Old Iron Show rolls into town

PENDLETON — Kids will enjoy the clanking, whirring antique machinery in action at Heritage Station's annual Old Iron Show, held June 3 to 5 in Roy Raley Park, east of the Pendleton Round-Up Grounds. Vintage cars, steam engines, and farm equipment from yesteryear will be on view.

There is no entrance fee for exhibitors or spectators, though donations are welcome. Show hours are Friday and Saturday from 8 a.m. to dusk, and Sunday 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. All are welcome drop by and see some interesting pieces of history.

Milton, the musical

MILTON-FREEWATER — "Milton," a three-person performance of spoken word and song, examines what it means to be American through the lens of small-town life in Milton-Freewater. Shows held in McLoughlin H.S. Jack Williams Auditorium, 120 S. Main St. Showtimes are June 16, 17, 18, 19 at 7 p.m., with matinees on June 18 and 19 at 2 p.m. On Saturday at 5 p.m., a community barbecue precedes the evening show.

Admission is free for town residents, suggested $5 to $15 donation for others. Call 888-854-5698 for more info.
