

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

3:19 a.m. - An intoxicated man entered the wrong house and left it at gun point. A woman reported the 20-something man came into her home on Northeast Obrien Place off Riverside Avenue, Pendleton, and a roommate told him several times to leave. He stayed, though, until the caller's husband came out armed with a gun and confronted the man. He left while carrying a case of beer.

The wife also said they would press charges if law enforcement found the suspect.

9:23 a.m. - Owners moved out of a house on Ringer Road, Milton-Freewater near Cows Creek and left behind chickens, a colt and three or four pigs. A neighbor asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to check on the welfare of the animals. The case is under investigation.

11:02 a.m. - Two deer, one with an injured back right leg, walked in the area of Southeast Issac Avenue and 10th Street, Pendleton.

11:45 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of big time check fraud. A farm controller in Hermiston reported someone obtained farm checks, signed them and tried to pay people with them. So far, about 20 checks came into the bank for about $40,000 total, and more checks seem to be coming.

12:36 a.m. - A resident on Southwest Lake Drive, Pendleton, reported the neighbor's dogs bark all night and live in cages all the time. The caller asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to check on the dogs.

2:38 p.m. - A man living on Southeast Goodwin Avenue, Pendleton, told police the neighbors behind him constantly drive by his house and make dirty looks at him. He said he feels like they are trying to intimidate him.

2:54 p.m. - Fiesta Foods in Hermiston reported fraudulent checks amounting to $7,000-8,000.

3:22 p.m. - A Hermiston woman reported her sister ran her over with her car. The woman was bleeding from her head, shoulder, and knee and requested an officer meet her at the hospital.

4:06 p.m. - A Morrow County sheriff's deputy received multiple complaints about people speeding on Southeast Division Road, Irrigon, south of the canal. He checked and found the 35-mph-speed signs were gone. The county public works department planned to look into the problem.

4:40 p.m. - Someone broke into a unit at Keylock Storage, 1220 Airport Road, Pendleton, and stole several tools.

4:47 p.m. - A woman on Southwest Hailey Avenue, Pendleton, called 9-1-1 after she came upon a 12-year-old boy who said a truck ran over his foot. She said she did not witness the incident but saw a vehicle speeding down the ramp toward 45th Street. Police did not find the suspect, and an ambulance took the boy to the hospital.

6:44 p.m. - Three people suffered minor injuries after a shell exploded in a shotgun at the Hermiston Rod & Gun Club, 75772 Gun Club Road, Hermiston. A caller reported the accident and Boardman sent an ambulance. The three victims, though, used private vehicles to go to the hospital.

7:04 p.m. - A resident of West Highland Avenue in Hermiston reported while she was gone, someone had entered her back yard and both moved and tipped over her wheelbarrow.

7:29 p.m. - Another Pendleton caller reported seeing a deer with an injured leg, this time at Southeast 10th Street and Goodwin Avenue. The caller said the injured deer was with two other deer.

7:37 p.m. - A mother told Umatilla police a male in a blue Honda Civic at Eighth and F streets threatened to shoot her son.

8:58 p.m. - A white male with long, curly brown hair wearing a green beanie and a blue flannel shirt grabbed the tip jar at Big John's Hometown Pizza, 225 S.W. Ninth St., Pendleton, and ran toward Southwest Court Avenue.

10:55 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of possible child sex abuse.

11:42 p.m. - A Stanfield woman on North Lucy Street called 9-1-1 because a vicious pit bull was in the yard and charged every time she tried to leave.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Violet Irene Hall

Hermiston
March 19, 1926-March 28, 2016

Violet Irene Hall died peacefully in her home on March 28, 2016, surrounded by her family. Her big heart finally gave out after 90 years. She was someone who was a friend to everybody. There were no strangers in her life, only friends she hadn't met yet.

Violet "Vi" Hall was born in Onalaska, Washington, March 19, 1926, to Rogel and Myrtle Music. She grew up with her parents and brothers in the Tacoma, Washington, area. After her father's tragic death, at age 12 Violet became her mother's biggest helper. During the Depression, Violet learned to be frugal and became one of the world's best at reusing and recycling, a passion she maintained throughout her life.

She met her future husband, Edward Hall, while living in Haines, Oregon, in 1944. They were married February 9, 1945. Vi, Ed and the four older kids lived in Haines until 1961 before moving to Hermiston, where Dale and Kathy were born. In the house on Baxter Road they raised their six children, instilling in them their values of love, compassion, integrity, honesty, and hard work. Their home was the neighborhood gathering place for kids who often enjoyed a sweet treat hot out of the oven. It was a warm and welcoming home full of books, games and puzzles for all of the kids to enjoy and learn from.

Violet believed in the value of education. She was a lifelong learner and passed this value on to all of her children. She was very proud of her 20-plus years as an OSU mom, serving as the local chapter's organizer and historian. Violet wasn't just a supporter, she was a cheerleader of her children's dreams, their education and all their various endeavors.

Violet was a volunteer extraordinaire. She was a leader of 4-H, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls. Countless hours were logged at school functions helping out wherever needed. She helped at blood drives for over 50 years and she believed in donating blood and was proud of her 8 gallon certificate. Later in life, never missing an opportunity to help others, she volunteered at the Hermiston Senior Center. Always proud of her family's pioneering roots, Violet worked many hours on the family's genealogy, recording her family's history for future generations.

