WESTON Pioneer Days Picnic celebrates 124th anniversary

A tradition of honoring past, celebrating the present and embracing the future continues this weekend with the Umatilla County Pioneer Days Picnic. Most of the activities take place in and around Charles Elliott Park in Weston.

In its 124th year, the event kicks off Friday at 6:30 p.m. with the Queen Coronation at Weston Memorial Hall. Queen JoAnn Fox and grand marshals Valerie and Bob Smith will be honored.

Saturday's activities start to sizzle from 5:30-9:30 a.m. with the Firemen's Breakfast. Also, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., park activities include craft vendors, concessions, stage entertainment, games and a barbecue cook-off

The parade begins with the kids at 9:45 a.m. The main parade gets rolling at 10 a.m. An announcer's booth will provide information about entries as they pass at Main and Water streets.

The focal point of the event — a picnic — starts at 11 a.m. Barbecued beef will be served up until it's gone.

Alumni Dinner is Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in Weston Memorial Hall. The event's grand finale is a street dance featuring Tylor & the Train Robbers from 9 p.m. to midnight.

In a presentation to the Weston Chamber of Commerce in 1998, Noma (Herndon) Tucker, who was honored as queen in 1994, discussed the event's history. She shared her own recollections, as well as highlights from researching scrapbooks with old newspaper articles.

Tucker called the Pioneer Picnic an "important rite of spring." She died in 2007 at the age of 94.

In the early days, Tucker said the Pioneer Picnic rotated venues, including Milton and Athena. During election years, the event was spread over three days to accommodate long-winded politicians who would take the stage to give speeches.

Tucker stressed the importance of centering the event around a picnic, which was the original focus to encourage people to get together for fellowship. For more, visit umatillacountypioneersassociation.com.
