

BIG NATE

YES! THAT'S A FIVE!

UH... DAD?

PLUNK!

ON THE WAY HERE, YOU SAID YOU WERE GOING TO PLAY A LEGITIMATE ROUND OF GOLF TODAY.

YOU TOLD ME TO SPEAK UP IF I SAW YOU BREAK ANY RULES.

WELL, YOU HIT YOUR TEE SHOT FROM OUTSIDE THE TEE BOX. THAT'S A TWO-STROKE PENALTY. YOU ALSO HIT INTO THE WATER. THAT'S ANOTHER STROKE.

YOU MOVED SOME BRANCHES OUT OF THE WAY ON YOUR THIRD SHOT. THAT'S TWO MORE STROKES. PLUS ANOTHER STROKE FOR THE SECOND BALL YOU LOST.

SO INSTEAD OF FIVE, SHOULD I WRITE ELEVEN?

UH... YOU COULD.

...OR YOU COULD WRITE FIVE, AND WE COULD STOP FOR PIZZA ON THE WAY HOME.

A CADDY'S GOTTA DO WHAT A CADDY'S GOTTA DO.

THAT'S THE BEST I'VE PLAYED IN AGES!

PHOEBE AND HER UNICORN

BY DANA SIMPSON

What's older? Unicorns, or stars?

Stars.

In ancient times, unicorns were very jealous of the stars, with all their shining and twinkling.

And no unicorn was more jealous than KING SPRINKLE THE THUNDEROUS.

Eventually, he could stand it no longer, and ordered his subjects to charge at the stars, horns first!

What happened?

This.

History would come to know it as the Great Anticlimactic Hop.

History would be my favorite subject if unicorns wrote the textbooks.
