

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

8:53 a.m. - A Pendleton woman told police she received a phone call in the middle of the night from a male that said he was her secret admirer, knew her name and wanted her address.

9:42 a.m. - A woman asked to talk to a Pendleton officer about someone vandalizing her 2015 Mazda 3. She said someone keyed the car three times in the last two months while she parked at St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, where she works.

10:54 a.m. - A younger male screamed at an elderly woman at Dean's Market & Deli, 412 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, prompting an employee to call 9-1-1.

11:53 a.m. - A dumpster caught fire in a vacant lot next to the Guardian Angel Homes facility that is under construction.

2:11 p.m. - A woman reported someone broke into the cabin she rented on Charlotte Lane, Meacham, and stole her TV and other items.

5:13 p.m. - Someone broke into the Hermiston apartment of a man who recently passed away at the hospital.

5:27 p.m. - A 9-1-1 caller seeking Pendleton police yelled while on the phone that he did not care if a female gets high. She yelled back, "It's a double standard for me to be able to get high but not her." The caller then did not want to talk and disconnected. The dispatch center's computers showed the cell number is associated with an address on the 400 block of Northwest 15th Street.

5:45 p.m. - A Pilot Rock resident on Southwest Third Street wanted to speak to police about suspicious happenings at his house, including rugs being moved and doors left open.

6:13 p.m. - A Pendleton mother reported a girl in her apartment complex bullies her daughter, but nothing changed after talking to the bully's parents. She asked police for options.

6:36 p.m. - A 10-year-old, her aunt and uncle were stuck behind a locked gate at Agape House in Hermiston.

7:55 p.m. - Pendleton police received a call about several people fighting on Southwest 13th Street.

8:06 p.m. - A drunk driver of a GMC Yukon grew hostile and threatened to harm a fuel pump at the Pendleton Safeway, 203 S.W. 20th St. The driver left and went toward the parking lot of the nearby Wal-Mart Supercenter.

8:35 p.m. - A semi broke down across Highway 207 at the interchange with Interstate 84. While a Honda Insight was stopped for the semi, a lifted Dodge pickup rear-ended the Honda, sending two passengers to the hospital. Both drivers stated they were fine and requested no medical attention.

10:12 p.m. - A caller reported hearing a gunshot at about 9:30 p.m. near Brooke RV Park, 597 N.E. Eighth St., Pendleton. This was the second night in a row he heard shots, he said. A dispatcher told him to call back if he heard more.

SATURDAY

12:10 a.m. - A Pilot Rock woman reported her boyfriend was hitting her, and she was going to meet an officer at a public location.

12:19 a.m. - Two people cut the hydraulic lines to the steering pump on a 1973 Dodge pickup belonging to a woman on Diagonal Road, Hermiston. She said the culprits left in a black 1999 Honda Civic toward Diagonal Road. She also gave a tentative identification of one suspect.

3:01 a.m. - A Pendleton resident on Northwest 10th Street reported a white male was in his back yard collecting cans, then took off toward Carden Avenue.

5:08 a.m. - A woman told Umatilla police she drank too much last night at the Crossroads Truck Stop, 2002 Highway 730 Umatilla, got a ride to a hotel and now cannot find her vehicle and wanted to report someone stole it.

10 a.m. - A city of Pendleton employee reported three people were sleeping by a campfire under the Westgate Bridge near the Rudy Rada Skate Park, and one or two may be nude.

10:42 a.m. - Traner's Plumbing & Heating, 80611 Highway 395, Hermiston, was the target of a burglary, and the culprits made off with cash and a computer.

10:53 a.m. - A thief stole a man's red and burgundy F350 pickup at Space Age Fuel, 77522 Highway 207, Hermiston. The owner reported leaving the keys in the pickup, along with two rifles, a cellphone and hay in the bed.

1:35 p.m. - Burglars also hit Ray's Eastgate Auto, 1264 N. Columbia St., Milton-Freewater, though the person with the business did not know when the crime occurred but reported cushions were missing from an RV.

2:07 p.m. - A Pendleton man told police his soon-to-be-ex-wife left him 13 messages on his phone and said she would turn him in on "things that are not true."

6:35 p.m. - Law enforcement received a request to trespass a woman who sells tamales, candies and socket/wrench sets from Punkin Center Mobile Home Park, 32314 E. Punkin Center Road, Hermiston.

6:36 p.m. - If you see a piglet in Irrigon, please call the Morrow County Sheriff's Office because it could belong to a 4-H member.

7:10 p.m. - Someone stole a walker from a pickup on the 900 block of Cowl Street, Milton-Freewater.

7:17 p.m. - Hermiston Fire responded to a report of a vehicle that crashed into a power pole. The vehicle was noted to have a power pole on top of the front and cab of the vehicle with several electrical wires broken in the area.

7:49 p.m. - A man on Wildwood Loop, Weston, called 9-1-1 to report an explosion shook his residence.

8:52 p.m. - A single vehicle crashed into a guard rail in Hermiston. One patient was transported to the hospital by ambulance.

9:04 p.m. - A Richland, Wash., resident reported his estranged wife, who lives in Hermiston, stole his handgun and other items.

10:05 p.m. - Pendleton police responded to a report of two males fighting in and on a car at Northwest Bailey Avenue and Eighth Street.

11:11 p.m. - File under small community police problems: A man in Heppner called 9-1-1 and asked for a deputy, but no one was on duty. The man said he would just go to the deputy's house.

11:55 p.m. - A false alarm took firefighters to a local care home in Hermiston where a water alarm was malfunctioning.

SUNDAY

12:20 a.m. - A larger fellow refused to leave the Riverside Sports Bar & Lounge, 1501 Sixth St., Umatilla, after staff cut him off from drinking. An employee called police when the 6-foot-1-inch, 230-pound man "threatened to throw bullets."

7:52 a.m. - A woman leaving Two Rivers Correctional Institution, Umatilla, reported a male drove up to her in a tan truck, said he looked for her for a while and wanted to tell her stuff regarding her husband. The man also said he knew she used to work at a nursing home. She asked for a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to call her.

10:02 a.m. - A Pilot Rock woman reported the theft of $740 and the keys to her car.

11:48 a.m. - A woman got off a bus at Pendleton Market, 2101 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton, ran into the store and said someone was harassing her. She sat in the middle of the store, jumped up, ran out to the parking lot and started stripping.

2:20 p.m. - A car drove into the water at Umatilla Marina RV Park, 1710 Quincy Ave.,

Umatilla, and a man escaped the car and laid on the bank of the river.

2:55 p.m. - Hermiston fire responded to an alarm at FEDEX Freight in Hermiston. A fire pump was running in the pump house, but no fire was located. Firefighters assisted staff with contacting someone who could fix the fire pump and reset the alarm.

3:22 p.m. - A resident of East Gladys Avenue in Hermiston reported her purse was stolen from her house while she was sleeping.

3:53 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report that a 21-year-old man was selling fraudulent tickets to a musical event.

3:55 p.m. - Hermiston dispatch received a call from a woman saying "the cat is dead," then a man got on the phone and said the "baby is dead." A female voice then said everything was fine.
