p.m. zoomed by. The first, a two-door Volkswagen, was going 100 mph, according to state police, and the second, a Dodge pickup, was at 117.
 The trooper chased, and the driver in the Volkswagen hit the brakes in front of the pickup, nearly causing a crash. The trooper stopped the car and waved for the pickup to stop, but it did not. The trooper, though, later caught up with that driver.
 Abdulaziz Alqasimi, 25 of Boise, drove the Volkswagen, and Jordan Travis Beckley, 22, of Hermiston, drove the Dodge. The trooper cited both for driving faster than 100 mph, and gave an additional ticket to Alqasimi for reckless driving.

Sunday

*Hermiston police arrested Jaime Moras Nava, 26, of Paterson, Washington, for driving under the influence of intoxicants, reckless driving and on a warrant for failure to appear.

 *Milton-Freewater police arrested Don Douglas Lovell, 50, of 703 Washington St., Milton-Freewater, for DUI.

Robert Milton 'Bob' Brown

Hermiston
May 31, 1928-February 25, 2016

Robert "Bob" Milton Brown, age 87, passed away Thursday, February 25, 2016, after three days of hospitalization at Good Shepherd Medical Center followed by a short stay in Sun Terrace Assisted Living with Hospice Care.

Brown

Bob was born May 31, 1928, in Klamath Falls, Oregon, to Raymond C. Brown and Goldie P. (Sparks) Brown. The family soon moved to La Grande and later to a farm in Irrigon.

When Bob was in lower grade school, his father nearly lost an arm when dragged through a barbed wire fence by a runaway horse. Bob's parents later divorced, and he and his sister Jean lived with their mother, stepfather Floyd Provancha and stepsisters, first in the Eugene area and then various places and states picking crops. This resulted in attending many different schools each year. In 1941, from Twin Falls, Idaho, the family moved back to the farm in Irrigon, which was owned by Bob's Grandfather Sparks.

It was in Irrigon that he met future wife Ellen Fraser, who moved there from Idaho in 1942, since her father had started work the year before at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

Bob graduated in 1947 from Irrigon High School and started classes that fall at Eastern Oregon College in La Grande, where he earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education and later a master's degree. During the years at Eastern Oregon College, he served in the National Guard.

Bob managed Hermiston's Head Start summer program during some years between 1951-1983 when he was an elementary teacher in Hermiston School District #8. Various grade levels were taught at West Park, Rocky Heights, and Highland Hills. While at West Park School, he was a Boy Scout leader from

Until Bob's rapid decline in health, which included a painful inoperable spine and shoulders, he was able to be an active member for First Christian Church.

Bob's hobbies/special interests included: fishing with friends and family; flying; camping; hiking and backpacking, especially in the Wallowa Mountains and Mount Rainier; climbing Mt. Hood in 1974 with wife Ellen and son Daryl; operating a small sailboat in the 1980s; learning Morse Code and becoming a ham operator; bow-hunting with friends; Boy Scout leader (high school age); doing woodworking, building and installing cabinets and workbenches in the garage and shop; doing photography; and being an avid reader.

Bob survived by wife Ellen; daughter Vickie Hartley; son Daryl Brown; six grandchildren: Jeff (Astri) Brown, Matt (Leslie) Brown, Scott Brown, Eric Brown, Angela Hartley and Jason Hartley; daughters-in-law Peggy Brown and Sue Brown; sister Jean Pinney; stepsister Patty Smith; and several cousins.

Preceding Bob in death were his parents, stepfather Floyd Provancha, stepsisters Mary Joyce, Donna and Barbara; and his son Gary.

A Celebration on Life service will be held March 12, 2016, at the First Christian Church in Hermiston, Oregon, at 11:00 a.m. A private family burial was held at the Hermiston Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please consider cards or a donation for researching a cure for Alzheimer's disease, which claimed son Gary in April 2015.

John Clifford Lovell

Pendleton
June 28, 1950-February 19, 2016

John Clifford Lovell was born June 28, 1950, in Roseburg, Oregon, to parents Donald Clifford and Mary Hermine (Laughlin) Lovell. He died at his home in Pendleton, Oregon, on Friday, February 19, 2016, at the age of 65.

Lovell

John lived briefly in Eugene and Echo, Oregon, before his family moved to Pendleton. He graduated from Pendleton High School in 1968, and graduated from Eastern Oregon State College in La Grande in 1973.

John worked for the US Forest Service in the late 1970s as a civil engineering technician. In the early 1980s John worked at the Eastern Oregon Hospital & Training Center as a psychiatric aide. John also worked for the Blue Mountain Economic Development Council as an energy program coordinator for a five-county area in Eastern Oregon. In the early 1990s he returned to the U.S. Forest Service as a forestry technician. John worked briefly in the late 1990s with the Foster Grandparents and Senior Companions programs. He also worked in property maintenance until retiring in 2012.

On November 24, 1984, he married Roxi Newland in Friday Harbor, Washington.

John was passionate about soccer. He played soccer at Eastern Oregon State College and then later on many city club teams. He enjoyed watching the junior high and high school soccer teams, and was glad to see soccer gaining popularity in the United States. He also enjoyed the outdoors, hunting, fishing, backpacking, mushroom picking, and camping.

John is survived by his wife Roxi of Pendleton, Oregon, and his sister Donna Lovell of Mountlake Terrace, Washington. He was preceded in death by his parents and an older brother, Paul Scott Lovell.

No services are planned at this time.

Grace R. Sallee

Milton-Freewater
February 9, 1925-March 6, 2016

Grace R. Sallee, Milton-Freewater, Oregon, passed away March 6, 2016, at her home surrounded by her family at the age of 91 years. Graveside services will be Thursday, March 10, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at the Milton-Freewater Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice through the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home.

Grace was born on the family cattle ranch February 9, 1925, in Yocum, Oregon, the daughter of John R. and Laura Johnson Bond. She was the third of three daughters. Grace's family moved to Cove, Oregon, where she graduated from Cove High School in 1943.

She joined her sister in Portland, Oregon, where she worked for the Oregonian newspaper. She married the love of her life, Henry L. Sallee, on October 17, 1946. The couple raised their four boys on the ranch on Cricket Flat in Elgin, Oregon. After selling the ranch, the family moved to Milton-Freewater and purchased the Chevrolet dealership. Grace and her family operated Sallee Chevrolet from 1973 until retiring in 2006. Mr. Sallee preceded her in death on November 15, 1989.

Grace loved the outdoors all of her life, riding horses, gardening, overcoming all the challenges of ranching and raising four boys. She then readily adapted to the automobile business, successfully handling all accounting and business activities of Sallee Chevrolet. She enjoyed her retirement, reading books and watching golf on television. She especially enjoyed family events and spending time with her grandkids and great-grandkids.

Grace is survived by four sons and their spouses: Joe and Diane Sallee of Addy, Wash.; Robert and Sherry Sallee of Milton-Freewater, Ore.; Foster and Marie Sallee of Walla Walla, Wash.; and Tom and Peggy Sallee of Colbert, Wash.; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; a great niece, and two great-great-nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters.
