Heppner
March 15, 1944-March 14, 2016

Roberta DeAnn "Annie" Elgin, 71, of Heppner died Monday, March 14, 2016, at Richland, Washington. A memorial funeral mass will be held 11 a.m. Saturday, April 2, 2016, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner. A luncheon will immediately follow at St. Patrick's Parish Hall.

She was born March 15, 1944, at Redmond, Oregon, the daughter of Robert and Dickse Keyes Williams. Annie was raised in Twickenham, Oregon; her early school years were attended at Twickenham School, taught by her mother Dickse, the only teacher in the one-room school house. She then transitioned into the neighboring town of Mitchell through her high school years, where she graduated in 1962.

Ann married Jacy Lee Gibbs in 1964 in Twickenham. They later divorced. Ann then married Patrick N. Elgin on May 20, 1979, in Prineville, Oregon. In 1980, Pat and Ann moved their family to Pat's family farm, dubbed "Last Chance Ranch," where the family farmed until health forced the sale.

Annie sold real estate for a number of years while living in Prineville and Pendleton. During her years of real estate, she was honored with numerous awards and well as serving as the president of the Realtors Land Institute, which allowed her to do extensive traveling throughout the United States. For a few years, Ann ran the Silver Saddle in Pendleton. After running the restaurant, she moved to Heppner to be near her son and his family.

Ann loved spending time with her family and watching her kids', then grandkids' involvement in sports, 4-H, FFA and any other activity. She was an avid seamstress and enjoyed golfing in her later years.

Ann was a member of the Pendleton and Heppner Elks Lodge, Pendleton Eagles Lodge, and St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner.

Survivors include her daughter Carrie (Joe-deceased) Bennett of Pendleton; sons Jay Gibbs (Sue) of Heppner and Kenny (Chris) Gibbs of Hermiston; sister Mary M. Mary 'Arminta' Rhodes

Milton-Freewater
April 15, 1932-March 27, 2016

Arminta Rhodes, 83, of Milton-Freewater died March 27, 2016, at Brookdale Assisted Living in College Place, Washington, after a brief battle with cancer. Funeral services will be held April 2 at 2:00 p.m. in the chapel of the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main St., Milton-Freewater, Oregon. Concluding services and vault interment to follow in the Milton-Freewater Cemetery. Services will be conducted by Pastors Steve Lyons and Duane Geyer. Visitation hours will be held on Friday from 1-5 p.m. and then from 7-9 p.m. Family suggests that contributions please be made to Walla Walla Community Hospice through the funeral home.

Mary "Arminta" Rhodes, the middle of three children, was the daughter of Watson Lamar and Susie Arminta Draughon Hall. Arminta was born April 15, 1932, in Mulberry, Florida. She later graduated from Murphy High School in Mobile, Alabama. The family moved to Walla Walla, Washington, in 1949. Arminta worked at Whitman Mission, Drumhellers and later for the Corps of Engineers.

While skiing on the slopes of Spout Springs she met her future husband, Donald "Don" Rhodes. They were married on September 7, 1952, in Walla Walla. She was active in her church, Pioneer Methodist, and was a Sunday school teacher. Don was a member of the Walla Walla Jaycees and Arminta was involved in the Jaycees Jaynes. They attended the National Jaycee Convention in Colorado in 1956.

Don and Arminta moved to Milton-Freewater in 1963 when they purchased the Munselle Company Funeral Home from John and Thelma Maxwell. Together they owned and operated their funeral home and made major renovations to the building over the years. They also operated rental businesses in Walla Walla. In 1983, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes along with Alan Ray purchased the Colonial-DeWitt Funeral Home, the funeral home that Don began working for in 1947.

After retiring in 1985 they enjoyed spending their winters in Mexico, traveling to other locations and spending time at their cabin in the Blue Mountains.

Arminta was a Bluebird and Campfire leader for several years and a dedicated member of PEO, serving twice as its president. Arminta attended the First Christian Church and Bible study groups. Sewing, quilting and gardening and spending time with her family was a highlight.

The Rhodes family would like to give a special "Thank You" to the wonderful caregivers of Brookdale for the loving care you have showed to our wife, mother and grandmother, and also to Walla Walla Community Hospice.

She is survived by her husband Don; son and daughter-in-law Greg and Nina Rhodes; daughters and sons-in-law Jan and Jim Nored and Kay and Michael Murphy; sister and brother-in-law Bettye and Murray Fisher; grandchildren Amy and Scott Ford, Sam Rhodes and Tarkia Banks, Sadie and Kasey Rhodes-Towne, Levi and Kayla Nored, Garret Nored, Griffin Murphy and Arminta Murphy; three great-grandchildren, Ellie and Ava Ford and Hank Towne; and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother Lamar Hall and a great-grandson.

Timothy James Teraberry

Hermiston
May 5, 1958-March 25, 2016

On Friday, March 25, 2016, Timothy James Teraberry passed away in his home surrounded by his family. He was 57 years old.

Tim was born on May 5, 1958, in Walnut Creek, California, to Donald "Jack" Teraberry and Ravelta "Jo" Teraberry, being the eldest of two sons. In 1962 Jack and Jo moved their family to Idaho. Tim graduated from Vallivue High School in 1977 where he had played football, basketball and ran track.

He married Annette Sauvageau on November 26, 1982, in Caldwell, Idaho. They welcomed their first child, Stacia, in 1985 and their second, Nick, in 1988. They moved to Hermiston in 1988. Tim became a Beaver while attending Oregon State University. He graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in environmental science.

Tim was employed with Chemical Waste Management as a chemist for approximately 18 years. He was a member of the Oasis Vineyard church.

Tim was an outdoorsman, fishermen, hunter, a cyclist, a kayaker, trap shooter and music enthusiast. As a kid, Tim grew up with a great love for the outdoors, hunting and fishing with his dad and brother. Tim spent great quality time with both of his kids while boating, camping and attending all their many sports events as he volunteered at youth group and campus life during his kids' teen years.

Over the years, Tim acquired many new interests and hobbies, always keeping

Annette on the go and laughing! Tim also enjoyed spending special times with his grandkids while making great memories. Tim's gentle spirit, quick wit and kind smile attracted people (and animals) to him, especially kids and teens. He touched so many lives and was a wonderful neighbor, co-worker, friend, son, papa, uncle, father and husband.

Tim is survived by his mother Jo Teraberry; wife Annette Teraberry; daughter Stacia; son Nick; brother Steve (Rebecca); grandchildren Makaiyla, Kamri, Kaden and Jaxon; and numerous cousins, uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews. Tim was preceded in death by his father Jack Teraberry in November 2015. There are so many other special people in Tim's life and the list is too extensive to comprehend.

Thank you to all the family, friends and the community for the love and support during this difficult journey.

Tim loved the youth of Hermiston so in lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to YFC Blue Mountain / Hermiston Campus Life, 595 S. First St., Hermiston, OR 97838.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, April 2, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at New Hope Community Church, 1350 S. Hwy 395, Hermiston, Oregon.
