OBITUARIES

Gertrude Bennett

Milton-Freewater
December 3, 1922-April 4, 2016

Gertrude Bennett of Milton-Freewater passed away on April 4, 2016, at Regency at the Park in College Place at the age of 93 years. Funeral services will be held Friday, April 15th at 2:00 p.m. at the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home in Milton-Freewater. Concluding services and interment will be in the Milton-Freewater Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to a veterans organization of your choice in care of the funeral home.

Bennett

Gertrude was born December 3, 1922, in Pinegrove, Oregon, the daughter of Charles N. and Gertrude O. Brown. As a baby the family moved to Pasco, Washington. Later, the family moved to Umapine, Oregon, where she attended school before moving to Milton-Freewater where Gertrude attended two years of school before returning back to Umapine where she graduated from high school.

After high school Gertrude worked for a time, but mostly was a homemaker. She married Leonard N. Bennett on February 23, 1970. The couple lived in Union, Oregon, where they started the VFW post. They later lived in Hermiston, Weston and Milton-Freewater.

She was active in veterans organizations all of her life. She was a member of the VFW Auxiliary #4567, DAV Auxiliary Unit 7, Integrity Rebeka Lodge #175, American Legion #24 Auxiliary and past dept. president of the Ladies of the Grand Republic. She enjoyed sewing and volunteering at the VA Hospital.

Gertrude is survived by her daughter, Judith Ann Joseph; son Gordon "Dean" Barnett; daughter Linda Sue Wallace; numerous stepchildren; her brother Robert Andrew Brown; sister Hannah Elizabeth Owens; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Her parents, husband Leonard Bennett and sons Donald Wallace and Norman Andrew Wallace all preceded her in death.

Richard G. 'Dick' Devin Sr.

Kennewick, Wash.
August 31, 1951-April 10, 2016

Richard G. "Dick" Devin Sr., 64, passed away in Richland, Wash., on April 10, 2016, with his three kids at his side. He was born in Jacksonville, Fla., on August 31, 1951, to Glenn and Darlene Devin.

He spent most of his childhood in North Bend attending high school there, then eventually transferred and graduated from South Umpqua High School in 1969. That same year, he joined the family business and Standard Oil. He married Sandra "Sam" Janssen in 1970. Later that year, they had their first child, Richard Jr., and over the next seven years added two more, Doug and Renee.

They lived in Myrtle Creek surrounded by both sides of the extended family until 1974, when they moved to Crescent City, Calif. In 1978, Devin Oil Company acquired the Arlington, Condon and Heppner bulk plants. Dick's father Glenn wanted to return his family to his childhood home area of Eastern Oregon where he loved the small town values and honest work ethic of the communities. Dick, his wife and kids would call Heppner home for many years with all three kids graduating high school there.

While the kids were growing up, Dick coached and supported all the local programs. He was an avid fan of watching his children playing sports and was often seen pacing the sidelines at a football game. He has many lifelong friends from the Heppner area.

Later in life Dick moved to Kennewick, Wash. Now, with eight grandkids, he was never lacking a sporting event or program to watch. He was so close with each of the grandkids, talking to each of them almost every day. He was proud of them and they were proud of him.

Dick was still the president of Devin Oil Company, a company his dad started in 1952. In his adult life, Dick only had one boss — his dad. After buying the company from his dad, he greatly expanded the business throughout Eastern Oregon and Washington. Dick ensured the company was a huge supporter of all things local, especially for kids. Dick lived a very full life, having many great experiences through travel, car buying, golfing and huge sporting events. He was a friend to all, kind and generous beyond measure. He left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him.

He is survived by his father, Glenn Devin and his wife Dottie, Canby, Ore.; his sister, Diane McNaughton, Hermiston, Ore.; his sons, Richard Devin Jr. and his wife Tiah and their children Derek, Drake and Avery, Hermiston, Ore., and Doug Devin and his wife Stella and their children Matthew and Andrew, Kennewick, Wash.; and his daughter, Renee Wilkins and her husband Tim and their children Kannon, Kennisyn and Karver, Hermiston, Ore.

Dick was preceded in death by his mother Darlene.

Graveside service will be held on Friday, April 15, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Made to Thrive at madetothrive.org or P.O. Box 684, Hermiston, OR 97838, or Heppner High School Booster Club, P.O. Box 67, Heppner, OR 97836.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK
Elias Esquivel
STANFIELD SECONDARY SCHOOL
STANFIELD TIGERS
Elias Esquivel has started out his freshman year with high standards for himself, while also being open and perceptive to feedback on how he can continually improve and push himself toward being his best self. He earned a 4.0 this last quarter, while taking advanced coursework in the areas of math and language arts. Elias has demonstrated the drive and desire to get involved in numerous extra-curricular activities, including our Generation College club, through which he has eagerly participated in our college visits to start looking at his options. His involvement in this club and others have evidenced his leadership skills and enthusiasm, which will be an asset to our school and community as his high school career continues to unfold.
