

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

5:46 a.m. - A College Place man reported the theft of his 1991 Nissan pickup from the 1000 block of Northeast Fourth Avenue, Milton-Freewater.

7:12 a.m. - A Pendleton woman told police someone during the night egged her vehicle on Northwest Fourth Street.

8:10 a.m. - A Pilot Rock resident reported a neighbor on Southeast Cherry Street rescues cats and now has about 30 living there. The caller said the neighborhood is starting to stink.

8:40 a.m. - A Stanfield woman wanted to speak to police about her ex-boyfriend not giving back her dog after they separated.

10:23 a.m. - A train conductor reported a blue tent near railroad tracks at Westgate Drive and Southwest Court Avenue where the train goes under the overpass.

10:26 a.m. - Stanfield police received reports of two pit bull dogs on the loose at the Echo Skate Park, Echo, where they chase turkeys.

12:36 p.m. - A caller reported dog abuse at one residence at Mountain View Apartments, 2410 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton.

12:45 p.m. - Milton-Freewater police received a report of a hit and run on a vehicle on the 200 block of Southwest Second Avenue. This was the first of four reports of hit and run throughout the day. A caller at 2:54 p.m. reported someone backed into a fence on the 600 block of North Russell Street; then at 5:38 p.m. a woman told police someone backed into her vehicle at Central Middle School, 306 S.W. Second Ave.; and the last report was at 6:53 p.m. from a man who said someone on the 200 block of Northeast 13th Street sideswiped his vehicle.

12:46 p.m. - A caller told Pendleton police a man assaulted a woman at an apartment on Southwest 28th Drive.

1:15 p.m. - Thieves are dismantling a barn on Speare Canyon Road, Echo, according to a caller, and the cost is probably in the thousands of dollars. The caller also said this has been reported in the past.

1:57 p.m. - A caller told Pendleton police she was concerned a group of juveniles is taking advantage of a man who pays them for work they did not do.

2:14 p.m. - Reports started coming in about a vehicle going over a cliff east of Boardman near milepost 151 on the westbound side of Interstate 84. The vehicle came off a trailer, and no one was inside.

2:38 p.m. - A caller at Columbia Outdoor Sports & Surplus, 395 E. Main St., Hermiston, reported a male was there trying to sell power tools and was concerned they were stolen. Hermiston police responded and cited a person.

2:44 p.m. - Staff at Rocky Heights Elementary, 650 W. Standard Ave., Hermiston, asked for an officer to take a kitten from the school's office.

4:38 p.m. - A Pendleton mother asked for an officer to talk to her 9-year-old daughter about the consequences of theft after she stole lip balm from a business.

4:47 p.m. - A Heppner woman asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office if another person could come into her home and throw away items because she is a hoarder.

5:20 p.m. - A man told Hermiston police the woman he lives with accused him of stealing items from the house. He said he took his daughter's clothes, which the woman bought, but that was all.

6:19 p.m. - An Irrigon father reported the neighbor's juvenile son entered his home, hit his son, entered his daughter's room and now is back in his own yard.

6:59 p.m. - Pendleton police received another report that a man on Monday assaulted his girlfriend at her apartment on Southwest 28th Drive.

9:34 p.m. - A Hermiston man asked police for advice because his brother shut himself in a room and turned up the TV volume so loud he cannot get his children to sleep.

Learning Picnics program builds literacy skills

IONE — Parents, caregivers and children are invited to upcoming Learning Picnics.

The program provides kids ages 0-6 an opportunity to play with a purpose while exploring, learning and building important literacy skills.

The free events are each Tuesday in June and Tuesday, July 12 from 10 a.m. to noon at Creative Care Preschool, 470 E. Main St., Ione. Each child will receive a new book at each session. In addition, snacks are provided.

For more information, call Alison Ogden at 541-422-7418.

Class features corn-husk twining

MISSION — An upcoming class on corn-husk twining will include instruction on how to make a hat.

The sessions are June 8-9 from 6-9 p.m. in Kateri Hall, located behind St. Andrew's Church, 48022 St. Andrews Road, Mission. The cost is $25. Participants will need to purchase two balls of hemp cord, which is available at Walmart. Dyed corn-husks will be provided.

Maynard White Owl-Lavadour will provide instruction and photos. For more information, call White Owl-Lavadour at 541-276-7157.

Youth art festival seeks participants

Students in fifth through 12th grade are invited to apply for an art festival that will award cash prizes and art supplies.

The Oregon Coast Invitational Youth Art Festival is Aug. 27 through Sept. 5 in Toledo. The application is due Friday, June 10.

Students must send two photos of original work created in the past year that shows their creative abilities and imagination. The artwork can be a painting, drawing, sculpture or ceramic work.

Those selected to participate will be notified by June 20. Participants will then have two months to create a "Sculpture in Paper" for the event (further details will be provided those selected).

OBITUARIES

Louis Franklin 'Frank' Mader Jr.

Echo
February 7, 1933-May 28, 2016

Louis Franklin Mader Jr. "Frank", 83, beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and friend, passed away May 28, 2016, with family surrounding him. Frank was born February 7, 1933, in Colfax, Wash., to Louis and Klara Mader. He was raised on the family farm with his brother, Winston, and sister, Miriam. After graduating from Colfax High School, he attended Washington State College where he studied agriculture and was a member of AGR fraternity.

Mader

Frank married the love of his life, LaVonne Willson, August 27, 1955, in Colfax. Frank served in the U.S. Army prior to and just after their marriage. During the early years of their marriage Frank and LaVonne had two children, Shannon and Kirk. In 1965, Frank and his family moved to the Jordan Valley, Ore., area where he realized his dream of owning a cattle ranch and they enjoyed the western way of life on Succor Creek. In 1977 he and LaVonne moved to Ruby Valley, Nev., where they expanded their cattle operation before settling down on a wheat farm in the Butter Creek area of Echo, Ore., in 1979.

Frank and LaVonne's stewardship of the land earned them the Morrow County Conservation Farm in 1987 and the following year was awarded the Oregon State Conservation

Farm Award. Frank's love for cattle ranching never subsided as he continued to run cattle along with raising wheat. In 2002 he partnered with his son on a ranch in Nevada. Frank enjoyed working alongside his family and instilled the importance of hard work in his children. Family, faith and friends were priorities for Frank and his presence will be missed forever.

Frank was a longtime member of the Oregon Wheat Growers League and the Oregon Cattleman's Association, and a member of the Hermiston First Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife of 60-plus years, LaVonne; daughter Shannon Rust (Tim), Echo, Ore.; son Kirk Mader (Donna), Orovada, Nev.; grandchildren Brian Rust (Jordan), Brooke Carmine (Randy), Brynna Rust, Quinn Mader, Kade Mader; great-grandson Karsten Carmine; brother Winston Mader, Pullman, Wash.; sister Miriam Barckert (Gary), Shoreline, Wash.; and many nieces and nephews.

Contributions may be made to the First Christian Church Memorial Fund, 775 W. Highland Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838, or Sharing Alongside, P.O. Box 33663, Seattle, WA 98133.

Services will be held at the Hermiston First Christian Church Friday, June 3, at 1:00 p.m., with burial in Colfax at a later date.
