

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

8:10 a.m. - Two dogs belonging to a Weston resident fell victim in the last few months to the neighbors' Boerboel, or South African Mastiff, a powerful breed of dog that can grow to 200 pounds. The owner of the dead dogs told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office the neighbors agreed to keep the Boerboel at home, but then let it back out. The caller also was concerned for his grandchildren because of the large dog.

8:38 a.m. - A woman on Walla Walla River Road, Milton-Freewater, reported a truck from Konen Rock Products of Milton-Freewater hit and killed her dog.

8:44 a.m. - An employee of O'Reilly Auto Parts, 102 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, drew ire from a homeless man after asking him to leave from behind the building. The employee called police to deal with the man.

9:09 a.m. - A Hermiston woman told Hermiston police someone keeps reporting welfare checks on her and she would like them to stop.

9:59 a.m. - An employee of Oxford Suites, Hermiston, found suspicious items left in a room, possibly drugs. The employee asked an officer to pick it up.

11:48 a.m. - An Athena woman asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to trespass a squatter on her property on South Second Street. She said her husband told the man he could store a motor home in December 2015 but not live in it. The man then brought his pickup to the location, built a fire pit and started living in the motor home. Now she wanted him off the property.

12:22 p.m. - A thief cut the fuel lines on a van and stole fuel at Umatilla Morrow Head Start, 1850 Key Blvd., Milton-Freewater.

12:30 p.m. - Twelve mailboxes were damaged on Sunland Avenue in Hermiston.

12:34 p.m. - Someone stole a battery from a vehicle belonging to a woman on East Van Buren Street, Athena. She also reported someone in November 2015 entered her vehicle and stole keys, and she believed the person who has those keys stole the battery.

1:24 p.m. - The owner of a recreational vehicle reported someone stole its stabilizer brackets while in storage on the 1800 block of Westgate, Pendleton.

2:13 p.m. - Employers at the rock quarry on County Line Road, Hermiston, caught an employee stealing but did not fire him. More issues came up, though, and now the employee is threatening his boss with physical violence. The employers asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to check in around 3:30 p.m., when the employee will receive his final check.

3:04 p.m. - Vehicles ran over a box of 7-mm rifle rounds in the road on Southwest Court Avenue, Pendleton, near Mazatlan Mexican Restaurant, and a caller asked police to come and remove them.

3:12 p.m. - An Irrigon man told law enforcement his soon-to-be ex-wife took his vehicle to Washington without his permission and wrecked it.

3:16 p.m. - A woman reported her girlfriend's teenage son keeps coming home with items he could be stealing, including a generator, two skateboards and a flat screen TV.

3:40 p.m. - A Pendleton man on Southeast Alexander Place asked police how he could free his cat trapped in a vacant house.

4:07 p.m. - A resident of Southwest 10th Place in Hermiston said a man came up to the house, assaulted the resident "for no reason" and "tore up" the front room.

4:22 p.m. - Pendleton schools changed the location of a bus stop to the 3500 block of Westgate, a father reported, and the owner of the business there constantly harasses and yells at his children. He said he talked with the owner, but that went nowhere, and asked for an officer's advice.

5:33 p.m. - A city of Hermiston truck was reported moving by itself and the horn going off on Northeast Fourth Street.

8:14 p.m. - A caller reported this to the Morrow County Sheriff's Office: A FedEx driver around 2-2:30 p.m. found a man in a ditch, and the driver and the caller took the man's keys because "they could tell he was all messed up," but did not know if alcohol, drugs or both did the messing. The caller took off to get help, and the impaired man wrestled with the FedEx driver, got his keys and "took off flying down the road."

OBITUARIES

Afton Fay Kendall

Hermiston
April 12, 1946-March 22, 2016

Afton Fay Kendall, age 79, of Hermiston, Oregon, passed away Tuesday, March 22 from complications of a long battle with diabetes. She spent the last two years of her life in Boise, Idaho, with her daughter Cami.

On Easter Sunday, April 12, 1946, a beautiful little bunny was born in La Grande, Oregon, to Stuart A. and Ellen E. Sanderson (Arnoldus). Afton was a straight A student and an accomplished vocalist and violinist. At age 17, she was the youngest person to become a member of the Grande Ronde Symphony with which she toured Europe.

Afton was a proud woman who raised her two daughters in La Grande, without spousal support or public assistance. She never took a day off or vacation from work in order to provide for her family. Afton was known to repair her own television and fix her car with only a hairpin.

After moving to Hermiston, Afton worked in the office of Good Samaritan Nursing Home. Later she was the manager of an apartment complex for senior citizens.

Kendall

St. Patrick's Day was always special. It was when Afton met the love of her life, Sergeant Dale E. Kendall, on her first and only blind date. They were married in September of 1980 and were able to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary before his passing in 2006.

Even in the last year of her life, despite health challenges, Afton would always light up the lives of everyone she met with her smile and pleasant "Hello." She is survived by her daughters Cami Horton and Marteen Ward; sisters Pam Hamilton and Penny Broyles; granddaughters Kristen Venable, Holly Ward and Melissa Ward; stepchildren Dalene Faire, Lori Wise and Andy Kendall; and nephew and nieces Stephan Hamilton, Erika Yzaguirre and Lisa Hernandez.

The celebration of Afton's life will be held at Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, on Saturday, May 14 at 10:00 a.m. followed by a graveside service at Hermiston Cemetery, and a brunch at Oxford Suites.

Craig William Jones

Arlington
June 17, 1954-April 14, 2016

Craig William Jones, 61, of Arlington died Thursday, April 14, 2016, at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 23, 2016, at 11 a.m. at the Arlington Cemetery.

He was born on June 17, 1954, at Portland, Oregon, to Laurence and Alice Morrow Jones. He was the oldest of five children. He attended Woodstock Grade School and Cleveland High School, where he graduated. After high school he spent two years at Clackamas Community College.

Craig lived in Portland, Bend, Colton and Arlington, Oregon.

He enjoyed climbing and was a longtime member of the Mazamas, climbing most mountains in the Northwest, both with his father and alone. Craig was also an avid skier, hunter, marksman and gun enthusiast.

In July 1985 he married Susan Maul in Vancouver, Washington. The couple made their home in Arlington.

Survivors include his wife Susan; mother Alice Jones of Arlington; sister Kris Petersen of La Grande; brother Randy Jones and his wife Caterina of Portland; brother Steven Jones and his wife Margo of Arlington; sister Leslie Wetherell and her husband Tadd, also of Arlington; and numerous aunts, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Cancer Society Research, Great West Division Inc., P.O. Box 3366, Portland, OR 97208-3366.

Sweeney Mortuary of Condon is in care of arrangements.
