PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

1:43 a.m. - Several semi drivers parked illegally at the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 Highway 395, Stanfield, according to a caller, and the drivers refused to move, which blocked the caller from leaving.

5:26 a.m. - Pendleton police received a report that a man living at an apartment complex on Southeast Second Street, Pendleton, beats his girlfriend and moments ago got into a fight with another male.

9:29 a.m. - A caller reported a dark blue Kia four-door sedan illegally parked in the handicapped space at Terwilliger Plaza Apartments, 245 S.W. Fifth St., Pendleton. This was the second time this week Pendleton police received a report about the problem at the complex.

9:40 a.m. - A man reported the theft of his 14-foot flatbed tandem axle trailer with roofing on it from a residence on Cold Springs Loop, Weston. He added the wheel wells are red with rusted holes.

10:58 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of people dumping waste on private property on Upper Basket Mountain, Weston.

11:45 a.m. - A Hermiston-area woman reported her daughter-in-law took photos of her driver's license, credit cards and more and is using them. 12:41 p.m. - The rooster at the blue house on West College Street, Athena, has at least one neighbor who is no fan. The caller said she works a night shift, the rooster keepers her up, and she would sign a complaint. 15:01 p.m. - A woman reported a local offender on probation approached her vehicle last night at Stillman Park, Pendleton, and asked a passenger if she could buy dope for 4:31 p.m. - A Umatilla County sheriff's sergeant reported a large boulder stuck out into the north side of Rieth Road near mile point 9.5.

4:49 p.m. - A mother reported a 16-year-old male harassed her 9-year-old son at Pilot Rock Elementary School and has been doing this for a while.

6:09 p.m. - A woman on Rio Senda Drive, Umatilla, told police she has another flat tire and this is the fifth in two weeks. She asked to speak to an officer about possible criminal mischief.

11:06 p.m. - Scammers conned an Echo couple. A man reported he and his wife received a phone call from someone claiming to be a police officer in Arlington, West Virginia, who stated their granddaughter was in trouble and needed $9,000. They sent the money in a package via FedEx, he said, but now think the call was bogus and would like someone to intercept the package before it arrives Wednesday at 10 a.m.

OBITUARIES

Agapito Carames

Arroyo Grande, Calif. May 15, 2016

Agapito Carames, loving husband, father and friend, died of pancreatic cancer May 15, 2016. Tito was born in a small town of northwestern Spain, just Portugal. above As a teenager he and his mother immigrated to the USA, sponsored by his uncle in the Bronx, N.Y., and began work to support himself. Welding became Tito's niche, from wrought iron furniture to box car trains, until he found a connection with different power plants. His daughter Patty, from his first wife Leonor, was born in San Luis Obispo, Calif., in 1975.

He joined Local 403 Pipefitter Union in San Luis Obispo, working at both San Onofre and Diablo Canyon nuclear power plants. He met his wife Wendy in 1981 while working at WPPSS in Richland, Washington, returned to work at DCPP in 1982, married in 1983 and was employed by Pacific Gas and Electric at Diablo Canyon for 28 years.

Tito was preceded in death by his two brothers Eliseo and Manolo Carames his mother Elisa Torres daughter and Patricia Carames. He is survived by his wife Wendy and son Kasey Carames.

A celebration of life will take place on Wednesday, June 1 at 2:00 p.m. at the Lemos Barn, 2530 Sevada Lane, Arroyo Grande, CA 93420.

who was a pillar of the community, passed away on Tuesday in his home surrounded by family. He was 86. Recitation of the Holy Rosary will be held Thursday, May 26, 2016 at 7 p.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner with Funeral Mass on Friday, May 27, at St. Patrick's

Catholic Church. Concluding service and burial will follow at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

2016 at 11 a.m. Kilkenny

Bob spent his entire life within a 20-mile radius of Heppner and was known as a hard worker, with high integrity and a deep love for his local community. In July of 1997, Bob married the love of his life, Eva Wilkins. Together they traveled the world, but always returned to their home state of Oregon. They shared a love for the University of Oregon and attended many sporting events with family.

Bob was an active community supporter who donated to the high school and contributed to the county fair, the Elks Lodge and St. Patrick's Church. He was a firm advocate of education and believed that supporting the youth in the community doesn't stop with parents or teachers, but that each of us has a responsibility in their full potential. While Bob touched the local Heppner, Oregon, lives of many, he did not need to be recognized for his contributions, instead preferring to do things quietly anonymously. Although his physical presence will be missed, his focus on the community, sense of integrity, humble attitude and kindness continue to live on within his surviving family members.

Bob was also a man of great faith and active in the local Catholic Church. This faith allowed for a peaceful passing and a sense of joy in being reunited with Bob is survived by his wife Eva; his sons Russell (Kim), Patrick (Stephanie), John (Diane) and Kevin (Becky); daughter Kelly (Bob); stepsons Bruce (Lynn), Brian (Sherrie), Jeff Bruce (Kathy), Grant (Tiffany) and Earl; stepdaughter Kellie; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, rememarrangements.
