

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

5:37 a.m. - The Saint Bernard at a house on the 200 block of South Washington Street, Weston, came onto another person's property, who reported the dog tried to bite his wife and also charged children.
9:30 a.m. - The Cozy Corner Tavern, 198 E. Main St., Hermiston, received a fake $100 bill Thursday night.
10:31 a.m. - An employee with Oregon Department of Human Services' division for seniors and people with disabilities in Hermiston asked for a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to help her serve a trespass notice to a prior employee.
11 a.m. - A woman asked to talk to a Hermiston officer about the legality of operating a lemonade stand at Northeast Covey Court and Sixth Street, Hermiston.
12:45 p.m. - A resident at Brooke RV Park, 5 N.W. Eighth St., Pendleton, told police a neighbor trespasses on her property and earlier Friday entered her home.
1:57 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report that an ex-employee of Keystone RV, Pendleton, had a "book full" of identification of other employees in a desk.
4:25 p.m. - A scam artist claiming to be with the IRS tricked a Pendleton woman into buying $1,600 worth of iTunes cards and providing the activation codes over the phone.
4:38 p.m. - Another example of what dispatchers sometimes endure: A man on Walla Walla River Road, Milton-Freewater, demanded to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy regarding legal advice. A dispatcher tried to ask what it was regarding, and the man snapped, "I want to talk to him. It's none of your f***** business, really." He refused to give any information other than his name and number.
6:33 p.m. - A 9-1-1 caller reported a man and woman were fighting in a white van at West Baggett and Sunshine lanes, Hermiston.
6:40 p.m. - Another 9-1-1 caller reported two males fought at the Pendleton Little League Park on the 1900 block of Southeast Byers Avenue.
8:32 p.m. - A resident of Walla Walla River Road, Milton-Freewater, reported a man came onto his property and would not leave. The caller said the man pushed him aside, continued onto the property, claimed it was public property and used profanity in front of the caller's wife and daughter. The trespasser walked from River Road and threatened to assault the caller if he touched him or got in his way. The caller said this was the second time he has spoken to the man and requested contact from a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy.

9:17 p.m. - A juvenile female walked on the sidewalk along West Ridgeway Avenue, Hermiston, when a dog jumped a fence and knocked her down. She and other juveniles kicked the dog to fend it off. The dog grabbed her leg but there were no puncture wounds.
9:43 p.m. - A Pendleton resident reporting receiving text messages of a sexual nature. The caller asked to talk to an officer and said some messages were "creepy" and threatening.
10:20 p.m. - A Pilot Rock man complained about a neighbor's vehicle blocking the alleyway behind his home, and the neighbor refused to move it. The caller stated it was not an emergency, however, he called 9-1-1 anyway because he was agitated with the situation.
SATURDAY
5:51 a.m. - An employee of NewWedge Foods, 501 N.W. 36th St., Pendleton, reported several cars had windows broken during the night.
6:58 a.m. - A woman staying at the Tillicum Inn, 1481 Sixth St., Umatilla, told police someone slashed her vehicle's tires during the night.
11:27 a.m. - A caller asked Pendleton police to check on a man suffering mental illness who may not be taking his medication and accused another man of killing a person who still was very much alive.
11:58 a.m. - An older white man driving a late model Dodge 2500 pickup dumped a white bag in a dumpster on West Hermiston Ave, Hermiston, according to a 9-1-1 caller, and kittens were in the bag.
5:28 p.m. - A Helix Neighborhood Watch member on Harrison Street reported the occupant of a "little silver car" claimed to work for DirecTV but had fake identification and no logo on the car. The caller also said the salesperson was now at a neighbor's house.
6:12 p.m. - A woman on West Columbia Lane, Hermiston, called 9-1-1 because her 33-year-old son assaulted her husband.
8:34 p.m. - Those darn goats in Pendleton got out again. This time, 100-150 goats ran along the Pendleton River Parkway near Southeast 17th Street toward the Little League park. A caller about 15 minutes later reported trying to round-up the goat.
9:07 p.m. - A woman on Lind Road Hermiston, said an acquaintance took her blue 2000 Toyota Corolla several days ago and has not returned it.
10:40 p.m. - An employee of employee at Circle K, 1430 N. First St., Hermiston, stayed inside the business until a customer who threatened violence left in a dark colored compact car.

SUNDAY

2:04 a.m. - People have been stealing electricity from a vacant house on Southwest Eighth Street, Pendleton, according to the property owner.
9:39 - A Pendleton man reported the theft of his white Dodge Stratus from Northwest 12th Street.
7:08 p.m. - A man living on Southwest First Street, Pendleton, told police his neighbor came over and stole a couple cigarettes off the porch. The caller also said the man has done this before, and he also denied the man a smoke when he asked for one.
7:44 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report that a hoarder on North Cabana Road, Hermiston, never lets dogs out of a kennel and has about 100 cats, plus "junk all over and the weeds are super overgrown." The house is in such a state, the caller aid, the owner does not live there but comes over at night.

Chamber hosts Education Breakfast

BOARDMAN — Recipients of Boardman Chamber of Commerce scholarships will be recognized during a special event at the Port of Morrow. The Boardman Chamber of Commerce Education Breakfast is Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. in the Riverfront Center at the Port of Morrow, 2 Marine Drive, Boardman. The meal is $10. Dirk Dirksen, superintendent of Morrow County School District, is the guest speaker for the event. In addition, those planning to attend are invited to make a donation to the Blue Mountain Community College Career Clothing Closet. People are asked to donate at least one item of professional attire, such as men's or women's suits, jackets, slacks or shoes. The clothing items are made available to students for interviews and new jobs. For more information or to RSVP for the meal, contact emily@boardmanchamber.org or 541-481-3014.

For the past two years, author Shawn Wong and others with the Red Badge Project have been teaching veterans at Joint Base Lewis-McChord how to share the stories of their lives. Through the project, soldiers have been able to articulate their experiences for themselves, their families and a wider audience through their writing. The workshop is Wednesday from 1-3 p.m. in Room 231 at BMCC, 975 S.E. Columbia Drive, Hermiston. A Red Badge Project presentation is Wednesday from 5:30-7 p.m. in Room 134 at BMCC, Hermiston. For more information, call 541-567-1800 or visit www.blueucc.edu. For more about the Red Badge project, visit www.theredbadgeproject.org.
