Buckaroos shine at Carnival of Speed

Pendleton boys and girls earn top team finishes

East Oregonian

Twenty-five schools from across parts of Oregon and Washington descended on Shockman Field on Friday afternoon for the annual Mac-Hi Carnival of Speed.

The Pendleton Buckaroos were one of those teams, and both boys and girls teams turned in successful days finishing in first place on both sides. The Buckaroos boys finished the day with 121.5 points, while the girls team finished with 143 points.

Overall, Pendleton turned in individual first place finishes in 12 events and one relay, with six coming on the boys side and seven on the girls'.

For the boys, Andrew Porter took first place in the 400 meter run (51.49), Nolan Bylenga took first in the 800 meter run (1:56.98), Garison Alger took first in the 110 meter hurdles (16.34), Michael Swanson took first in the shot put (42-02.75) and Dylan Clemons took first

Bulldogs rack up 17 hits in Game 2

East Oregonian

TROUTDALE — After dropping game one of a Friday doubleheader with the Reynolds Raiders 11-1, the Hermiston Bulldogs bounced back in a big way in Game 2 to take a 19-2 victory.

In game two, Hermiston (6-3) held an 8-2 lead at the start of the seventh and final inning, but the offense churned out 11 runs in the inning to place a big seal on the victory.

Fifteen batters came to the plate during that inning as the team racked up nine hits one walk and one hit-by-pitch in the inning alone.

Hermiston was led on offense by Mikayla Kopacz, Jamie Hinkley and Sydney Stefani as each player went 3-5 at the plate. Kopacz added two RBI, four runs scored, and a solo home run while Stefani added three runs and three RBIs. Hinkley also scored one run and had two RBIs.

On the mound, Breanna Naylor got the start for the Bulldogs but pitched just one inning and allowed just two walks. Julissa Almaguer came on in relief in the second inning and pitched five strong innings allowing eight hits and two runs over that span.

As active as Hermiston's bats were in game two, they struggled mightily against the Raiders' pitching in game one. Hermiston mustered just one hit in the game, which came off the bat of Hinkley in the third inning.

Almaguer got the start on the mound in the first game, and allowed nine runs on 10 this and two walks with one strikeout over her four innings on the mound. Taylor Betz pitched just 0.1 innings in relief, allowing four hits and two runs before the game was called due to the 10-run rule.

Warriors' home winning streak ends at 54

By JANIE MCCAULEY Associated Press

OAKLAND, Calif. — Stephen Curry missed a long 3-pointer to tie it with 5.3 seconds left and the Golden State Warriors suffered their first home defeat in more than 14 months, losing 109-106 to the Boston Celtics on Friday night to snap an NBA-record 54-game winning streak in the regular season at Oracle Arena.

That included 36 straight home wins to start this season. Golden State hadn't lost at home since a 113-111 overtime defeat to the Bulls on Jan. 27, 2015.

Now, the Warriors (68-8) must win five of their final six games to break the 1995-96 Bulls' record of 72 wins.

Isaiah Thomas made a driving layup with 8.3 seconds left on the way to 22 points for Boston. He scored 18 of his points in the third quarter when Curry got hot from 3-point land.

Shaun Livingston hit two free throws with 46.9 seconds left to get Golden State within two at 105-103, then Draymond Green wrestled the ball away from Amir Johnson moments later for his sixth steal and Golden State called timeout. But Green lost the ball with 23.9 seconds left.

Evan Turner made a pair of free throws with 18.1 seconds to go before Harrison Barnes' baseline 3 on a dish from Curry.

But Curry's final look from long range fell short on a night he had been spectacular from beyond the arc. Barnes grabbed the offensive rebound and missed on a desperation heave with 0.2 seconds left.

Curry went coast to coast and behind his back for a layup to make it 103-101 with 1:29 to go. Boston answered once more, this time on Turner's jumper.

Curry shimmied and swiveled his hips, celebrating as 3-pointers kept finding the net — he made eight of them
