

Santiam Christian beats Tigers on walk-off home run

Stanfield one out short in bid to defeat defending state champs

East Oregonian

CORVALLIS — For six innings Stanfield's Dylan

Grogan got the better of Santiam Christian's Dru Draper in a pitchers duel on Thursday in non-league baseball.

Grogan was batting 2 for 3 at the plate and had driven in the only run in the game, had allowed just one hit from the mound and no runners past first base headed into the bottom of the seventh inning.

But Draper, who allowed just three hits in his own complete-game pitching performance, landed the final blow with a two-out t w o - r u n homer run that lifted the Eagles to a 2-1 win.

Grant Carley had reached base earlier on just the second walk of Grogan's outing. He finished with eight strikeouts.

Draper finished with four strikeouts and two walks.

Santiam Christian (13-3) is coming off a 3A state title last season and returned 12 seniors to the diamond this year.

"I was happy with how we competed," said Stanfield coach Bryan Johnson. "It was a great game between two aces, we just struggled to manufacture some runs.

"It's the kind of game you see in the state finals or the state championship. ... We had some chances, guys at third and second and it just didn't work out today."

Stanfield (15-2) scored its run in the third inning when Grogan hit a single to drive in Thylar Monkus, who had reached base and scoring position on errors.

The Tigers will stay in non-league play for their next two games and will play at Taft on Saturday at 10 a.m. Then the Tigers will play Monroe at Taft at 12:30 p.m.
