Donald R. Campbell, a resident of Mission, passed away Thursday morning, May 12, 2016, at his home. He was 81 years old.

Campbell

Donald was born in Pendleton, Oregon, to Orville O. and Marie E. (Picard) Campbell, November 4, 1934. Donald graduated from Pendleton High School. Donald served in the U.S. Navy from July 25, 1952, to October 21, 1955. He was a longtime member of the Pendleton Eagles Aerie # 28.

Donald married the love of his life, Helen G. Erickson, April 11, 1953. They have three surviving children, Michael Ray of Lebanon, Oregon; Tina Marie of Weston, Oregon; and Pamela Joyce of Adams, Oregon.

Don worked at many different jobs in his lifetime: Maycomber Painting, Umatilla County Shops. Loving the sea and fishing, Don moved the family with in-laws to Newport, Oregon, in 1964 pursuing commercial fishing. After a few unsuccessful years of fishing, in 1975 Don moved the family back to what he called "God's country," his previous home, Pendleton, Oregon. Don worked in construction, heavy equipment and driving truck until an on-the-job injury. Don went back to school at BMCC to earn a degree in civil engineering. With his degree Don worked for CTUIR and private consulting until retirement.

Don always enjoyed friend and family card games. Don rode horses all his life and always enjoyed rodeos, playdays and especially team roping.

He is blessed with two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. We love and miss him very much.