In the early 1970s, Violet was active with the original land use planning efforts in Umatilla and was a lifetime member of the VFW Auxiliary. Learning about the area's geology captivated her interest enough for her to enroll in classes at BMCC and to join the Hat Rock Rock Hounds exploring the area, the region and the state's geology. Additionally she was able to use her experience as a newspaper reporter and her love and talent as a writer to good use writing the Rock Hounds newsletter.

Violet held various jobs over her life. At the age of 18 she became a painter's helper in the shipyards during WWII, helping with the war efforts. She worked at the Umatilla Army Depot in 1943 and again in the 1970s. Violet was a reporter for the Record Courier in Baker, Oregon, when she lived in Haines during the 1950s and again in recent years, recounting and reporting on her many memories of life in Haines. She worked at Walchli Farms on the potato line, as a custodian at Armand Larive Junior High School and McCabe's Café. She was also a lifeguard and water safety instructor. The job she loved the most was being a homemaker, as she lived her life for her family.

Violet was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Edward I. Hall, and her brothers Ronald and Ervin Music. She is survived by her six children, Martie (Myrtle) Lamont (Sam) of Fairbanks, Alaska, Edward Hall (Pat) of Littleton, Colorado, Timothy Hall of Seattle, Washington, Bruce Hall (Suzie Stacy) of Vancouver, Washington, Dale Hall (Valerie) of Lebanon, Oregon, and Kathleen Dopps (Ken) of Hermiston, Oregon; sister-in-Law Lois Music of Baker City, Oregon; 10 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and her large extended chosen family.

There will be a memorial service for Violet on Sunday, April 3rd at 2 p.m. at the Burns Mortuary chapel, 685 W. Hermiston Avenue, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

In lieu of flowers, Violet would prefer you make a donation to the Hermiston Senior Center at P.O. Box 854, Hermiston, OR 97838, donate some blood, or become a volunteer in your community.

OBITUARIES

Bellingham, Wash.
July 12, 1956-March 18, 2016

Mike Hinkle, 59, passed away peacefully following a seven-month fight to recover from a severe brain aneurysm. Born Wayne Francis Hinkle Jr. on July 12, 1956, in Walla Walla, Wash., Mike's grandmother affectionately coined his nickname when he was a young boy, and it suited him for a lifetime.

Mike grew up in Eastern Oregon, the youngest of five siblings. He attended elementary school in Athena, Ore., and graduated from Mac Hi in Milton-Freewater where he was known for his natural athleticism, faith in God and sincere kindness to all those he knew — traits that would define the legacy he now leaves behind.

Mike went on to attend Southern Oregon State College on a full-ride pitching scholarship. Off the field, he loved to discover new challenges. For Mike, it wasn't enough to simply learn to skateboard — instead he learned to perfect a handstand on his skateboard as he pointed it downhill. During college, he also became involved in the earliest days of hacky sack, and he and his friends often performed demonstrations that drew impressive crowds as he pulled off original signature moves.

After college, Mike pursued a successful 30+ year career in real estate. He lived in Wasilla, Alaska, for several years before returning to the Northwest where he worked in commercial real estate for Wallace and Wheeler. He later joined Windermere Real Estate in Bellevue, Wash., and led seven regional offices as general manager. He went on to join his two best friends in business, serving as the vice president for market development for California-based Wood Associates.

In 1993, he was introduced to Jane Dieveney by her sister Joan and moved to Bellingham, Wash., where Mike and Jane married in April 1995. The two celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary last year. In Bellingham, Mike earned his CCIM, commercial real estate's highest credentials, and worked for both RE/Max and Windermere, where he enjoyed developing personal and professional relationships with many dear colleagues.

But Mike would undoubtedly count fatherhood as his proudest accomplishment. He was a doting father and could regularly be found on the sidelines of countless soccer fields and gymnastic meets, enthusiastically supporting his children who were his true pride and joy.

He was a passionate outdoorsman, and excelled at mountain climbing, skiing, scuba diving, and practically every sport he attempted. He loved to fish and spent many weekends with friends and family boating in the San Juan Islands and on the shores of Lummi Island. Though Mike has left us too soon, he was profoundly faithful to God's plan and was unwavering in his beliefs.

He was preceded in death by his father, Wayne Hinkle Sr., and survived by his mother, LaVelle Scribner (Wally); brothers Larry Hinkle (Kim), Doug Hinkle (Dona), Don Hinkle (Ann); sister Judie Vance (Gene); wife Jane Dieveney-Hinkle; children Rylan and Lauren Hinkle and Kristi Herriott (Todd); and many nieces, nephews and extended relatives.

A celebration of Mike's life will be held on Thursday, March 31 at 3:30 p.m. at Birchwood Presbyterian Church, located at 400 Meadowbrook Court in Bellingham.

In lieu of flowers, Mike's family invites you to contribute to a fund established in his name that will enable underprivileged youth to attend summer camps put on by the Whatcom YMCA. To donate, visit www.whatcomymca.org/donate and designate your contribution in memory of Mike Hinkle.
