Louis Franklin 'Frank' Mader Jr.

Echo February 7, 1933-May 28, 2016

Louis Franklin Mader Jr. "Frank", 83, beloved husband, father, grandfather, ranching never subsided as great-grandfather, and friend, passed away May 28, 2016, with family surrounding him. Frank was born February 7, 1933, in Colfax, Wash., to Louis and Klara Mader. He was raised on the family farm with his brother, Winston, and sister, Miriam. After graduating from Colfax High School, he attended Washington State College where he studied agriculture and was a member of AGR fraternity. Frank married the love of his life. LaVonne Willson. August 27, 1955, in Colfax. Frank served in the U.S. Army prior to and just after their marriage. During the early years of their marriage Frank and LaVonne had two children, Shannon and Kirk. In 1965, Frank and his family moved to the Jordan Valley, Ore., area where he realized his dream of owning a cattle ranch and they enjoyed the western way of life on Succor Creek. In 1977 he and LaVonne moved to Ruby Valley, Nev., where they expanded their cattle operation before settling down on a wheat farm in the Butter Creek area of Echo, Ore., in 1979.

Frank and LaVonne's stewardship of the land earned them the Morrow County Conservation Farm in 1987 and the following year was awarded the Oregon along with raising wheat. In 2002 he partnered with his son on a ranch in Nevada. Frank enjoyed working alongside his family and instilled the importance of hard work in his children. Family and faith were priorities for Frank and his presence will be missed forever.

State Conservation Farm Award. Frank's love for cattle brother he continued to run cattle

Frank was a longtime member of the Oregon Wheat Growers League and the Oregon Cattleman's Association, and a member of the Hermiston

She met Kenneth Hansell while working for Pendleton Grain Growers in Athena, Oregon. They were married February 22, 1958. They had three daughters.

Kathryn worked Hansell many years as church secretary for Athena Christian Church. She was involved with Women's Ministry, Vacation Bible School, Cove Christian Camp counselor and sang in the church choir. She was also a member of the Athena Study Club and American Legion Auxiliary. She taught 4-H sewing when her daughters were in elementary school. She was also "chief chauffeur," driving daughters to piano lessons, swim lessons, sports practices and events, choir events and drama events. She also spent some time as a Hospice volunteer sharing compassion and comfort.

Kathryn's passion was flower gardening. She had gorgeous gardens both on Dry Creek and in Athena. She had color in her gardens yearround and was always willing to share starts from plants with her friends and neighbors. She frequently brought bouquets of flowers to church on Sunday mornings. She loved to walk through her gardens with friends, pointing out new plants and pulling a weed here and there. She and Kenny spent many hours on the backyard swing, watching the hummingbirds, squirrels and other wildlife. She has passed on her love of flowers to her children and grandchildren.

Kathryn spent time on the rivers and lakes with husband Kenny, sister Karen, and Karen's husband Leon.

Mostly they tried to keep kids out of the way while Kenny and Leon fished.

Kathryn was close with her family; many nights were spent playing cards and listening to a wide variety of music. is

Kathryn preceded in death by her mother and father and her husband of 58 years, Kenneth. She is survived by daughters Kelly Maynard of Puyallup, Washington, Shannon Hansell of Echo, Oregon, and Patricia Abel of Salem, Oregon, and her sisters Karen (Moore) Montee and Karol Moore, both of Athena, Oregon. She has 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Kathryn loved Jesus, her family, friends and flowers. She was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.

Her memorial service will be held Saturday, June 4, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. at Athena Christian Church in Athena, Oregon.

Our family would like to thank the staff at Washington Odd Fellows and Walla Walla Community Hospice for their loving, compassionate care. 2:48 p.m. - A man came to a house on Southwest 30th Street, Pendleton, threw items from the house and yelled he was "going to fight fire with fire," and at one point obtained a gas can but then sat on the porch. A caller asked police to check him out.

4:35 p.m. - A Pendleton man reported a neighbor parked in front of his home on Southwest 14th Street, and when he asked them to move the vehicle, the female reached across the fence and slapped him.

5:01 p.m. - A Pendleton man told police a "very emaciated" female with dark hair, dark pants, a black cami top and a lot of tattoos asked if she could go through his garbage. He told her no, he said, but she acted suspicious, and the house at the front of the property is vacant. He asked for an officer to make sure she did not get inside.

7:06 p.m. - A man reported he took his girlfriend to a white house in Pendleton between Court Avenue and the Umatilla River levee so she could retrieve some personal items when several people came from the house, grabbed her and forced her inside while others threw rocks at his vehicle. He told police he would meet them at the Pendleton Convention Center on Westgate Drive.

9:40 p.m. A Pendleton woman reported her husband ripped her hair out while she was holding her daughter and then began punching himself.

10:08 p.m. - A supervisor at Columbia Harvest Foods, 1411 Sixth St., Umatilla, reported two black males came to the store for a third time and touched a cashier's bottom, then left in a black SUV toward Irrigon.
