

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

3:50 a.m. - A Pendleton man on Southeast 19th Street reported a neighbor's dog was barking since about midnight, and this is an on-going problem in spite of police citing the dog owner before. Police did not find the barking dog.

9:47 a.m. - A woman on Lefore Road, Milton-Freewater, reported her neighbor's miniature pony keeps trying to get to her mare behind the fence. She said she had him on a halter and was tired of taking it back to the owner.

10:04 a.m. - A caller on Southwest Zeta Court, Pendleton, asked police if it was OK for a neighbor's friend to park in front of mailboxes and block mail delivery.

10:04 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of possible horse neglect on Winesap Road, Milton-Freewater.

10:55 a.m. - A Umatilla woman on Pierce Avenue told police the empty lot next to hers is full of tumbleweeds. She said she removed them herself for the last 20 years but is too old to do that now.

11:14 a.m. - A woman told Umatilla police a man who is her "ex" came to her house and threw her TV and other items. She said she was in the car with her children.

11:59 a.m. - A man reported he stepped out of a portable toilet at McNary Dam on Devore Road, Umatilla, and a woman in her 50s had a vehicle blocking his, she confronted him, talked about Jesus and claimed he was stalking her. She left before he got into his vehicle, he said, and he did not know which way she went. He said he wanted law enforcement aware of her because she "was acting crazy." Dispatchers made a note of it.

12:22 p.m. - Someone stole a Pendleton woman's food benefits card and racked up charges exceeding $300 at local grocery stores.

1:03 p.m. - The owner of Atkinson Staffing, 80796 Highway 395, Hermiston, reported a man that applied for a job last week returned, left the office and tried to break into the mailboxes at apartments next to the business and broke off a key in one of the mailboxes. Now, the caller said, the mail person cannot access the mailbox.

1:34 p.m. - A caller at a home on Southwest Gateway Avenue, Pendleton, reported "a guy here that is not welcomed" was kicking the doors and beating on the windows.

3:37 p.m. - A Toyota pickup was stolen from Northwest Butte Drive in Hermiston. The keys were not with the vehicle.

3:41 p.m. - The owners of Ace Mini Storage, 82270 Lind Road, Umatilla, reported doors were open on a storage unit and were concerned there could be thefts.

4:54 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police the woman he has been separated from for weeks has been harassing him, follows him and had the water turned off to his home.

4:59 p.m. - Pendleton police responded to a complaint at Wtechlink Inc., 404 S.E. Dorion Ave., No. 207. Officers told the parties the issues was a civil matter and to work it out through their attorneys.

5:59 p.m. - Someone reported a baggie with blue stars and white powder residue on the sidewalk at West Hermiston Avenue and Southwest 10th Street, Hermiston. The caller did not touch the bag, and police did not find it.

6:42 p.m. - A van drove into the Little Caesar's parking lot in Hermiston with a baby in a woman's arms and not in a car seat.

7:45 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater man told police someone entered his house on the 100 block of East Broadway and stole alcohol.

10:10 p.m. - Umatilla police warned a 20-something man after an employee at the Riverside Sports Bar & Lounge, 1501 Sixth St., reported receiving "tampered" Illinois identification.

Reporter to share 'Daughters of Hanford'

PENDLETON — Anna King, northwest news reporter for Northwest Public Radio at Washington State University in Tri-Cities, is featured in the upcoming Eastern Oregon Forum.

King loves to unearth great stories about people in the Pacific Northwest — from nuclear reactors to Mexican rodeos. She has actively covered the Hanford Nuclear Reservation for the past eight years. Her "Daughters of Hanford" series profiles some women from the area whose stories she hasn't had a chance to tell.

King will present "Daughters of Hanford" Tuesday, April 12 at 7 p.m. in Science & Technology Room ST-200 at Blue Mountain Community College, 2411 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton.

The Eastern Oregon Forum is a collaborative effort among leaders from Blue Mountain Community College, InterMountain Education Service District, the East Oregonian, American Association of University Women and Harriet Isom, former United States ambassador.

For more information, call Karen Parker at 541-966-3177.

Garden tour seeks locations

HERMISTON — The P.E.O. Hermiston Garden Tour is seeking people who would like to have their gardens showcased in its 12th annual event.

The event supports local scholarships as well as the organization's state and international projects. P.E.O. was founded in 1869 as a way to support women and encourage them in realizing their potential through education.

