

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

10:16 a.m. - Pendleton police received an emergency call that 10 juveniles, most of them boys, were by the ice rink at Roy Raley Park and smoking either marijuana or cigarettes.

11:20 a.m. - Vehicles almost hit a donkey in the road near Central Pre-Mix of Oregon, 81830 Highway 395, Hermiston. A man reported he got the animal off the highway and corralled it.

12:53 p.m. - A Umatilla caller told police her dog got out of her yard on Fifth Street, and a neighbor tried to run her dog over. The dog owner hung up, and a dispatcher called back. The woman said the neighbor is her aunt, and she has been causing trouble. She said her aunt drove onto her property and tried to hit the dog.

1:47 p.m. - A grass fire burned 1/4 acre of property off Diagonal Road in Hermiston.

2:15 p.m. - Pendleton Public Works Department employees and the city's code enforcement officer observed bushes, trees and grass growing over sidewalks or blocking views of traffic on Southwest 24th Street and also on Southwest Perkins Avenue.

5:47 p.m. - A Pilot Rock woman told police her ex-boyfriend is having his friends follow her and watch her, and she has a restraining order against the ex.

6:43 p.m. - A caller reported a vehicle struck a dog on the 1800 block of Sixth Street, Umatilla, which lost a leg and was running toward the police department, 300 Sixth St.

7:06 p.m. - A livestock owner on Ott Road, Hermiston, told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office the location of the suspects who stole her four calves a few weeks ago.

7:07 p.m. - A burglar made off with electronics, binoculars and $300 worth of cologne from a home on the 100 block of North Main Street, Milton-Freewater.

7:33 p.m. - Loud banging the last few days in the area of North Main Street, Milton-Freewater, according to a caller, could be covering up the sound of gunshots.

8:05 p.m. - Storms uprooted a tree and pulled down a power line on Craig Road in Hermiston.

8:14 p.m. - A large conifer tree broke at its base and fell onto another tree and a power line in Hermiston. Pacific Power shut down the power to the line and firefighters were able to trim the tree and secure the line.

10:17 p.m. - A rollover accident occurred on Interstate 82 near Hermiston. The driver of the overturned vehicle was the only occupant and refused transport to the hospital.

10:28 p.m. - Pendleton police received a request to check on the welfare of a suicidal person.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Umatilla tribal police arrested Christopher Reuben Selam, 32, of Pendleton, for hit and run causing property damage, hit and run causing an injury, and contempt of court.

•Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Timothy Michael Large, 46, no address provided, for felony driving under the influence of intoxicants.

•Umatilla police arrested Corleone Martinez Lewis, 23, of Hermiston, for first-degree theft.

•Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Jack Dale Castator, 32, of 70925 Wilson Road, Boardman, for felon in possession of a weapon and second-degree mischief.

•A Heppner man who rolled his pickup ended up in jail for driving under the influence.

An Oregon State Police trooper at about 4 p.m. responded to a crash of a Toyota Tacoma on Highway 74 near milepost 78 outside Pilot Rock. The driver, Jon David Hanna, 39, refused to give the trooper his full name or allow an emergency medical technician to check him.

The trooper arrested Hanna for duui after he "showed signs of intoxication."

The trooper also took Hanna to a hospital, where staff checked him for injuries. The hospital cleared Hanna, and the trooper put him in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Non-lethal wolf deterrents workshop coming to BMCC

East Oregonian

PENDLETON — Ranchers can learn about the science and practical application of non-lethal wolf deterrents during an all-day workshop Friday, May 13 in Pendleton.

The workshop will run from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Blue Mountain Community College, organized by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Wildlife Services and Oregon State University Extension Service. Topics will include ongoing research into breeds of guard dog; the economics of predation; collaborative efforts to manage attacks on livestock; the role of non-lethal deterrents; and state compensation for damages caused by wolves. Presentations will be followed by a panel Q-and-A session.

Russ Morgan, wolf program coordinator with the Oregon Department of Fish & Wildlife, will be on hand, along with representatives from the USDA, state Department of Agriculture and Umatilla and Wallowa counties. Registration is limited to the first 100 people to sign up. The fee is $10, which includes a box lunch.

Those interested can pre-register by calling OSU Extension at 541-278-5403, or register at the door.

OBITUARIES

Robert Stanley 'Rob' Zaklan Jr.

Payette, Idaho
October 20, 1959-April 29, 2016

"For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." — Phil. 1:21

Rob Zaklan, beloved husband, father, son, brother, pastor and friend, went home to His Lord and Savior April 29, surrounded by his adoring family.

Zaklan

He was born in Pendleton, Ore., to Robert and Shirley Zaklan, the youngest of nine children. His love of God's creation and backpacking began in Boy Scouts where he completed several 50-miler Afoot Afloat in the Eagle Cap Wilderness Area.

After graduation from PHS in 1977, his adventurous spirit led him to join the USMC where he served in communications, and ranked as an expert rifleman. His tour included travel to Japan, South Korea, the Philippines and Taiwan.

He fully surrendered his life to Christ while attending Grace Baptist and began a love for sharing God's word while serving with the Salvation Army at the Pendleton Correctional Facility.

In February 1987 he married the love of his life, Teresa Ekleberry. Following God's call to full-time ministry, they moved to Spokane, Wash., where he attended Spokane Bible College, and graduated valedictorian with a degree in pastoral ministry in 1991. He faithfully shepherded the families at Bible Baptist Church in Payette, Idaho, for the last 24 years.

God richly blessed Rob and Teresa with four sons — Joshua, John, Luke and Ethan. Rob deeply loved his family and they were his first priority. He was a "hands on" father and took great delight in supporting his sons in school, sports and life. He cherished family.

He was a VFW Lifetime Member at Post 922, Pendleton, Ore.

His authentic relationship with Christ overflowed as a devoted husband, committed father, and faithful shepherd. He will be greatly missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three siblings, Le Roy Nash, Colleen Roach and John Nash.

Celebration of life service for Rob will be held Saturday, May 7 at 2 p.m. at Bible Baptist Church, 118 S. Main, Payette, Idaho.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests you give to one of the following: Bible Baptist Church Ministries, Idaho Mountain Ministries, or Be The Match.

Everdine Helen Miller

Cove
January 19, 1921-May 1, 2016

Everdine Helen Miller, age 95, of Cove died May 1, 2016, at a local care facility. A funeral will be held on Friday, May 6, 2016, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Interment will be at the Cove Cemetery. Those who wish may make contributions in her memory to the Blue Mountain Humane Association in care of Daniels-Knopp Funeral, Cremation & Life Celebration Center.

Evie was born on January 19, 1921, in Wisconsin where she was raised, but after marrying an Air Force pilot she embraced military life with all of its traditions and ceremonies. Moving from base to base gave her the opportunity to experience many areas in the United States and England.

Evie was not one to be idle and filled her spare time with baking, knitting, needlepoint and gardening.

She excelled in all of her hobbies; however, baking was #1 with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and Evie would always have cookies for them. Watching the children play always brought a smile to her face.

While Evie loved all of the family activities, her chosen path was to be a registered nurse. She loved working at the Grande Ronde Hospital until it was time to retire. Evie was a gracious lady, setting a lovely example for all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Survivors include her children, Les with wife Gayle, Andrew (Colonel USAF Ret.) with wife Pam, Anne Miller-Givens with husband Larry (Umatilla County commissioner) and John; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.
