

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

1:44 a.m. - A resident of Southeast Fifth Street, Irrigon, awoke to his dog "going nuts," and stated that he saw someone crouched down outside the fence. Morrow County sheriff's deputies were unable to find the lurker.

6:47 a.m. - Pendleton police were called to a one-vehicle accident at Murietta Road and Westgate, Pendleton. The pickup was on its side but the driver was out of the vehicle when police arrived.

7:45 a.m. - Prescription sleeping medication was reported stolen from a residence on West Second Street, lone.

7:50 a.m. - A resident of North Hunt Street, Athena, advised the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office that two of their vehicles were broken into the previous night.

8:22 a.m. - Umatilla police received a report of a man who appeared to be burying a bird in front of the city shops on Eighth and G streets.

8:52 a.m. - An lone resident was a victim of the "grandson scam" and reported she wired $1,800 to the scammers before realizing she had been taken in. She requested contact from a Morrow County sheriff's deputy.

9:08 a.m. - Employees of Safeway, 220 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, reported an intoxicated man was becoming belligerent in the Wells Fargo bank area of the store.

11:11 a.m. - A group of motorcyclists, all wearing black jackets and helmets and riding orange motorcycles, were weaving in and out of traffic and driving erratically as they entered Pendleton on Highway 11. The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office investigated the complaint.

12:42 p.m. - Pendleton police investigated a second-hand report of a man possibly carrying a gun in the vicinity of Northwest 14th Street and Carden Avenue.

1:08 p.m. - Morrow County sheriff's deputies took a theft report from a resident of Southwest Fourth Street, Irrigon, who reported her Chiweenie dog and $2,500 cash missing. The caller named suspects in each of the thefts.

4:52 p.m. - Umatilla County sheriff's deputies were called to a possible domestic disturbance at a residence on West Garfield Street, Athena. The caller said her brother, who had earlier threatened to kill her on the phone, had walked through the door of her home. Threats were being made, the caller said, because their mother is not well.

5:01 p.m. - Pendleton emergency services were called to a home on Northwest Johns Lane after a riding lawn mower fell on a 72-year-old woman, causing bleeding.

5:36 p.m. - A resident of North Second Street, Athena, reported to the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office that her dog had been poisoned. She named a suspect, a seven-year-old girl, and said she found greenish-colored meat in her yard that she did not give to her dog.

6:40 p.m. - A resident of Powerline Road, Umatilla, called Umatilla police to report she had just moved into the residence and returned home to find the neighbor kids had egged her house. She wanted to pursue vandalism charges.

9:19 p.m. - A resident of Northwest Fifth St., Pendleton, reported his girlfriend kicked in his door and when his daughter attempted to call police the woman ripped the phone out of the wall. The daughter fled to a neighbor's residence.

OBITUARIES

Joyce Elaine Goodwin

Eltopia, Wash.
September 13, 1939-May 12, 2016

Joyce Elaine Goodwin, 76, of Eltopia, Wash., died on May 12, 2016, at her home surrounded by her family. She was born to parents Otto and Beatrice Houtrou on September 13, 1939, in Grand Coulee, Wash.

Joyce moved to the Tri-Cities in 1948 and graduated from Kennewick High School. She married Verl Goodwin on November 28, 1958. Joyce began working for GE out of high school, transferred to Westinghouse Hanford and eventually retired as a human resource specialist in 1996.

Joyce was a lifelong horsewoman. She loved horses and had a good eye for bloodlines, athleticism, and talented horses. If Joyce said you should get a horse, you probably should. She loved horse races, reading, and a good blackjack table. She was always her kids' biggest fan and seldom missed an opportunity to watch her kids and grandkids compete in all of their activities. Joyce had a heart of gold and loved her family and friends.

Joyce is survived by her husband Verl, daughter Lisa Betz (Troy), son Scott Goodwin (Jeana), sister Norma Hargrove, brother Jim Houtrou, and grandchildren Taylor, Blake and JayCee. She was preceded in death by her parents.

A Celebration of Life will be held in September in Eltopia, Wash.
