Cinco de Mayo event celebrates community

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

With the weather heating up, organizers of the Boardman Cinco de Mayo festival are planning a sizzling time this weekend.

Music, food and fun are featured Saturday from 4-10 p.m. at Boardman Marina Park, located off Marine Drive. Sponsored by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District, there is no admission charge for the festival.

Maria Richards, one of the event organizers, said the celebration is a little smaller than in past years due to falling on Mother's Day weekend, but it will still feature plenty of family-friendly fun.

"It should turn out to be a really nice celebration," Richards said.

A welcome and salute to the flags will kick things off at 4 p.m.

A handful of live bands, which will be introduced by DJ Kora, will fill the air beginning at 5 p.m. and continue into the night.

A small carnival will offer people a chance to play games and win prizes. In addition, food will be plentiful with a number of vendors on hand serving up familiar Mexican fare as well as other food and drink items.

Richards said with Boardman's diversity, the event help celebrate the heritage of members of the Hispanic community. It's important, she said, to welcome others and honor their culture.

"We like to keep that tradition going," Richards said.

Sometimes erroneously referred to as Mexico's independence day, the date actually marks Mexico's 1862 victory over France at the Battle of Puebla. In the United States, Cinco de Mayo has evolved into a celebration of Mexican culture and heritage.
