PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

4:25 a.m. - A caller told Pendleton police a pickup was parked by the bridge near the Denny's restaurant on Tutuilla Road, and this was concerning because his neighbor's home was broken into three times in the past year. Police checked but did not find the vehicle.

7:20 a.m. - Dogs again got out of their yards on North Third Street, Athena, and entered a neighbor's property. She reported the owners allow the dogs to run free, and she believed the dogs killed her cat.

8:06 a.m. - A caller on Northwest Despain Avenue, Pendleton, told police there was a 4-foot-by-3-foot package in a bed sheet in her driveway.

10:13 a.m. - An Irrigon mother asked law enforcement to contact her regrading troubles she is having with her teenage son. The case was under investigation.

10:18 a.m. - A resident of Bel Air Apartments in Hermiston reported someone tried to kick in the apartment door around 3  $\,$

11:01 a.m. - A two-vehicle accident blocked the lanes of Southeast Fourth Street. Hermiston Fire and Emergency Services responded.

1:59 p.m. - Brush caught fire near the Keystone RV Co. site on the 3000 block of Westgate Drive, Pendleton. Firefighters hit the scene and kept the fire to no more than three acres. 2:12 p.m. - Rocks fell from an asphalt truck on Powerline

Road near Cottonwood Road, Milton-Freewater, then the rig stopped and a lot of rocks fell out. A caller reported this might qualify as a road hazard.

3:49 p.m. - Someone left a gun in the men's bathroom on the main floor at Pioneer Hall, Blue Mountain Community College, 2411 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton. An employee of the college called police and said the gun remained in the bathroom, staff were not letting anyone inside, and she would wait for an officer.

Postal workers told her they would get it back, but her mother has not received the package that contained about $75 worth of clothes, and now the postal employees were not cooperating.
