

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

12:23 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office and the Irrigon ambulance responded to an Irrigon home for a man who took seven Ibuprofen tablets of 600 milligrams each.

5:47 a.m. - Someone used a no trespassing sign to pry open the window to a laundry room at Spruce Village Apartments, 625 N.W. Spruce St., Hermiston. The trespasser then broke into the coin machine and stole the money.

5:53 a.m. - A Pendleton woman told a 9-1-1 dispatcher she believed her child's father threw a brick through the back window of her boyfriend's vehicle at her home on Southwest 19th Street.

5:55 a.m. - A jogger in Hermiston reported graffiti on the Riverfront Park sign and 18 more spots on the Oxbow Trail.

7:58 a.m. - Pilot Rock police received a report that someone the past two weekends vandalized the restrooms at the city park.

10:02 a.m. - A woman asked Pendleton police for advice on not letting an acquaintance park his motorcycle in her yard because he does not want it repossessed.

10:36 a.m. - An aggressive pit bull dog ran at large through the neighborhood at Southwest Park Lane, Pendleton.

11:50 a.m. - A gentlemen walked into the Hermiston fire station to report a large burn on Northeast 10th Street. He stated they were burning construction material from another location and this is a common occurrence at this residence.

Firefighters arrived at the home to a pile of tree limbs, grass clippings and some old lumber. The property owner said he has an agreement with a local lawn care place to allow them to dump on the property behind the home. Three company employees tended to the fire, and one employee told firefighters they normally only dump lawn clippings and tree trimmings, but sometimes they do clean up other debris. Tuesday they were burning an old pump house they had torn out.

Firefighters advised the property owner the burn policy was intended for homeowners to burn their own yard debris and did not allow a company to burn other debris on his property. He received a copy of the city's burn regulations.

11:54 a.m. - An Adams man on North Blaine Street told law enforcement his neighbor's bird dog was at his home again and chasing his chickens. He said he tied the dog in his carport. The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office sent a deputy, who warned the dog owner.

12:01 p.m. - A Hermiston woman on Northeast McAllister Lane reported her neighbor's dog came over on Saturday and killed nine of her ducks. The dog has killed 21 to date. She asked to speak with someone with the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office.

12:01 p.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a request to check on the welfare of an alternative school student whose mother was using methamphetamine and was violent.

12:20 p.m. - A man reported his white 1993 Ford Escort ran out of gas in the morning on Interstate 84 so he left it near milepost 171. But when he came back, it was gone.

2:04 p.m. - A livestock owner reported someone stole two of his calves about two weeks ago from his property on North Ott Road, Hermiston, and he heard there are a "whole bunch of calves" at 10th Street and Elm Avenue.

3:04 p.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report about a domestic violence survivor at a Boardman health clinic. The case is under investigation.

3:26 p.m. - A driver ran the stop sign at Eastside and Birch Creek roads, Milton-Freewater, another man shook his fist at the driver, who then chased the fist shaker's vehicle before turning off.

3:35 p.m. - A Pendleton resident told police he gets harassing phone calls from 812-472-4604, and when he answers a male with an accent starts cursing at him. He said he did not need an officer and he has not told his parents about the calls.

3:52 p.m. - A Umatilla business reported a woman using an oxygen bottle was "freaking out" and "verbally threatening everyone" then went outside.

7:21 p.m. - A Boardman caller reported her boyfriend broke her computer and phone.

7:36 p.m. - Two vehicles collided in the parking lot at the Hermiston Safeway.

8:57 p.m. - A Pendleton man told an emergency dispatcher he arrived at his home on Southeast Byers Place and may have interrupted a burglary. Someone ransacked his house, he said, and he could not find his weapons anywhere.

10:53 p.m. - A Pendleton ambulance took a woman to the hospital from Southeast Seventh Street and Court Avenue after she fell, hit her head and was bleeding.

10:33 p.m. - Someone hiding behind anonymity sent a Hermiston-area woman "nasty pictures of her and her boyfriend" to her cellphone and threatened to put the pictures on the internet.

SCHOLARSHIP

Umatilla students earn OSU business scholarships

Samantha Ball and Hunter Cook of Umatilla High School have been awarded Oregon State University (OSU) College of Business Future Business Leaders scholarships. The scholarships are awarded each year to high-achieving high school juniors who are interested in pursuing an undergraduate business degree at OSU after they graduate from high school. If the students attend OSU, they will receive the $1,000 scholarship, renewable for four years.

The qualifications for the scholarship include: current high school junior attending high school in Oregon; graduate before September 2017; current cumulative high school GPA of 3.75 or above; and a domestic student. According to the scholarship description, "applications will be evaluated by candidates' demonstrated entrepreneurial/innovative mind-set, work ethic and commitment to social responsibility. We seek candidates who will bring diversity to the College of Business student population in terms of students' career interests, hometown, racial/ethnic background, and/or experiences."

Ball and Cook were nominated for the scholarship by Keith Gebers, the business teacher at Umatilla High School. The two students will be recognized at an event on May 2 in Portland.

"We are very pleased that two of our students have been recognized for their academic excellence and for their innovative thinking and hard work. We look forward to hearing about their future success in the world of business," said Heidi Sipe, Umatilla School District superintendent.

Virginia Lee "Ginger" Copelan Ross
 Pendleton
 August 11, 1941 - April 25, 2016

Virginia Lee "Ginger" Copelan Ross, 74, of Pendleton (Rieth), OR, passed away in her home on Monday, April 25, 2016, surrounded by her husband of 37 years, Frank Ross, and her three children.

Ross

Virginia was born August 11, 1941 in Los Angeles, CA, graduated from high school in Santa Clara, CA, and earned an associate's degree in business administration from College of the Siskiyou in Weed, CA. She taught her children the value of hard work whether as a waitress, a cashier at Safeway, a long haul truck driver, or as a cook at St. Anthony Hospital and the Umatilla County Jail.

Virginia never knew a stranger and treated all people she met with respect. She was passionate about music and was always listening or singing along. She sang with the Sweet Adelines in Seattle, WA, in the choir at College of the Siskiyou in Weed, CA, with the Oregon East Symphony and Chorale in Pendleton, OR, and at many karaoke venues. Virginia also loved to travel and never passed up an opportunity for adventure. She visited Scotland, Brazil, Italy, Germany and nearly all 50 U.S. states.

She was preceded in death by her parents Les and Maxine Carter and Ernest and Lou Copelan. Surviving are her husband, Frank Ross, whom she married Feb. 14, 1979 in Grenada, CA, her three children: Shane (Laurie) Wasem of Thayne, WY, Cary (Murilo) Varela of Pendleton, OR, and Cindy (Greg) White of Anchorage, AK; five grandchildren: Matthew (Amber) White, Jessica (Aaron Engum) Pedersen, Benjamin White, Bethany White, and Tel Wasem; one great-grandchild: Charlotte White; two brothers: Gene (Pam) Copelan of Auburn, CA and Jerry (Erin) Copelan of Fort Lauderdale, FL; six step-daughters: Patricia Morrison, Sharon Poreider, Lorna Stokke, Dana Shy, Diana Larsen, and Shawna Ross; and many beloved in-laws, step grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

There will be a celebration of Virginia's life from 11-2, Saturday, May 28, 2016 at the Vert Club Room, 345 SW 4th St., Pendleton, OR (lunch included). Be prepared to sing!

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Lustgarten Foundation to Cure Pancreatic Cancer at <https://lustgarten.org/donate>.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.pioneerchapel.com
