Irene Jeanette Young

Hermiston
March 25, 1925-March 25, 2016

Irene Jeanette Young passed away at Brookdale Assisted Living in Hermiston on March 25, 2016. She was born on March 25, 1925, in Seattle, Washington. We like to think she gave herself a birthday present by allowing herself to join her dear husband Willis McClellan Young, who passed away in 2004. They not only were eternal sweethearts but best friends.

Irene had many jobs through the years but her career job was as the manger of lamps and china at Sears and Roebucks. She left that job in southern California to move to Lava Hot Springs, Idaho, where she and Willis owned and operated a KOA Camp-ground. Irene was very industrious and was not afraid of working hard. Not only did she work full-time the majority of her life but also raised two daughters and was an excellent gardener. After moving to Hermiston she and Willis created a mini farm in which they gardened and raised goats and chickens. In their later years they moved to a smaller place but she continued gardening, even being seen out working in her garden with a cane. Her yards were always a masterpiece. Irene was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints where she served in many capacities. Her favorite was working in the Relief Society. She and Willis were sealed in the Idaho Falls Temple for time and all eternity.

Irene loved animals, especially dogs and goats. She was a farm girl at heart and dearly loved her time at Patch Work Acres, the name they gave their mini farm. In her later years she loved to listen to friends and acquaintances tell their stories about farm life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Willis Young; daughter Sharlene Young; father Arnold Herbst; mother Marie Herbst; brother Arthur Herbst III; and grandson Ted Callaway. Irene leaves behind two daughters, Darlene Gill of Crockett, Texas (Teddy), and Ilene Callaway of Kennewick, Wash.; seven grandchildren: Tim Callaway (Rose), Brian Barca (Barbara), Tammy Plunkett (Roy), Candice Barber (Keith), Tom Callaway (Sarah), and Trisha Judd. She also leaves 25 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind her sister Patricia Eckely of Burns, Ore., and many nieces and nephews.

Irene's funeral will be held on Wednesday, March 30, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 850 S.W. 11th St., Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon. Please sign the online guest book at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Annie sold real estate for a number of years while living in Prineville and Pendleton. During her years of real estate, she was honored with numerous awards and well as serving as the president of the Realtors Land Institute, which allowed her to do extensive traveling throughout the United States. For a few years, Ann ran the Silver Saddle in Pendleton. After running the restaurant, she moved to Heppner to be near her son and his family.

Ann loved spending time with her family and watching her kids', then grandkids' involvement in sports, 4-H, FFA and any other activity. She was an avid seamstress and enjoyed golfing in her later years.
