Fun Summer Learning Ideas!

Summer is a great time for outdoor activities plus fun learning opportunities. Here are some resources for children and families:

Local Library – visit your library for story times and special events. Parents of children birth through 5 years can register free for a Ready 2 Learn card that provides access to books, movies & activities. Learn more at www.ready2learnoregon.org.

Parks & Rec Departments – contact your local dept. for classes and programs for all ages, including swimming, park days, art classes and more.

Pendleton: www.pendletonparksandrec.com

Morrow County: www.morrowcountyparks.org

Community Events – visit your city's website or chamber of commerce for local events like festivals, county fairs and rodeos.

Milton-Freewater: www.mfcity.com

Boardman: www.boardmanchamber.org

Art Centers & Museums – visit your local art center or museum for great exhibits and classes

Pendleton Center for the Arts: www.pendletonarts.org

Sage Center in Boardman: www.visitsage.com

Heritage Station Museum: www.heritigestationmuseum.org

iCanBike Event – this annual event to teach children with disabilities to ride a conventional bicycle is June 26 – July 1 at Armand Larive Middle School in Hermiston. Riders and volunteers are needed! For information and to register, visit www.imesd.k12.or.us/icanbike

Have a safe, wonderful summer!
