EOU's Billingsley gets call from NFL

East Oregonian

LA GRANDE — The football career of Eastern Oregon University NAIA All-American Jace Billingsley got an extension once the NFL Draft wrapped up on Saturday evening.

As announced on the EOU athletics website, after going undrafted Billingley has agreed to a college free agent contract with the Detroit Lions. " I 'n opportunity to compete at the next level," said the Nevada native who excelled as a running back and receiver with the Mountaineers. "I still have a lot of work to do before I make it on the field, but all I can ask for is an opportunity, and I will do my best to make the most of it and make EOU proud. I can't thank the Mountie community enough for getting me to where I am at todav."

According to a report by the Detroit Free Press, Billingsley was one of 13 free agents signed by the Billingsley finished his 2015 campaign fourth in the nation with 1,931 all-purpose yards and was able to impress the professional scouts while working out at University of Nevada's pro day where he ran a 4.39-second 40-yard dash and hoisted 26 reps of 225 pounds in the bench press.

Manaea hung tough after Cruz's big blast while opposing one of baseball's best pitchers. The lefty, who made his major league debut last Friday against Houston after only 42 appearances in the minors, allowed four runs, all earned, on seven hits in five innings, struck out six and walked one.

He punched his pitching hand into his glove in celebration after retiring Norichika Aoki on a groundout to end the third. Aoki hit an infield single in the fifth and has hit safely in his last 15 games against Oakland.

Ketel Marte followed with an RBI double before Cano's RBI single.

Aoki added a sacrifice fly in the sixth. Seattle is 8-0 in the last eight one-run games at the Coliseum.

Sean Doolittle hadn't allowed a run over his previous eight games and 6 1/3 innings before surrendering two runs in two-third of an inning Hernandez is 11-3 at the Coliseum, one win shy of Tommy John for most career victories by a visiting pitcher in Oakland.

Mariners: RHP Tony Zych, placed on the 15-day DL with tendinitis in his rotator cuff, flew to Seattle on Tuesday to be seen by a doctor but Mariners manager Scott Servais didn't have an immediate update

Athletics: OF Coco Crisp left the ballpark to be seen by a doctor for a non-baseball medical issue.

Cavaliers make record 25 3-pointers, rout Hawks

Associated Press

CLEVELAND — J.R. Smith made seven 3-pointers and the Cleveland Cavaliers drained an NBA-record 25 3s in a 123-98 runaway win over the Atlanta Hawks on Wednesday night in Game 2 of their second-round series.

The Cavs made 18 3-pointers in the first half and added seven more after halftime to embarrass the Hawks, who have lost 10 straight postseason games to Cleveland.

Cleveland's 25 3s are the most in any game — regular or postseason.

SPORTS

LeBron James made four 3s and scored 27 points for the defending Eastern Conference chama display of outside marksmanship unlike any in league history. The Cavs hardly missed. Even their furry mascot, Moondog, got in on the act by making an over-the-head, backward fling from half court on his first try in the final minutes.

Cleveland Atlanta 98 123

of 23 previously held by Orlando (2009) and Houston pions, who put on •Cleveland leads series 2-0 > 3 for good measure. Cleveland finished 25 of 45 behind the arc and had 10 players make at least one 3.

Smith made six 3-pointers in the first half — the Cavs knocked

(2013). Mo Williams added another down seven straight during one dizzying stretch - as Cleveland built a 38-point lead over the stunned Hawks, who will head home for Friday's Game 3 down 2-0 in the series and utterly demoralized.

There was little Atlanta defenders could do against the Cavs, who stood behind the line, took aim and dropped shot after shot after shot.

By halftime, the Cavs were up by 36 and within three 3-pointers of the postseason record of 21 set by Golden State on April 24.

Fuentes was a defensive difference maker and posted 3.9 blocks a game to go with 6.8 points and 5.6 rebounds.

The Golden Eagles the only local weren't program to earn all-state recognition, though.

Condon/Wheeler senior Emma Logan was named to the girls' first team coming off her Big Sky League Player of the Year season, and Ione senior Jessie Flynn, Arlington junior Megan Hauner and Helix junior Macey Tullis were honorable mentions.

Relief pitcher Kaleb Jonas allowed just two hits over the next four innings to get the win and Kyler Harris threw the ninth for the save.

Brock Breshears pitched the whole game for BMCC and allowed three earned runs on eight hits with one strikeout and no walks. The T-Wolves stranded 10 base runners as well.

Things didn't get better in Game 2, and the T-Wolves went through five pitchers while TVCC scattered 11 hits to back up starter Sam Wong. Wong pitched seven innings and allowed just three hits for the win. He struck out four and walked one.

Blue Mountain's only run came in the seventh inning on a solo home run by Ben Ross, his fourth of the season.

The losses dropped BMCC four games out of the playoff race with six left to play. The T-Wolves will host Spokane on Saturday for a twin bill starting at 1 p.m.