Abigail Lynn Hughes

Brookings
September 27, 2015-March 22, 2016

Abigail Lynn Hughes was born Sept. 27, 2015, in Coos Bay, Oregon, to parents Nat and Angie Hughes. Her family brought her home to Brookings where she lived and thrived for five months and three weeks. Suddenly, on the morning of March 22, 2016, she was called into the arms of the Savior.

She is survived by her parents Nat and Angie Hughes; brothers Sam and Isaac Hughes; her grandparents John and Susie Hughes of Clackamas and Pat and Vickie McNamee of Irrigon; and two great-grandmothers, Ruth Hughes of Clackamas and Jo McNamee of Madras. She is mourned by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends on both sides of the Hughes and McNamee clan, the law enforcement agencies of Curry County, Del Norte County, Oregon State Police, Brookings Police Department and the community of Brookings-Harbor where she found and returned love during her short but fulfilled life.

A celebration of Abigail's life was held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 2, 2016, at Brookings Harbor Christian Church, 777 Fifth St., Brookings. Private interment followed the service, and a reception followed at His Place, 18881 Cornett Road (off Cape Ferrelo) in Brookings.

A memorial fund to assist the family has been established at www.gofundme.com/4zvsss98.

Condolences may be expressed online at www.redwoodmemorial.net. Redwood Memorial Chapel is assisting the family.

OBITUARIES

Trampis Lee 'Tramp' Palmer

Hermiston
December 12, 1973-April 3, 2016

Trampis Lee "Tramp" Palmer, 42, of Hermiston passed away at his home on Sunday, April 3, 2016. He was born December 12, 1973, in Hermiston to Deborah Jean Stephens and Michael John Palmer.

Although born in Hermiston, Trampis lived briefly in Walla Walla, Baker City and Arizona while growing up. He graduated from Hermiston High School in 1992 and was part of the Bulldog football and wrestling teams.

Trampis married Tiffany McDaniel on November 28th, 1992, in Hermiston. In September of 1999, Jake was born and their family would become complete when Megan joined them in March 2002. This year they would have celebrated their 24th anniversary.

Tramp's love for sports followed him after high school and he started his first of many coaching jobs the year after he graduated. In 1993, he started coaching Grid Kids Football, as his little brother was on the team and Tramp was hooked! Grid Kids at that time had about 60 kids in the program with four teams. After a few years of coaching, Tramp became president of the youth football program and remained president until 2013. After dedicating 20 years of countless hours, love and effort into the program and kids, it had grown to over 200 players and 10 teams at the time he stepped down. He touched so many lives during this time as both a mentor and coach, sharing his love for the game with all the kids he came into contact with.

Tramp's love of sports did not only encompass football. He was involved with the Hermiston Youth Wrestling program for many years also. He was voted in as tournament director one evening (when he was absent from a board meeting!) and would remain so for several years during the time that his son Jake was a youth wrestler.

Not only did he coach boys sports, he also coached City League basketball and HYBA for Megan's teams. He rounded off his girl's basketball coaching with three seasons of Megan's AAU team, the Purple Crush. Coaching girls was definitely a new experience for Tramp after coaching boys for so many years, but he loved spending time with his daughter and her sports for a change.

Tramp found a new sports love in 2011. Lacrosse was still fairly new in Hermiston then, and after watching his son play for a year as a fifth grader, he began coaching the next year. He became the youth lacrosse program director the following year and has been involved ever since. His goal was to make the youth lacrosse program as successful as the youth football program.

Tramp finally achieved his dream coaching job this year when he was hired as head varsity coach for the Hermiston High School lacrosse team. He was excited to be a part of the high school program and was so looking forward to a great season with players that he had coached in the youth program in previous years. What made it even more special was having Jake on the team too. Dinnertimes were spent listening to them discuss practice and how things went that day.

Nothing was more special to Tramp than his wife, kids, and his family. They were the most important pieces of him and he was so very proud of them. Tramp was a terrific husband, dad, coach, friend and mentor to all. He was loved and respected by many and will be greatly missed in the community.

Trampis is survived by his wife Tiffany, children Jake and Megan, mother Debb Gardner of Ukiah, father Mike Palmer of Colorado, sister Jackie Herrera of Hermiston, brother Josh Gawith of Tri-Cities, grandparents Carl and Alice Palmer of Hermiston, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

A graveside services will be Saturday, April 9th at 10 a.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery.

A Celebration of Life will be at 2 p.m. in the Hermiston High School commons, 600 S. First St.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Tramp's memory may be made to the "Benefit Account For Trampis Palmer" c/o Banner Bank, 101 E. Main St, Hermiston, OR 97838.
