Baseball

WALLA WALLA 12, PENDLETON 3 — At Pendleton, the Buckaroos started hot with three runs in the first inning, but couldn't keep it up as Walla Walla pulled away for a non-league win on Monday.

"They're a good team and they spanked the ball around," said Pendleton coach T.J. Haguewood. "In order to beat good teams you've got to play well and we didn't play well."

Haguewood said he was pleased with the way his pitchers threw, but couldn't find a lot of positives in a six-error performance by the defense that saw the Bucks (8-3) misplay several fly balls in windy conditions.

James Bradt took the loss after pitching the first 4 1-3 innings and giving up eight runs (six earned) on nine hits, two strikeouts and no walks. He led the Bucks at the plate going 2 for 3 with one RBI.

Walla Walla's Mitch Lesmeister struck out six, walked none and gave up three runs (none earned) on PILOT ROCK 15, HEPPNER 14 — At Pilot Rock, the former league foes combined for 29 runs on 23 hits and eight errors in a non-league game on Monday.

Chris Weinke (3 for 5) drove in four runs and Levi Thieme (3 for 4) added three RBI for the Rockets (8-1), who got 3 2-3 innings of shutdown relief from Bryson Pierce to pull out the win.

Pierce allowed one run on four hits and struck out six after entering with the Rockets trailing 13-4 in the fourth inning.

Weinke's double with two outs in the sixth inning scored Jake Brickey and Devin Barkley for the tying and winning runs for the Rockets. Weinke and Brickey each scored three times.

Weston Putman took the loss on the mound, but led the Mustangs (0-4) at the plate going 3 for 5 with four RBI and two runs. C.J. Kindle (3 for 3) scored four times and drove in a run.

PENDLETON 5-12, WALLA WALLA 9-6 — At Pendleton, the Buckaroos stranded 13 runners on base to fall 9-5 in the first half of their non-league double-header on Monday, but bounced back for a 12-6 win in five innings when Game 2 was called for darkness.

Payton Hergert had a huge day at the plate for Pendleton (9-2), and after going 3 for 4 with one RBI in the first game, she hit a grand slam in the first inning of the night cap and went 4 for 4 with six RBI in the game. Alexis Morrison also hit a three-run home run in the second game as Pendleton scored runs in bunches.

"We came out prepared and ready to swing the bats and really got the hits with two outs to make a difference," said Pendleton coach Tim Cary. "I'm pleased with the way we bounced back in Game 2 against a pretty solid team."

Lauren Richards, Ellie Richards, Kalan McGlotham and Madison Parker all collected two hits in Pendleton's win.

Lauren Richards threw the complete game in the circle.

Pendleton's next game is Thursday at La Grande at 4 p.m.

PILOT ROCK 4, ECHO 0 — At Pilot Rock, Pilot Rock's Teyha Ostrom threw a no-hitter against the Echo Cougars on Saturday, striking out 11 and walking just two in a non-league game.

Through the first three innings, Ostrom was in a duel with Echo's MacKenzie Gonzales as Gonzales had allowed no runs and only one hit with three walks to that point.

But in the fourth inning, it started to unravel for Echo. After Gonzales retired the first two batters, Ostrom reached on an error and then Gonzales issued two straight walks to Desiree Maddern and Rhyanne Oates to load the bases. Bekah Roe knocked in two runs on an RBI single to center field to break the 0-0 deadlock.

Gonzales finished the game allowing four runs (one earned) and five hits with four strikeouts and six walks.

MAC-HI 9, UMATILLA 3 — At Milton-Freewater, the Pioneers overcame heavy winds and the Umatilla Vikings for a 7-1 win in girls tennis on Monday. The teams split their boys' matches 2-2.

"The wind played a huge part in tonight's match, but the players powered through," said Mac-Hi coach Michelle Snyder.

Mac-Hi's Elise Griffith beat Sidney Webb in a tiebreaker 2-6, 7-5 (10-6) for the girls' No. 1 singles win, and Rigo Ponce beat the Vikings' Junior Coria 7-6 (7-4), 7-5 in a closely-contested boys' No. 1 singles match.

LA GRANDE 5, PENDLETON 1 — At Pendleton, Henry Holdman was the first player on and the last off the court as he picked up Pendleton's only win on Monday by beating La Grande No. 1 Arthur Williams 5-7, 6-1, 6-4 in a match that lasted more than two hours.

Pendleton coach Chris Holdman said La Grande simply adjusted to the weather better in the rest of the matches.

"We were playing in 20-30 mile-per-hour winds," he said. "Their kids seemed to adapt to the conditions better than we did."

Pendleton's next match will open Columbia River Conference action when they host Hood River on Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Beavers' special season ends

By DOUG FEINBERG Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS — Oregon State coach Scott Rueck wouldn't let the Beavers' loss in the women's Final Four dampen the special season that his team had.

His senior-led group helped bring the school's basketball program from one of the worst in the country to one of the best.

"This group sitting next to me and in the locker room right now, you know, the greatest season in the history of our school, in our sport ended tonight," Rueck said after the 80-51 loss to UConn on Sunday night. "And there's one reason that I'm sad, and that it's the last game that this team gets to play together."

"This group is an absolute dream. I wish I could describe to people what it's like to be their coach, where you walk in the gym every day and you just can't wait to see them, has nothing to do with basketball. They're committed to each other. They're a true family."

Oregon State (32-5) was playing in its first national semifinals and the Beavers expect this to be the beginning, not the end.

"It's really exciting, the future," said senior Ruth Hamblin, who had 10 points, 11 rebounds and six blocks. "We've kind of set the bar high for this program and everyone's expectations are going to continue to be high, and we know how to handle that now."

"And I think we've got a lot of young talent coming in. And our recruiting class is good. I'm really excited to see what the team does in the future and how they respond next year."

The Beavers won their first conference tournament title, and accomplished the goal of the senior class — getting to a Final Four.

Sydney Wiese scored 13 points to lead Oregon State, which gambled by leaving Morgan Tuck open and focusing on stopping Stewart. Tuck responded with 21 points, including 16 in the first half.

The Huskies are one victory away from a fourth consecutive national championship fulfilling Breanna Stewart's goal. A feat never accomplished in women's basketball.

If UConn does win on Tuesday night coach Geno Auriemma will have an 11th national championship moving him past vaunted UCLA men's basketball coach John Wooden for the most all time.
